HOW ONE FARMER KEPT HIS BOY ON THE FARM

A drainage inspector in a Canadian province once visited a certain farmer and found him not only in possession of a good house, with modern sanitary equipment, but he and his family were enjoying the occupation of the best rooms in the house. On being asked why he did not live in the kitchen like his neighbors, and why he looked so much after the comforts of his home, he replied that he wanted to keep his boy on the farm, and that he could not expect to do so if he did not provide him with home comforts equal to those enjoyed by people of equal means and rank of life in the city. There is more sound philosophy in the method of that farmer than is found between the covers of many text books on rural development. —From Rural Planning and Development.

HIS LAST VOYAGE

Ludlow, N. B. Nov. 12th, 1917
The following is the diary kept by Pte Aubrey L. Price of Ludlow while crossing the ocean. He died at Bramshot, England, December 25th 1916.
Oct. 26th 1916. 132nd Battalion, left Sussex at 3 o'clock in the morning, reached Amherst at six, had breakfast at Truro, and reached Halifax between one and two, left the train, and went to the wharf, went on board the ship, and had our supper, and then went to bed. Our ship left Halifax harbor at six, accompanied by seven boats.
Oct. 27th
Had breakfast at seven. At nine the Assembly blew, and all went on deck, all we could see was one man of war, the sea was calm, yet many were sick, had dinner at twelve, went on deck again at two, had physical drill, dismissed at four. There are two man of war boats with us now, and a cruiser was sighted afar off, had supper at five o'clock.
Oct. 28th
Got up at six o'clock, had breakfast at seven, went on deck, had roll call at nine, and again in the afternoon at two. had dinner, supper, at the same time as usual.
Oct. 29th
This being Sunday we had church parade, at half past nine, on deck. The weather was rougher than before, but nothing out of the way happened.
Oct. 30th
Went on guard at nine o'clock, was on guard two hours and off four, got paid in the afternoon five dollars. The sea was still rough, but I was not sea sick.
Oct. 31st
Came off guard at nine o'clock; fell in for roll call at ten; met a ship, was not very handy, but could see she was flying the Union Jack. After dinner went on deck, and then again after supper.
The time is changing twenty-five minutes a day.
Nov. 1st
The day was clear, and calm. It being a holy day, there was church for both Roman Catholics and Protestants.
Nov. 2nd
The sea was calm, I was on guard again today, the winds commenced to blow again towards night.
Nov. 3rd
The sea was rough. In the morning the lights could be seen from the light-house tower off the coast of Ireland.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.
Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually causing the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.
Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

Oh! My! That Smells Good!

And, madam, you should just smell the fragrance of crushed coffee after it is brewed. And the flavor of it! Well, you never tasted ground coffee with a flavor just like Red Rose Coffee. Coffee critics, those who have travelled far and wide and tasted coffees in various climes, tell us they have never tasted more delicious coffee. Some have even said—but we will refrain from printing such high praise. We prefer you to try Red Rose Crushed Coffee without revealing anything further as to its quality. We don't want to take all the edge off the surprise in store for you when you try it. And the same price it was three years ago.
