A WORD TO FARM TOILERS PAIN'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Home Friend of the Farmer and His Family in the Autumn Season

After the labors and joys of the summer time, and harvesting of crops in the early autumn, many of our farmers, their wives, daughters and sons, find themselves in a condition of health demanding careful attention if suffering is to be avoided later on. Many experience kidney trouble of some form, with some the liver is torpid; there is biliousness, nausea and vomiting, with loss of appetite and depression of spirits. Thousands who have been exposed to cold, damp winds and rain, now feel the twinges of terrible rheumatism; others rounded by worry, overwork and irregular dieting, are tormented with the pain of dyspepsia. To the thousands of rundown, sickly and half dead men and women in farm homes we recommend with all honesty and confidence the worker's friend, Paine's Celery Compound, the only medicine that can quickly and fully restore strength to the weak body and vigor to the muscles. Paine's Celery Compound tones the stomach; it removes poisonous acids from the blood which cause rheumatism; it feeds the weak and diseased nerves and banishes neuralgic tortures; it purifies the blood and gives true vitality and life. The use of Paine's Celery Compound in autumn means the establishing of a perfect physical vigor to withstand the rigors of a severe winter.

SHE PATIENTLY BORE DISGRACE

A Sad Letter from a lady whose Husband was Dissipated. How She Cured Him with a Secret Remedy.

"I had for years patiently borne the disgrace, suffering, misery and privations due to my husband's drinking habits. Hearing of your marvellous remedy for the cure of drunkenness, which I could give my husband secretly, I decided to try it. I procured a package and mixed it in his food and coffee, and, as the remedy was odorless and tasteless, he did not know what it was that so quickly relieved his craving for liquor. He soon began to pick up flesh, his appetite for solid food returned, he stuck to his work regularly, and we now have a happy home. After he was completely cured I told him what I had done, when he acknowledged that it had been his saving, as he had not the resolution to break off of his own accord. I heartily advise all women afflicted as I was to give your remedy a trial."

THE MUSQUODOBOIT RAILWAY.

The Musquodoboit Valley Railway, or the Halifax and Guysboro Railway as now called, has been advanced another step towards its being built. It is understood that subject to the ratification of the Provincial Legislature, the Provincial Government has decided to increase the usual grant of $2,200 per mile, payable for the construction of provincial railways, to $5,000 per mile for the whole line from Dartmouth to Guysboro. Should this offer prove acceptable to the Musquodoboit Railway Company—and there is no doubt but what it will—a contract will be drafted on that basis, and the survey work proceeded with almost immediately. The people of the part of Nova Scotia have now within their reach a railway line that will fill the much felt wants of these counties, with the South Shore Railway from Yarmouth and Halifax, and this line from Halifax to Guysboro, a new system will be laid that will open up for further development a great extent of rich country. There is a proposition to re-build the Narrows Bridge and have the line come into Halifax directly from Dartmouth, as well as reach the city via Windsor Junction. This it is likely will be carried out eventually if not immediately.

HER HUSBAND WAS A DRUNKARD

A Lady who cures her husband of his Drinking Habits writes of her struggle to save her home

"I had for a long time been thinking of trying the Tussless Samaria Prescription on my husband for his drinking habits, but I was afraid he would discover that I was giving him medicine, and the thought occurred to me. I hesitated for nearly a week, but one day when he came home very much intoxicated and his work's salary nearly all gone, I threw off all fear and determined to make an effort to save our home from the ruin I saw coming, at all hazards. I went for your Tussless Samaria Prescription, and put it in his coffee as directed most morning and watched and prayed for the result. At noon I gave him more and also at supper. He never suspected a thing and I then boldly kept right on giving it regularly, as I had discovered something that set every nerve in my body tingling with hope and happiness, and I could see a bright future spread out before me—a peaceful, happy home, a share in the good things of life, an attentive, loving husband, contented and everything else due to a woman's heart; for my husband had told me that whiskey was vile and he was taking a dislike to it. It was only too true, for before I had given him the full course he had stopped drinking altogether, but I kept giving him the medicine till it was gone, and then sent for another lot, so have on hand. I should so glad to have your medicine sooner. He never has and I am writing you this letter to tell you how thankful I am. I honestly believe it will cure the worst cases."

HER FATHER WAS A DRUNKARD

A Plucky Young Lady takes on Herself to Cure her Father of the Liquor Habit.

"My father had often promised mother to stop drinking, and would do so for a time but then returned to it stronger than ever. One day after a terrible spree, he said to us: 'It's no use, I can't stop drinking.' Our hearts seemed to turn to stone, and we decided to try the Tussless Samaria Prescription, which we had read about in the papers. We gave him the remedy, entirely without his knowledge, in his tea, coffee, or food regularly, according to directions, and he never knew he was taking it. One package removed all his desire for liquor, and he says it is now distasteful to him. His health and appetite are also wonderfully improved, and no one would know him for the same man. It is now fifteen months since we gave it to him and we feel sure that the change is for good. Please send me one of your little books, as I want to give it to a friend."

BRINGS SUMMER BOARDERS

A Large Metropolitan Newspaper Which is Helping the Summer Resorts

The Brooklyn Eagle several years ago established a Bureau of Information in Brooklyn, where the public could, free of charge, secure details of hotels and boarding houses for the summer. The idea at once became popular and branch bureaus were opened in Manhattan and other cities. Country hotel and boarding houses by sending to this Bureau can secure a listing blank, fill it out and return it and then be represented free of cost, and send their circulars and cards for three distribution. The Brooklyn Eagle has also been considered for two years the best medium for summer boarders in New York City. The Rocky Point Inn, in the Adirondacks, said: "We are giving the Eagle a larger share of advertising than most other papers, as experience has demonstrated its value to us in past seasons." Chauncey B. Newkirk of Wurtsboro, Sullivan County, said: "Last season one small adv. brought me five guests." La Rue Bros., proprietors of the American Hotel of Sharon Springs, N. Y., wrote: "Our house is full and mostly by Brooklyn people. Daily we receive applications for rooms, and all on account of our standing ad. in the Eagle." For Listing Blanks, Adv.
