

HASZARD'S GAZETTE, JANUARY 4.

TEMPERANCE HALL COMPANY.—The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of this Company, was held in the Temperance Hall, on the evening of Monday last. A large number of Shareholders were present than we remember having seen at any previous Meeting. The accounts of the Company were submitted, audited and passed, and a dividend of 5 per cent on each paid up Share declared, payable so soon as the few outstanding debts of the Company are collected. Officers bearers for the ensuing year, were the chosen as follows:—

Capt. Oriebar, R. N., President.

Directors.—Messrs. G. Beer, Henry Haszard, William Heard, W. McKay, Thomas Williams, J. W. Morrison, Treasurer.

J. B. Cooper, Secretary.

An article on the Sons of Temperance Supper has been crowded out of this issue, but will appear in our next.

We learn by telegraph that the Couriers affected a crossing from this side to-day.

Died.

At New York, on the 4th July last, James Whelan, aged 26 years, son of Edward Whelan, Truckman of this Town.

At Cawnpore Mr. Maurice O'Connor aged 71. The deceased has left a large circle of relatives and friends to lament their irreparable loss.

At New London, on the 19th Dec. last, Mr. Francis Pilliar, in the 60th year of his age, generally respected and beloved. He Emigrated here from Wandsworth, in Surrey, England 60 years ago, after serving as a seaman in the Ship Minotaur, under Nelson, and was at the battle of the Nile.

Beside his crutch I've heard the old man tell,
His battle scenes, how shipmates fought and fell,
Before his blazing heart, his fagot's pile,
He'd live in days, with Nelson on the Nile.
I lived though scenes by years were gone
A Sailor still in marrow and in bone.
But now the old man tells his tales no more
Of tars at sea, or comrades at the Nile
His long red threshold here, has lost his tread.
As he never was, he's with the dead.
