Continual Progress

1911 was the best year The Great-West Life has known.

The New Year commenced similarly. January was the best January—February the best month yet—March promises to do better still.

This success has but one explanation—the VALUE of the Great-West Policies.

A meeting of the council of the Archbishop's Western Canada Fund was held at the Church House on January 26, with the Bishop of Southwark in the chair. The treasurers presented their financial statement for the year 1911, showing that the fund had £10,164 10s. at their disposal. According to the scheme drawn up last year the following grants were made:—(1) To the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel for their work in Western Canada, £4,041 4s. 9d. (£2,000 of this already paid); (2) To the Colonial and Continental Church Society for their work in Western Canada, £4,041 4s. 9d. (£2,000 of this already paid); (3) £500 for building Women's Mission House at Edmonton, Alberta; (4) £1,000 to be set apart for the training of lay workers for work in Western Canada; (5) £1,500 for the Regina Railway Mission House. (This is rendered imperative by the recent burning of the temporary house at Regina. It is hoped, however, that this may be refunded by the efforts of supporters in the diocese of Carleton during the next four years.) (6) £1,000 for the building of a Mission House at Lethbridge, Southern Alberta; (7) £250 to compensate members of the Regina Railway Mission for loss owing to the recent fire. It was decided that the chairman, the Bishop of Southwark, should consult with the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Archbishop of York as to the allocation of the remainder to some new effort in Western Canada.

The Rev. Canon Welch, the vicar of Wakefield, preached in York Minster on a recent Sunday evening.

In recognition of the great work which he has accomplished during the past 27 years as Bishop of the diocese of Ripon, Bishop Boyd Carpenter was recently the recipient of various presentations which were made to him on behalf of many friends, by the Earl of Harewood at the Town Hall, Leeds, who, at a largely attended meeting which was held therein, presented the Bishop with a purse containing over £520. A richly illuminated address, which was signed by all the subscribers to the purse, was also handed to the Bishop. Subsequently, at the Church Institute, Bishop Boyd Carpenter was presented with two large bookcases by the committee for the Good Friday services, which he conducted during many years. On behalf of the staff and students of the Diocesan Training College, the Bishop was also presented informally with a desk, "in affectionate remembrance of his helpful and kindly interest in the College during his long episcopate."

HE GOT A CALL

Dearest Hubby—When you go out of town again, please leave my CAMPANA'S ITALIAN BALM at home as I need it for my complexion these windy, dusty days. If you want it for your old shaving, buy a bottle for yourself, stingy. Cecilia.

BLACHFORD
114 Yonge Street

The Church of St. Andrew at Little Steeping, near Spilsby, Lincs, is to be restored as a memorial in England to Bishop Steere, the first Bishop of Central Africa, who proceeded from its rectory to his work on that vast continent in 1873. The church dates back to the 13th century.
