Lady Marjorie's Love

"Not any time, Fenella," Marjorie caught at a weak little straw of subterfuge of delay. "I-it can't be yet," she said. "How can it? It is not three months since my father died."

"My good child, do pray, be less absurd." The Countess made a sound and movement of impatience. "Circumstances alter cases," she said coldly. "In your position you certainly cannot afford to indulge in any such whimsical notions."

"Oh, no, Fenella. You must not do that," the girl cried distressfully. "Please don't. It isn't that I mean you don't understand at all."

"I don't understand," the Countess said slowly. She had been so sure that the coming of Loftus Bligh would mean the breaking off of the engagement that the glitter of its badge upon the girl's hand had struck her with a genuine surprise.

"Oh, no, Fenella. You must not do that," the girl cried distressfully. "Please don't. It isn't that I mean you don't understand at all."

BRANTFORD'S NEW FIRM PROVES BIG CONCERN

The Kitchen Overall Company, on Queen Street is Busy

Firm—Experts—Turning-Out Carments by Hundreds of Dozens Daily—Great Machines Installed.

A strong stock company has been recently organized in the city to be known as the Kitchen Overall and Shirt Company, Limited, which company will manufacture overalls, smocks, working shirts, and other such articles.

The company will carry on this manufacturing business in the Cock-shut Block on Queen street, and is now in a position to handle a vast amount of trade.

The machine department in which there are forty high speed sewing machines run by electricity and in charge of experienced young ladies.

The cutting room, which is on the third floor of the new building was the first department to which the manager escorted the writer.

The garments after being constructed are sent to the button machines where operators put on the buttons as quick as a flash, and then in turn are moved on to the button hole machines, where care is taken in making the button holes and sewing same.

A SOUR, GASSY, UPSET STOMACH

"Pape's Diapiesin" overcomes your indigestion in five minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in revolt; if sour, gassy, and upset, and what you just ate has ermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eruciate ungested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapiesin and in five minutes you truly will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.
