THREE CHARGES PROVEN

Bribery in North York During the Last Election There.

Four Men Reported, But Judges Do Not Consider That Their Agency Was Established—Argument on Charge That Hon. Mr. Davis Engaged W. J. Robinson, a Reputed Corrupt Practitioner, As His Agent in Sutton, Not Concluded.

Newmarket, Sept. 22.—The second day of the North York election trial was prolific of some result, the petitioner succeeding in proving that bribery was resorted to in three different cases on behalf of Hon. E. J. Davis, but the court ruled that agency had not been established; hence the Minister is not held responsible for the corrupt acts.

Four Men Reported.
Chancellor Boyd and Mr. Justice Teetzel agreed that these charges had been fully established: That Elias Pegg paid his son-in-law, William Rolling, $5 by dropping it in his buggy and calling attention to the fact.

That Pegg paid Harry Hodge $6 by dropping it in the stable and telling Hodge "you'll find the money for yourself."

That Pegg paid Henry Stickwood $2. He handed him the money. Stickwood objecting to the roundabout methods suggested.

It was shown that James Hison got $2 from Pegg, but nothing was said about the election, and the charge was dismissed.

Pegg, Rolling, Hodge and Stickwood were reported for corrupt acts.

The Robinson Charges.
The second charge was much more serious. Mr. Blackstock forged a chain of circumstances to show that one W. J. Robinson, who was reported by the judges as being guilty of a corrupt act in North York, which act resulted in the voiding of the election, was brought into North York, and that he acted as agent for Mr. Davis at Sutton; that he generally assisted in the work of the campaign, and that he was seen in the presence of Mr. Davis and a man named McArdie. The act of personally engaging Robinson is sufficient to unseat Mr. Davis. Here is the section of the act respecting the election of members of the Legislative Assembly, which covers the case:

The Law is the Case.
"If, on the trial of an election petition, any candidate is proved to have personally engaged at the election to which the petition relates, as canvasser or agent in relation to the election, any person, knowing that such person has within eight years been found guilty of any corrupt practice, by a competent legal tribunal or by the report of the judges upon an election petition, the election of such candidate shall be void."

How Davis Shields Himself.
Hon. Mr. Davis shields himself behind his general ignorance of what was going on in North York during the bye-election campaign. He says he did not know Robinson, and that the man was engaged without his personal knowledge. It was established that Mr. Davis signed the certificate appointing the man his agent at Sutton. And it was conclusively proved that Hon. Mr. Davis was told by Candidate Lennox that such a man was at work in the riding.

A series of point meetings was held, and at one of two of these meetings Mr. Lennox informed Mr. Davis that Robinson, the man reported for corrupt practices in North York, was at work in North York in the interests of the Liberal party. That Mr. Davis heard what is said was indicated by his reply to the speech of his opponent. In that reply, Mr. Davis sought to modify the character of the offence committed by his worker.

Mr. Blackstock's Argument.
Mr. Blackstock presented this case in a lucid and convincing manner, quoting several precedents to show that candidates have been held to have personally engaged workers, even when the actual engagement was not made by the candidate in person. If the personal liability was not conceded by the court in this case, he pointed out, it would be practically impossible to hold a candidate responsible for the corrupt act of any worker.

Mr. Aylesworth has still to put his construction on the meaning of the law that applies to this case. The decision of the court is expected before noon to-day.

Mr. Borden at Stratford.
Stratford, Sept. 22.—Mr. R. L. Borden was accorded a magnificent reception here last evening by the "Conservatives of North Perth. Nearly 2,000 people from this city and surrounding districts assembled at the opera house and the words of Mr. Borden upon the questions of the day were listened to with an enthusiastic interest that found expressions of applause. Mr. Borden's confidence in the outcome of the coming general election as being favorable to the Conservative party was seconded by that of A. F. MacLaren M.P., as to the result of the fight in North Perth. Mr. Borden undoubtedly made a strong impression.

KING PETER I. CROWNED

No Echo of the Regicide Tragedy at the Coronation.

Saluting Guns Increased By Stages Until They Reached 101—Monarch Kissed the Crown and Placed It On His Own Head—Wearing the Crown the New King Rode Through the Streets to the Palace.

Belgrade, Serbia, Sept. 22.—Peter Karageorgievich was crowned King of Serbia yesterday. There were no hostile demonstrations and no attempt to carry out the numerous threats which had been made against the new king's life. In the solemn ritual of the Greek Church and in the elaborate state procession which preceded and followed the coronation the tragedy of Serbia's previous ruler found no echo. Amid the thunder of the saluting guns from the royal palace and the garrison King Alexander's murder was at least outwardly forgotten.

King Peter on Horseback.
Here and in every garrison town of Serbia the dawn of day was marked by a salute of 21 guns and before the sun was well up King Peter, on horseback, rode out from the palace. The brilliant procession then started for the cathedral through the troop-lined streets. Behind the soldiers were packed dense crowds who in spite of the rainy weather stood patiently awaiting to see the King. The Royal Herald, Cavalry and Life Guards (the Herald bearing the Royal Standard) and carriages with the Montenegro and Serbian princesses, preceded the monarch. Beside King Peter rode his two sons, George and Alexander.

KING PETER I. OF SERBIA.

Metropolitan Consecrated Him.
The cathedral was reached shortly after 8 o'clock. There the representatives of the foreign powers, the Cabinet Ministers and others had already been waiting for some time. As King Peter entered the metropolitan consecrated him and more military salutes were fired. The King then took up his position under a canopy with the metropolitan, assisted by many bishops and other clergy, commenced the solemn service. After the prayer the Premier and other ministers handed the crown and regalia to King Peter.

Kissed the Crown.
He kissed the crown, placed it on his head and robed himself in the royal garments. An artillery salute of 101 guns then announced to the people of Belgrade that King Peter had been crowned.

Wearing the crown on his head and fully robed the King left the cathedral, remounted his horse and rode through the crowded streets to the palace. There, in the grand festal hall, King Peter received the congratulations of the diplomatic corps, ascended the throne and once more took the sceptre and orb in his hands.

MONTREAL'S LATEST BLAZE.
Half a Million Fire Loss in the Wholesale District of City.

Montreal, Sept. 22.—A disastrous fire broke out about 1 o'clock yesterday morning in the block bounded by St. Sulpice, Desbrosses, Leroy and St. Claude streets, near the rear of Notre Dame Church. The block was devoted entirely to the wholesale trade in various lines, and it is estimated that the loss will be $530,000.

The fire broke out in the premises of the Canadian Hardware Company, midway in the block between St. Sulpice and St. Claude streets, and the five flats were soon a raging furnace. From there the fire spread to the Central Agency's warehouse on the west, and Chaput, Ellis & Co., on the east. The Central Agency is the warehouse of the British Thread Trust, while Chaput's carry one of the largest stocks of groceries and liquors in the city, and occupy a larger warehouse than the other two firms put together. The value of their stock is computed at close to half a million dollars.

The Revised Fire Losses.
A revision of the loss places the total at $530,000, and the insurance at $384,000. The losses and insurance are distributed as follows:

Chaput, Ellis & Co., loss $320,000, insured for $250,000.
Canada Hardware Company, loss $150,000, insurance $75,000.
Hotel Bien, owners of buildings, loss $50,000, fully covered.
Central Agency, loss $10,000, fully covered.

Sir Thomas Brady Dead.
London, Sept. 22.—(C.A.F.)—Sir Thomas Francis Brady, one of the committee nominated by the Secretary of State for the colonies to distribute $100,000 voted by Canada for the relief of Irish distress, is dead, at 80.

BATTLE EXPECTED SOON

Kuropatkin Likely to Resist Japanese at Mukden.

Both Armies Have Recovered From Effects of the Fight at Liaoyang and Are Fit—Troops in Touch in Reconnaissance Along Mukden and Fushun Roads—Japanese Failed to Capture Dai Pass—Turning Movement Checked.

Tokio, Sept. 22.—An impression is growing general that an engagement will soon take place at Mukden. Gen. Kuropatkin is evidently preparing to make a determined resistance to any attempt to dispossess him, and is' entrenching and constructing defences. He has an immense force available, but the opinion is expressed that the Pass would be a more favorable location for defence. The Russians, however, are unwilling to suffer the loss of prestige which would be involved by the abandonment of Mukden. Both armies are now resting and have recovered from the effects of the fight at Liaoyang.

Troops Were in Touch.
A telegram received yesterday from military headquarters in Manchuria says that portions of the Russian troops engaged in reconnaissance while returning from Ping-Tai-tze continued in touch with the Japanese lines along the Mukden and Fushun roads on Sept. 18. There was no fighting.

Japs Fail to Capture Dai Pass.
St. Petersburg, Sept. 22.—General Kuropatkin, telegraphing under Tuesday's date, declares that the situation at the front is unchanged. He describes an outpost fight Tuesday at Dai Pass, half way between Bentziapuzze and Sintsintin. A Japanese force, consisting of four companies, marched up from Dzian-tchan, twenty-three miles northeast of Saimadzi, and tried to capture the pass and turn the Russian left flank, but the Russians repulsed the attack, and the turning movement was checked by machine guns.

Pushing Northward.
Gen. Kuroki's Headquarters in the Field, via Fusan, Sept. 22.—The Japanese are slowly pushing northward. The outposts are in touch near Ventki, and skirmishes between outposts and patrol parties occur daily. It is believed that the Russians are gathering a force at Ventai, preparatory to making a strong stand for the protection of the coal mines.

Hun River Not Crossed.
St. Petersburg, Sept. 22.—The reports that Gen. Kuroki has crossed the Hun River at Fushun turns out to be false. The Russians strongly hold the road to Fushun and Bentziapuzze. It is pointed out that if the Japanese had occupied Fushun the Russians would have been compelled to evacuate Mukden, since Fushun is nearer to Tie Pass.

Russians Doubt It.
While the despatches to the War Office do not indicate that Field Marshal Oyama's main armies have yet resumed their forward movement, advance detachments of Japanese are feeling out the strength and disposition of the Russian forces.

Mukden Battle News Premature.
The reports that a battle at Mukden is imminent are, however, regarded as premature. All that seems to be definitely established is that Oyama is again essaying to flank Gen. Kuropatkin from the east. His advance forces are seeking to obtain command of the roads leading twenty to thirty miles east of Mukden. Tuesday, they attempted to seize Di Pass, on the road to Fushun, in order to turn the Russian left, but they were repulsed. In addition to the two Russian corps already mobilizing, seven other corps are to be called to the colors.
