Farm Boot For Summer Wear

Here at last is the perfect combination of boot and moccasin, and of Cromme-tanned and Oil-tanned leathers.

The general shape is that of a moccasin — but the boot is built on a last, with a long, solid counter to hold up the heel. It has all the easy, foot-fitting comfort of a moccasin, and at the same time it will stand up and keep its shape with any boot. They outwear any other boots of their kind on the market, and give solid comfort and satisfaction every day.

Suitable for farmers, dairymen, mechanics and carpenters, in fact for anyone requiring foot comfort

RED CROSS BAZAAR IN FULL OPERATION

Will Be Continued All Day Today.

Yesterday morning the doors were opened and the public entered to participate in the Red Cross Bazaar conducted by the Red Cross of Kentville ably assisted by the various Red Cross Societies of the County. This Bazaar is certainly conducted on a grand scale and every reader who scans these lines should decide to attend before the doors close late this evening.

The place is the Old Court House and Drill Hall, with various tents and the new Band Stand where the Band holds forth. The visitor is attracted to the spot by the great display of the Allies, bunting, etc. The main building is very prettily decorated. Just inside the doors the Cake Booth with a display which shows the wonderful ability of Red Cross workers as cooks. A label Dream Cake — 15 cents a dream, is a feature of this department.

The different booths represent the countries at war for the Allies, France flashes forth with her flags and colors and French ladies in costume in the candy booth where most delicate home made, etc., candy is dispensed, Scotland and lassies in Scotch plaid have charge of the ice cool drinks of all kinds with the tartan well displayed and plenty to quench the thirst in hot weather.

The main hall is the Japanese Tea Room where many tables are spread in delicate array of Japanese ware, with pretty and attentive girls to serve the hungry to lunches and tea. The walls are beautifully arrayed with Japanese lanterns, Japanese flowers of various kinds.

Adjoining is the Ice Cream Booth, representing Britain and her various Colonies and Provinces. It is a place most liberally patronized where one can be waited upon by a handsome lady from any part of the British Empire. Just outside the building Italy attracts the attention with handsome Italian girls in array of flags of sunny land and a profusion in display of pretty flowers of all kinds. Opposite this booth is "Canada" our home our native land, represented by our flags and emblems and charming attendants and a heavily laden table of daintiest fancy work. The ladies as well as the fancy work, on sale, will exemplify the quality of Canada's products. Each being gaily arrayed in a shoulder belt of Maple leaves.

Evangeline at the Well is an attractive booth where a typical Evangeline draws butter-milk and quenches the thirst of lovers of that favorite drink.

A fortune tellers tent with delicately sunburned ladies from Roumania is near where fortunes were told to a great crowd by cards, tea cup, palmistry and phrenology.

Adjoining is a Boys Scout tent, and outside is an image of Kaiser Bill where all whose wrath is warm may for a small fee have a satisfactory crack at the Kaiser.

The Drill Hall is also an animated scene. Here the first department is arrayed in the flags and colors of the United States. The ladies here have a great display of household novelties, needed in every home. The United States is sure to be popular in this Bazaar.

Near at hand is the large booth representing the original Country Store, fruits, vegetables, dry goods, footwear, all varieties in groceries can be found here and the store is kept by charming Belgian ladies, good representatives of that heroic country.

Ireland forever, no getting away from this Bazaar without casting your eyes on the Irish lassies and their pretty green flags of harps, etc., and the aprons and children's wear which they have to sell.

There is a waiting tent outside and everything for the comfort of patrons. No pains have been spared by the ladies in making this a success and everyone who desires to contribute even a bit in helping to win the war should help the Red Cross in their noble work and don't fail to grace it by your presence before the Bazaar ends tonight.
