

FARM AND FIRESIDE.

Tansy leaves spread freely among woollens and furs are a protection against moths.

Fine shavings from soft pine wood make a pleasant pillow. They have special curative virtues for coughs and lung troubles.

A sagging gate and a door that sticks, Costs more to use than it does to fix.

TEMPERANCE JOTS.

Many a man has ruined his sight by sitting in a bar room looking for work.

Joy and temperance and repose
Slam the door on the doctor's nose.

It is said of a young man who attended a certain church and gave one cent when the collection plate came round, that he smoked three 5c. cigars the same day.

A correspondent from South Dakota writes: "We have had only one saloon in our town for a year past and that is now closed. The proprietor was converted last Sunday night in the Methodist Church and has since poured all his beer and liquor in the street." We have known the same thing to be done in other places.

If a very small matter will keep you away from a religious meeting, you may fear that your religious life is not deep-rooted.

With many who will read this paragraph the adoption of good religious habits is the one thing most needed to give them a good start in better Christian living.

The secret of the spiritual barrenness over which you mourn may be found in the fact that you have not tried to be a dispenser to others of the grace you receive from the Lord. Divine grace is poured into running streams, not into stagnant ponds.

We search the world for truth; we cull

The good, the pure, the beautiful,
From graven stone and written scroll,
From all old flower-fields of the soul;
And, weary seekers of the best,
We come back laden from our quest,
To find that all the sages said
Is in the Book our mothers read.
