EDMUNDSON NOTES

James Saur, of the North British & Mercantile Insurance Company of Montreal, was registered at the "Madawaska Inn" a few days this week.

Mrs. Ralph MacDonald, who has been in failing health for some time, left on Monday morning for treatment at the Fisher Memorial Hospital in Woodstock.

George Burns was called home last Sunday night owing to the serious illness of his father. Mr. Burns is well known in Edmundston and his many friends hope for a quick recovery.

Mrs. E. A. MacKay returned from the Fisher Memorial Hospital at Woodstock on Monday night, where she has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis. Her friends are glad to welcome her back.

Miss Eveline LeBlanc, who has been working for the Agricultural Department at Quebec, as a lecturer on Domestic Science, will return home on Saturday for a month's vacation. She deserves our heartiest congratulations on having been promoted to a prominent position on the staff of the Agricultural Department of Ottawa.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Tuesday morning at 8.30 in the church of the Immaculate Conception, when Miss Simone Gagnon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prudent Gagnon, of this town, and Camille Pelletier of Cabano, P. Q. were united in marriage, by the Rev. Father Conway. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Landry, with violin accompaniment by Miss Marion David and Miss Eva Ringuette. Throughout the ceremony solos were sung by Misses Eva Ringuette, Isabel Lachance and Genevieve Dumond. The bride wore a beautiful travelling suit of blue velour. Many friends wish them a happy and prosperous life.

Mrs. T. L. Good returned from the Victoria Hospital in Fredericton on Friday last.

Miss Estelle LeBlanc of Montreal is spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. R. N. LeBlanc.

Emery Bourgois has been transferred to the Campbellton Branch of the Provincial Bank, and will assume his duties after January 1.

Donald and Evan Matheson, who have been patients at the Hospital in Woodstock, for the last two weeks, returned home on Thursday night.
