

The Governor to appoint a Warden for each district.

V. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor of this Province, by Letters Patent to be issued under the Great Seal of this Province, to appoint from time to time, as occasion may require, one fit and proper person to be Warden of and in each of the said Districts, for the purposes of this Ordinance, which Warden shall hold his office during pleasure.

When and by whom the Councillors are to be elected.

VI. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that at the first meeting of the Inhabitant householders of the several Parishes and Townships, or reputed Parishes and Townships, or Unions of Parishes and Townships, and of reputed Parishes and Townships, in the respective Districts in this Province, to be held in pursuance of a certain Ordinance made and passed in the present year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Ordinance to prescribe and regulate the election and appointment of certain officers in the several Parishes and Townships in this Province, and to make other provisions for the local interests of these divisions of the Province," there shall be elected by the said Inhabitant householders, assembled and qualified in the manner prescribed by the said Ordinance, one or two Councillors, to be members of the said District Councils, respectively, according as such local divisions as aforesaid, may by reason of the amount of their population, and according to the provisions hereinafter contained, be empowered and required to elect one or two Councillors; and at each succeeding annual meeting to be held as aforesaid, there shall be elected by the Inhabitant householders assembled and qualified as aforesaid, a Councillor or Councillors to supply the place of the Councillor or Councillors (if any there be) who, having been elected for the local division for which the meeting shall be held, shall have vacated his or their seat or seats, in the manner hereinafter provided; and a Councillor to represent such local division in the District Council, if such local division shall, since the then last election, have become entitled to elect two such Councillors instead of one.

How and by
elections are to be conducted
and determined.

VII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that the said Inhabitant householders shall at every such meeting first proceed to the election of a Councillor or Councillors; and the Poll for such election if demanded by any candidate or by any three electors then present, shall be kept open to an hour not later than three in the afternoon of the first day of such meeting, and shall then finally close. And the name of each elector voting at such election shall be written in Poll Lists, to be kept at such election by the Justice of the Peace or other person holding the same; and after the final close of such Poll, such Justice or other person shall forthwith proceed publicly to declare the number of votes given for each candidate, and shall declare
