

CHURCH SERVICES

SETTERIAN CHURCH-Revd. W. M. SETTERIAN CHURCH-Revd. W. M. Indy, 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday ind, 230 p.m. Prayer services Fri versening at 7.30. HODIST CHURCH-Revd. R. W. Weddall A. Pastor. Services on Sunday at 11 m. and 7 p.m. Sunday School 2.30 m. Prayer service, Friday evening at 10

A., Pastor. Services on Sunday at a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday School, 2 m. Prayer Service, Wednesday even g at 7.30. ANDREW CHURCH-Revd. Father ahan, D. D. Pastor. Services Sun-at 8.00 a. m., 10.30 a. m. and 7.30

m. SAINTS CHURCH-Revd. Geo. H. lliott, B. A., Rector. Services Holy ommunion Sundays 8.00 a. m. 1st unday at 11 a. m. Morning Prayer nd Sermon on Sundays 11 a. m. venings- Rrayer and Sermon on Sun-ays at 7.00 p. m. Fridavs, Evening rayer Service 7.30.

Staff of Trained Teachers. Best Course of Instruction ividual Attention given each

r Best Advertisement-the Suc ess of Our Graduates. idents can enter at any time

Catalogues to any Address.

CANADIAN PACIFU

Direct Short Route Maritime Provinces

Montreal and West w. HALIFAX, - 8.00 a.m

w. ST. JOHN, - 5.45 p.m.

Fast Express Trains BETWEEN MONTREAL - TORONTO

DETROIT - CHICAGO

W. B. HOWARD, D. P. A., C. P. R., ST. JOHN, N. B.

adge Carleton,

CHANGE OF TIME than any other agency." Sands of Arny bansater to the colours if they were indemnified against pecuniary loss. The plan is certraced she would be able to give import- brought to justice."-Police Report in ladies for their kindness and thoughtfulness in presenting the battalion, which he Grand Manan S. S. Service has the honor to command, with drums, time been the wife of a farmer in the Guards' drummer. Most of us have seen tainly worth considering, for it would not and said that when in their places in the north of Kiangsu. She had been captured in the streets, and those who have seen rob the new battalions of a single efficient firing line every drum beat would be a re-914-Fall and Winter Season-1915 in the streets, and those who have seen will never forget, the inimitable flourish of the sticks as the drummer beats his kettledrums on the perfectly trained horse. New Brunswick's battalion. He referred New Brunswick's battalion. He referred of the chieftains of the band which raided GRAND MANAN ROUTE Leave Grand Manan Mondays at 7.30 m. for St. John, via Eastport and It is the finest piece of ceremonial swag ger on high occasions that England has to show. The horse, without a guiding hand, steps in a faultless measure as though he could never betray the trust of dignity imposed upon him. We under take to say—such is our belief in the com-pelling power of music, or at all events of rhythm—that if nothing but a drum were available to beat recruits up to the cruiting offices it would be well to use it When Walt Whitman and Bret Harte recorded their impressions of the Amer ampobello. Returning, leave Turnbull's Wharf, St bhn, Wednesday at 7.30 a m Inc. returnsday at 7.30 a. m., for Grand Innan via Campobello and Eastport. Leave Grand Manan Thursday at 8 a. for St. Stephen via Campbellton, East-ret, and St. Andrews. rt, and St. Andrews. Returning, leave St. Stephen at 7.30 a "Fridays, for Grand Manan via St. ndrews, Eastport and Campobello. Leave Grand Manan Saturdays at 7.30 m. for St. Andrews. Returning same day, leave St. Andrews 1.30 p. m. recorded their impressions of the Amer-ican Civil War, it was always the drum the recorded their mercorded their recollec. The men then presented arms and gave three rousing cheers for the ladies. After the noise of the cheers had subsided the arms the woman, who, at the time of his arrest was staving at a house in Atlantic Standard Time again, it is a mistake to aim too high, that came to the surface of their recollec-tions. The man of Bret Harte's face might ask who was to stay and reap the helping us to beat the Germans. Pro-helping us to beat the Germans. Pro-to might ask who was to stay and reap the helping us to beat the Germans. Pro-helping us to beat the Germans. L. G. GUPTILL, Manager RITIME STEAMSHIP CO.. LTD harvest if he went, but the searching answer of the drum was final: "'Death dignity are most likely to be taken up if the barvest 'said the Wong Loh, left for a village north of cohabiting shall reap the braver harvest,' said the solemn-sounding drum." In France, too. as one can see from a glance at military er Connors Brothers has been taker off the route for inspection. ntil further notice the auxiliary schrs. Page" and "Happy Home" will perform e service in place of the Connors Bros. as one can see from a glance at military sculpture, the drum has the first place in Now that we have time to draw breath the form of a maple leaf with a large "26" The Police went on her track, and in about a week, she was arrested with the Union of South Africa has decided to the affections of the nation. In 187 Convert Barro sholished the Franch drum Leave St. John, N. B., Thorne Wharf d Warehouse Co., on Saturday, 7.30 a. for St. Andrews, calling at Dipper arbor, Beaver Harbor, Black's Harbor, General Fare abolished the French drum, and look on the great work of multary and look on the great work of multary and not not deliberation, it seems utterly wrong to conduct the busi-a belt with the words "26th New Bruns-a belt with the sessoriate of it, and surmounted by a name a tot, or multary where she stated that the ex-P.C. have will produce £250,000, but no information comparing the sessoriate of it. arbor, Beaver Harbor, Black's Harbor, tck Bay or Lettet, Deer Island, Red ore, St. George. Returning leave St. ndrews Tuesday for St. John, calling at itete or Back Bay, Black's Harbor, saver Harbor and Dipper Harbor, tide d weather nermitting confided to her that three associates of is yet forthcoming regarding the basis or ness as though the new soldiers were wick Battalion" on the top, and "Semper ular by restoring it. Napoleon called the drum the king of instruments, for it alone hearted lads whose pulses would tingle to ular by restoring it. Napoleon called the ensures the brisk cadenced step in marchrhythmical music. The need for martial by the Women's Canadian Club." made a big haul of money and jewellery in facilities to pay the levy in instalme ing. Visitors to Paris know David's tri-Shanghai, that they, at the same time, spread over a limited period. music is as old as Ennius; and the same weather permitting. bute to Estienne, the drummer of Arcola, kind of music that thrilled the Roman ear Globe, Feb. 23. GENT-Thorne Wharf and Warehouse on the frieze of the Pantheon. It was can thrill ours. We use almost the same word in expressing one of the most char-Co., St. John, N. B. Estienne who beat the charge against the ins across the Adige, and it is said one 77: manager, Lewis Connors, acteristic sounds :--INDUSTRY ck's Harbor, N. B. that Napoleon gave him drumsticks of "At tuba terribilem sonitum taratantara dixit. had been killed except on that occasion, 106th year on Tuesday, Feb. 5. He joined ivory and gold, and that when Estienne as The Company will not be resp H. B. Short of the Maritime Fish Cor. and no other robbery which would fit the the Navy 92 years ago and is probably -The Spectator, Feb. 6. an old man beheld David's tribute to him r any debts contracted after this date thout a written order from the Com-ny or Captain of the steamer. poration was in the city yesterday on his description had taken place in Shanghai the oldest service man in the Empire. In for the first time he fell dead of emotion. the second second way to Digby. Mr. Short attended the at the time indicated. Psychologists have recorded that, under way to Digby, Mr. Snort attended the meeting held in Montreal recently when a Canadian Fisheries Association was Arrangements were made for tracing Hwang Ts-ziang, who, in the interval, was bargeman, After more than 40 years' the first time and according to the dis-PRESENTATION OF DRUMS TO piercing reiterations of the drum, 26TH REGIMENT Notice half-civilized men have returned to their primal state, the cultivation of their senses reported to have come to a certain locality service he was pensioned by the company. Nornoz Is HERERY Grven that appli-tion has been made by The Canadian efficient application of the second second public Works, Ottawa, in accordance ith clause 7, Chapter 115 of the Revised that the of Oanada, 1906, for permission build a wharf in the St. Croix River, the Town of St. Stephen extending om the property now occupied by the ominion Fertilizer Company Limited, wards low water mark all in the Town St. Stephen, in the County of Char-tie and Province of New Brunswick. Ins and description of said wharf and to thereof have been filed in the office the Register of Deeds, in the County Charlotte, in the Province of New runswick. "At the meeting," said Mr. Short, in the Pootung District, and he was paralysed and destroyed. In such states The feature of work in conne they may become unconscious of pain in a real hypnosis. Those are rare effects, tation of two splendid big base drums by Koo Sz, after squandering what he had of course-fortunately-but they suggest the wonderful power of the drum. The side-drum is not an instrument of music armory on the stroke of twelve. Ine side-drum is not an instrument of music but a marker of rhythm; but the kettle drum has gone up in the world since Beet made out of old rifle boxes, on which prove of great benefit to the fisheries," hoven turned it into a solo instrument, and Berlioz praised it with enthusiasm. For generations the tap, tap, of the drum brought French men and women running to their doors as no other sound running to their doors as no other sound catches. Frink and others of the executive of the period, was rather unfortunate, as the Mr. Short leaves for Digby this morn- principal of the three against whom incould. They could never be indifferent club. The drums were on the front of ing .- Standard, Feb. 25. to what Thackeray called the platform and were draped with a large Union Jack. Mrs. Kuhring made a brief introductory speech, in which she spoke formation had been laid, when taxed with the offence, later on, threw all the blame of the robbery and murder on the man hope that this event may be so little post. WELDON & MoLEAN, Solicitors for The Canadia Pacefic Reilway Company. John, N. B. me 23rd, 1914. -"The story of two hundred years With on the partnerse of a durning with on the partnerse of a durning
into the partnerse of a durning more imposing than drums. There are many old Army bandamen still in the country, even if many of the present
hen, with a her externed the present bandamen have gone to the front to bandamen still in the still in the still have gone to the front to bandamen have gone to the front to bandamen have gone to the front to bandamen still in the still in the still have gone to the match with there was a dramatic scene in court
whet he part gathered from antraction their companionship, and particularly of the feilings of the spectators were main bandamen and she did in the following a singeong and went on with this queer, definint ture. The Lincolnshire Foacher,
There was nothing in it - nothing externeCARRIE DAVIS IS ACQUITTED
Toronto, Ont, Feb. 27. — The jury in the toronto, Ont, Feb. 27. — The jury in the
toronto, Ont, Feb. 27. — The jury in the solid field a hour, returned a vericit of no outry.
were the full to bastilion is in the band. May full is addiced, the of the match with have during the feilings of the spectators were main
toronto, ont, Feb. 27. — The jury in the
toronto, Ont, Feb. 27. — The jury in the solid field a hub, a differed from har right eye, was report-
toronto, Ont, Feb. 27. — The jury in the
toronto, Ont, Feb. 27. — The jury in the
toronto, Ont, Feb. 27. — The jury in the toronto the din the following and toronto Writ on the parchment of a drum." CARRIE DAVIS IS ACQUITTED ERIFF'S OFFICE ST. ANDREWS. R. A. STUART, HIGH SHERIF Time of Sittings of Courts in the ounty of Charlo CIRCUIT COURT; Second Tuesday in ay, and First Tuesday in October County County First Tuesday in bruary and June, and the Fourth meday in October in each year.

VOL. 26

IN LAST YEAR'S CAMP

THEY stole the gorse's glory, they scared the foals at play, They yearned for Tipperary on every woodland way; Their tent peaks pricked the dawning, their bugles shook the dew, While the encamped Division became the men we kne The tents were struck at twilight, the pipers skirled a cry, The stars came out in Heaven to bid the lads good bye. That night they took the Old Road, the straightest road that runs, Deep with the dust of armies, and graven by their guns.

Now tentless lie the moorlands, the glades most lonely are : But still the russet ponies stand solemnly afar; And still I think they hearken, and know the sound of men-The marching tramp of heroes we shall not see again. Now leave we to its glory the camp of yesterday, Vex not its echoes lightly — their souls may come this way, The lads who cut the bracken when beechen leaves were red, And, ere the cuckoo's calling, were England's Deathless Dead ! -M. ADAIR MACDONALD, in The Spectator

BANDS FOR THE MILLION

all England, all the East Coast, all the fun and daring and horseplay of young men bucketing about big pastures in the moon S Mr. Kipling said at the Mansion light. But as it was given very softly at House last week, the New Armies that bad time in that terrible camp of were born in silence, but that is no death, it was the one thing in the world reason why they should walk in silence that could have restored, as it did restore for the rest of their lives. When the shaken men back to their pride, humour work of military construction began in and self-control." We are reminded that this country, unprepared for war and not expecting it, there was no time to think soldiers, enduring their misery in silence of the aids to recruiting. True, aids to in the slush of the disconsolate plateau recruiting, such as bands playing young used to cast longing looks towards the men up to the booths on the Horse Guards' French lines, where they could see the Parade, would have been of the greatest French soldiers gathered round their value from the first moment. But the regimental bands. Again, we think of country was not then in the spirit to one of those poems of Sir Alfred Lyali worry about anything but the naked for- which have held the affection of all men mality of accepting the oaths of recruits. who know India, in spite of the roughness It was in the mood of a carpenter so of their finish, because they all contain anxious to make a beginning with his job that he rushes at it saw in hand and for- "After the Skirmish" Lyall describes how gets to moisten his hands. Now the time a soldier killed at Rohilcund in 1858 was has come to remember that recruiting buried, and how the music of the band does go better to music. We sincerely hope that the Recruiting Bands Committee afterwards was the most poignant part of will get all the money they want, and that the ceremony :-the organization of victory will proceed in

"With the funeral march still echoing round, future to a merry tune. We had spread the mould o'er his tartan gory But as we turned from the shapeless mound Sweet rose the music of 'Annie Laurie'; Punch this week has an excellent cartoon under which are some words from Full and clear from the pacing band, Passionate strain of a love-lorn story, How can they breathe it in strangers' land, Air of our Northern Annie Laurie? Kipling's speech. Here is the passage which those words are taken :-

"From the lowest point of view a few drums and fifes in the battalion mean at least five extra miles in a route march, quite apart from the fact that they can For him whom we leave in the lonely brake Watched by the Himalay mountains hoary Will not his brain from the death-sleep wak. Touched by the magic of Annie Laurie?" Watched by the Hima swing a battalion back to quarters happy

Of course men who ought to be in th and composed in its mind, no matter how field, and as you leave our shores we re is no route marching, the mere he and go, the roll and flourishing of ms and fifes around the wet or tired its body may be. Even when fighting line must not be employed as there is no route marching, the mere come and go, the roll and flourishing of drums and fifes around the barracks, is as warming and cheering as the sight of a fire in a room. A band, not necessarily a full band, is immensely valuable in the district where men are billeted. It revives memories it unickens association it opens nemories, it quickens association, it opens lished the other day a scheme by a wellind unites it ductors account on, it options in the other day a scheme by a weir known Army musician for employing known Army musician for employing veterans. He said that there were thousands of Army handsmen ready to return the sands of A privilege of being present here this morn-ing to see you as a regiment, to look into ATROCIOUS MURDER IN SHANGHAI alleged murderers originally emanated, was apprehended in his house in Chapei your courageous, manly faces and to as-CLEVER DETECTIVE WORK sure you, our brave defenders, of our neartfelt interest and solicitude for your comfort and welfare, in your united effort for King and Empire, and in upholding the honor of Britain's flag, which has mnia Corfes, a German subject, was

SAINT ANDREWS, NEW BRUNSWICK, THURSDAY, MARCH 4, 1915

The Beacon

It's only an old piece of bunting, It's only an old colored rag; But thousands have died for its honor And shed their best blood for the flag. As the 26th N. B. Regiment you will go forth as representatives of one of the most loyal provinces in the British Empire. from a new and nearly completed build- Astor Road on January 23, 1914.

villages. "Watch ye! Stand fast in the faith

Quit you like men! Be strong!" Men of New Brunswick and of Canada. You've heard the Motherland afar Calling her children, scattered wid You haste as swells the notes of war To face the conflict at her side. That call of Motherland has rung oughout Canada and from every provthe King's domains overseas, will do its of being connected with the crime. duty, grim, though that duty may be, long though it must be sustained, grave were protracted and which, as time went a declaration which he made regarding hough may be the cost! Great Britain's on and information began to come in from the crime he implicated himself, the head sword is drawn for the right, and all other other ports, were spread further and mafoo, and a coolie who was employed in things are secondary to that of the triumph further afield, would fill many pages and the shop. The latter made a full con-the dragon of Prussian militarism! We women of St. John and of all Canada are heart and soul with the Empire and its allies, and we feel assured that our uphold the honor of the land of their birth, but add fresh lustre to the deeds of your > brave Loyalist forefathers and the Loyal- be taken. st forefathers to those who sleep on the South African veldt or by the Modder hings in hunting down robbers in the And, our brave defenders, when you hear these drums, far away from home, you will be reminded of those you leave behind, the women of New Brunswick and especially St. John, who are ever mindful of you! For brave soldiers in the

Will follow with our thoughts and prayer The richly freighted vessel's wake; Through blinding fog and hidden snares, Winds, bear you safely, for our sake. One prayer is breathed on sea and land, From King and peasant, cot and hall, From snow-capped hills to coral strand God guard you, lads, and bless you all.

ricts north of the Yangtze. He was not able to bring forward his At the conclusion of Mrs. Smith's speech Lieut.-Col. McAvity thanked the

EXPOSITION OPENED

San Francisco, Feb. 25.-Canada's was formally opened to the public to-day, which stood in her room. The case, from a Police point of view, be charged on July 13, at the Mixed Court, Agriculture. In his address, Mr. Burrell ristled with difficulties at the outset, oc- together with Wong Loh and Wang read the following dispatch from Mr. Lewis urring, as it did, in a house which was Ts-ziang, with being concerned in the Harcourt, British Secretary of State for joined on to, and which was accessible murder of Welhelmnia Corfes at No. 14 Colonial Affairs, conveying a message respect the rights of women and little when Chinese whom it was necessary to the Charge Sheet, he having been identi- Sovereign to the Panama Pacific Inter-nost all the Police Forces of the world, bed-room, shortly after the murder, were Dominion of Canada is taking part in this and telegramstwere dispatched to all the compared with those on the right hand of exhibition, thus testifying to the apprecialaces where ships which left the port Wong Loh and found to correspond. tion of the British Empire at the linking that morning and which might be carry- The four accessed were handed over to of the Atlantic and Pacific, and at the ng away the murderers, were likely to the Court of the Military Governor on happy results which may be expected call, attention was directed to the move- August 18, together with a Chinese house- from the mingling of the waters of the ments of certain persons who were still boy, who had occupied a room behind two oceans." nce the response has gone back prompt, within the reach of the Police, and who, that of the murdered woman on the morn. At the conclusion of Mr. Burrell's adnearty, resonant: This, the second of for various reasons, were under suspicion ing of January 23, and who had since that dress "God Save the King" and "The date been detained in Police custody. He Star Spangled Banner " were played.

suitable for reproduction in this report. It This made three of the servants responmodern Japan holds his Majesty and the may, perhaps, suffice to say, that although sible. They were, accordingly, with the nation he represents. The idea of the a mass of material was gathered and filed other four men, charged at the Mixed presentation originated with the influen-"Canadian born" regiments will not only it was not until June 3 that the Police Court, found guilty, and finally remitted tial Japanese journal Asahi (the Morning received anything definite and tangible in to the Military Governor on December 11, Sun), and Mr. Ryûhei Murayama, the the shape of data on which action could 1914, for execution of sentence. proprietor, chose the sword from his ar At the final hearing of this case in the collection.

On that date a subordinate Chinese Mixed Court Mr. Schirmer, the German An inscription on the case states that the sword is a "humble testimony to the official who is engaged amongst other Assessor, made the following statement:-"The Court finds all the accused guilty profound reverence and pious feeling province of Kiangsu and whose facilities of murder. We find it proved that the with which the people of Nippon have or getting into touch with the roving houseboy Tseu Siau-mau gave the keys been inspired by his Majesty's august and riminal population were such as lent of the house to the coolie, and it has been never-tiring perseverance and the un nsiderable weight to what he said, noti- proved that on that evening the mafoo exampled patriotism of the Belgian peothe Police that he possessed informal gave a dinner, possibly to clear the house ple recently manifested in defence of both tion to the effect that the perpetrators of of servants. The prisoners will be hand humanity and civilization under the the crime at No. 14 Astor Road were ed over to the Chinese Authorities for severest calamity that may befall a Chinese, that one of them was at present execution of sentence. Before concluding nation." The Times Special Correspondent in undergoing a sentence of five years' im- the case I wish to express to the Police prisonment in Yangchow and that the of the International Settlement the special Northern France was privileged to witothers were still at large and frequenting thanks of the German Consulate for the ness the presentation, which, he states, certain robber-infested and turbulent dis- very great assistance they have rendered took place "a few miles across the frontin the conduct of the case, and especially ier, within the little patch of territory to Chief Detective-Inspector Armstrong, constituting all that remains of free and nformer, but he stated that if a certain for it is only due to his hard work on the independent Belgium. . . . In a simemale, whom he described, could be case that these men have been finally ple room within a simple ho "the King received us-Mr. Zamanaka ant evidence. This woman had at one The Municipal Gazette, Shanghai, Jan. 14. the Japanese Chargé d'Affaires to Belgium, Mr. Sugimura; the special corres pondent of the Asahi, and myself. He SEEKING INFORMATION ABOUT shook hands with each of us and wel. comed us in a few words in excellen English."

The Globe is in receipt of a photo of In the course of a short address Mr. man who died near North Creek, N.Y.

ST. ANDREWS

PLATE GLASS

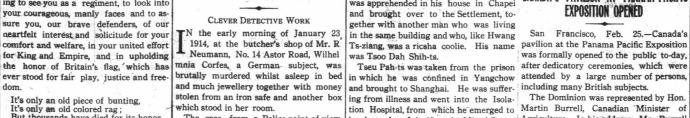

NO. 31

A heavy stock, with every facility for quick

handling and prompt shipment, enables us

to meet readily all demands for Plate

We carry standard sizes, also bevelled

Tseu Pah-ts was taken from the prison after dedicatory ceremonies, which were The Dominion was represented by Hon

from King George

You will go forth as soldiers, "Canadian ing at the back in which persons of vari-born " men and gentlemen, who will ever ous trades were working, and at a time Shih-ts was added to that of the others on will and congratulations from our august

children, and with such a keen appreci- round up and interrogate were hourly fied in the meantime as a ricsha coolie national Exposition ation of the uniform you wear that no leaving Shanghai to spend the approach- who was in the habit of hanging round "The King feels that there is no doubt

Whilst circulars descriptive of the stolen stained hand print which were found on ebrates. roperty were printed and sent out to al- the handle of the door of the safe in the ."His Majesty rejoices to think that his 11.

had killed a foreign female on the road and gone northwards with the plunder. OLDEST SERVICE MAN IN THE

This coincided with the story which was EMPIRE first told, and it clearly referred to the ----case at No. 14 Astor Road, as no foreigner John Durant, of Weybridge, entered his

-The Times.

The deceased was a fine specimen blade makers in ancient times

AFRICAN MINES

It is stated that the Government of the

LIVERPOOL CATHEDRAL

At a meeting of the Liverpool Cathedral

that, after taking into account recent further contributions to the extent of chancel and first transept would have Empire."

HARRY WHALEN

His Majesty, our correspondent adds replied with no less sincerity, speaking as the head of one brave people to the repsentatives of another. He was un unfeignedly pleased by the gift. The REPORTED LEVY ON SOUTH

Times. . . (2) FALLS DEAD WHILE URGING ITALY TO ENTER

THE WAR

Milan, Italy, Feb. 26-Signor Mosti-Trotti, a Radical deputy died suddenly -day while he was delivering a speech in favor of the intervention of Italy in the Signor Mosti-Trotti was addressing a large crowd in the Verdi Theatre. His remarks stirred the crowd deeply. As h reached the climax of his speech, amid an unusually enthusiastic outburst of ap-

ONTARIO CONGRATULATES HER SOLDIERS

Toronto, Feb. 26-In view of the fac the first time, and, according to the dis natches, has behaved with great gallantr the Ontario legislature decided unar nously to-day to send the following cablegram of congratulation to the con manding officer:

Committee in February it was explained lates the men of the Ontario brigade on "The legislature of Ontario congratu rises in wages and the cost of materials, the first time in the present war, and further contributions to the extent of gratefully recognizes the sacrifices they are making for our liberties, as well as for that portion of the Cathedral now in course of construction. At the rate of lature is assured that they will always

MISS ELLEN TERRY IMPROVING

WATER STREET

getables, Fruits, Etc. ST. ANDREWS ST. ANDREWS, N. B.

FOR

MILLINERY

AND