sister, Mrs F. Morrison, Brockville.

Mr H. Bawden enjoys a fancy horse, having recently purchased a dandy.

On Thursday, 17th inst., the Plum Hollow Ladies' Aid entertained the Toledo and Frankville Ladies' Aid at the home of Mrs Warren Gifford. A very pleasant and dainty refreshments were served. A very hearty vote of thanks were tendered the ladies of the Hollow.

Mr Robinson DeWolfe of Yorkton, Sask., is renewing acquaintances after an absence of eight years.

Mrs M. Kilborn is much improved in health.

Mrs M. Livingstone of Brockville

DIED IN THE HOSPITAL

Death under sorrowful circumstances occurred at the General Hospital, Brockville, at 4.30 on Saturday afternoon, when Mrs Isiah Parker, wife of a prominent resident of Toledo, passed away. She had been in ill health the past six years during which time she underwent three operations. Saturday morning at 6.30 she was taken suddenly ill at her home and before noon entered the hospital. Her condition was serious with little or no hope of recovery.

Born at Toledo, the late Mrs Parker was thirty-seven years of age. She was Laura Evelyn, daughter of Alexander McClure, an esteemed farmer residing near Toledo. Upon completing her education she took a course in DeMill College, St Catharines, graduating with honors. Nine years ago she was married to Mr Parker, who with her parents and one brother, Mr Duncan McClure, survives.

Mrs Parker was a woman greatly beloved by all who knew her and her death is a source of regret throughout the neighborhood.

THOUSANDS IN PRIZE MONEY

The fact that $16,000 in regular prize money and over 100 special premiums, many of them gold medals, have been appropriated for encouragement of the agricultural industry, along approved lines, is just ground for making a special appeal to the farming community in regard to participating in the competitions and attending the Ottawa exhibition. Agriculturists and stock breeders are never so far advanced but they may learn and acquire enthusiasm in their calling by attention to the instructive features, object lessons in many sections devoted to their interest. Prizes winning animals will parade daily before the grand stand, and judging will also be carried on where those interested may observe. Competitions and lessons in butter making and the establishment of splendidly equipped cold storage plants for cheese denote the special attention paid to the dairy industry. The scope of importance of the great fair is best indicated by a perusal of the prize list which may be obtained on application to Secretary Ed McMahon, 26 Sparks street, Ottawa. The premiums are the largest ever offered. Last year 90 per cent of those winning medals, exchangeable for cash, preferred the money. Winners of special prizes will be given similar options this year.

IT IS FOR YOU

To those who say that the Canadian Government Annuities Scheme is of benefit to those only who can take advantage of it while they are young, it may be pointed out that the benefit is equally as great for old people. The following example will illustrate this.
A widow 75 years of age who had been spending a portion of capital each year (which was deposited in the Post Office Saving Bank) as well as the interest, found to her horror that she had but $1,500 left. She was with out relatives, and she suddenly realized what her fate would ultimately be if life were spared to her for a few years longer. But when the cloud was darkest, the silver lining appeared. A friend told her of the Canadian Government Annuities Scheme, and her feelings may be imagined when she was informed that her $1,500 would yield her for the remainder of her life no matter how long she might live an income of $225.90 a year.

Full information concerning this great scheme may be had on application to the superintendent of Canadian Government Annuities, Ottawa. Postage free.

A Stroke of Apoplexy

Kingston Standard: "The many friends of Mr Samuel Fowler, of the editorial staff of the Daily Standard will be sorry to hear of his critical condition as a result of a stroke of apoplexy. The doctor holds out no hope for his recovery. His daughter, Mrs Dickson, arrived from Lasstown this morning and his wife and sons have been notified of his illness. During his stay in Kingston Mr Fowler has made a host of friends, who are sorry to hear of his illness."

Mr Fowler was for several years a resident of Athens and later a member of the Brockville Times staff, leaving there to accept a position with the Kingston Standard. The news of his illness will be received with profound regret wherever he was known in these United Counties.
Later—Mr Fowler died on Sunday last.

A BURGLAR CAPTURED

Burglaries are not confined to this district. Two or three residences in Perth were burglarized of late. A couple of nights ago a light was seen in Mr J. A. Stewart's residence. He was known to be away from home, so the Chief and a couple of assistants investigated and found a young man secreted behind a door. He was handcuffed and taken to the police station, where he gave the name of A.
E. Moses. A loaded revolver was found near where he had been standing. At Mr Stewart's house a suit case was found packed with the owner's best clothes ready to be taken away by the burglar.

A FAIR OF MAGNITUDE

To attempt a description of barely the new features of the approaching Central Canada Fair at Ottawa would require too much of the space of the newspaper. The inventions and novelties of the year, new ideas in farming, manufacturing, domestic sciences, art, education, in fact every department of human activity will be represented in the spacious pavilions, show rooms and process building of Lansdowne Park.
The visitor is very observant indeed who grasps the magnitude of this vast enterprise.

TALE OF A NAIL

The Queer Way in Which a Crime Was Brought to Light.

Dr. John Donne, the famous English divine and poet, who lived in the reign of James I, was a veritable Sherlock Holmes. One of his famous exploits was as follows: He was walking in the churchyard while a grave was being dug, when the sexton cast up a moldering skull. The doctor idly took it up and in handling it found a headless nail driven into it.
This he managed to take out and conceal in his handkerchief. It was evident to him that murder had been done. He questioned the sexton and learned that the skull was probably that of a certain man who was the proprietor of a brandy shop and was a drunkard, being found dead in bed one morning after a night in which he had drunk two quarts of brandy.
"Had he a wife?" asked the doctor.
"Yes." "What character does she bear?" "She bore a very good character, only the neighbors gossiped because she married the day after her husband's funeral. She still lives here." The doctor soon called on the woman.
He asked for and received the particulars of the death of her husband.
Suddenly opening his handkerchief, he showed her the telltale nail, asking in a loud voice, "Madame, do you know this nail?" The woman was so surprised that she confessed, was tried and executed.—London Tit-Bits.

MIDWAY OF MARVELS

The directors of the Ottawa exhibition have broadened the scheme of entertainment. That will be evident from announcements later of the famous vaudeville stars, acrobatic troups, etc., that will appear before the grand stand. The inevitable midway will be more sensational and curious than ever. This rollicking feature will be furnished by the Park Booking Circuit of New York, which means that a gorgeous assemblage of the world's freaks and marvels will be at Ottawa.

HOMESEEKERS' EXCURSIONS

The Grand Trunk Railway has issued a circular authorizing all Agents in Canada to sell Home-seekers' Excursion tickets to points in Western Canada. This is increasing information for those desiring to take advantage of these excursions on certain dates from April to September 1911. The Grand Trunk Route is the most interesting, taking a passenger through the populated centres of Canada, through Chicago, and thence via Duluth, or through Chicago and the twin cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul. Ask lars.

ART OF JUGGLING.

A Means of Recreation For the Sedentary or Bedridden.
Speaking of conjuring, the allied art of juggling is one of the most amusing and valuable of diversions, especially to the sedentary. Many physicians become expert in juggling, but it is to their patients that it is most useful.
The bedridden, if they retain the use of their hands, may beguile many a weary hour in learning to keep three or four tennis balls in the air at once and in balancing sticks and other simple objects on the forefinger or on the chin.
For the brain worker who does not care for walking there is no better recreation. It has often occurred to us that in cases where there is any reason to fear some form of paralysis the educating of disused cerebral, cerebellar and spinal centers by the rapid and complex movements required in juggling might serve to act as an efficient preventive.
We do not wish to claim too much for manual education of this kind, but we may point out that it tends to perfect nervous poise and that no juggling trick can be properly done if the performer indulges in dissipation even so mild as beer and cigarettes.—American Medicine.

Talking to the Doctor.

While making some professional calls in a sparsely settled district I came upon a little plump, rosy cheeked girl trudging toward home with her slate and dinner pail in her hand. I asked her to ride with me. I could see that she was a very timid child, and efforts to engage her in conversation were unavailing. She would meekly answer "Yes" or "No," but not another word would she speak.
A few weeks later I was called to the little girl's home to attend another member of the family for a slight ailment. When about to leave the mother spoke up smilingly and said: "Do you remember my little girl riding with you a few weeks ago? Well, when she got home with the doctor, and I rode from school with me and talking with me, and I just didn't know what to do, for you know doctors charge you when you talk with them, and I didn't have any money."—National Monthly.

A Story of Longfellow.

In Longfellow's journal, in which he chronicled daily things that came under his observation, he notes that upon a certain occasion he attended a church where the minister took as his subject "Progress." He was very flattered when the latter quoted about half of the "Psalm of Life." After repeating the verses the minister said, "I could never read that poem without feeling the inspiration with which it was written." To this incident Longfellow adds: "But I had the conceit taken out of me on the evening of that day, when I happened to meet a lady at Prescott's and in our conversation she referred to the sermon in the morning and added, 'He quoted some beautiful verses, but nobody knew from whence came the quotations.'"

Wanted to Come Back.

"You won't make any mistake in buying this car, Mr. Juggings," said the agent. "It is the best in the market. There isn't any come-back to our output."
"Then I don't want it," retorted Jugg-ings. "There wasn't any come-back to the last car I had, and I had to walk back. Haven't you anything you can show me with a few return attachments?"—Harper's Weekly.

Domestic Economy.

Husband—Excuse me, dear, but don't you cook much more for dinner than we can use? Wife—Of course! If I didn't how could I economize by "utilizing leftover dishes?"—Tele-Blade.

If You Have Money.

"That fellow Gotrox is a multimillionaire. He has more money than brains."
"Well, what does he want with brains?"—New York Times.
