Belgian Coast Now Cleared of Enemy

Ostend, Zeebrugge, Bruges and Lille all Occupied by Allied Troops Who Continue to Sweep Forward

Wednesday

Hostilities are proceeding without cessation, and as in days past the forces of the Allies everywhere are defeating the enemy. In Belgium Flanders, the British, Belgian and French troops under King Albert are sweeping forward for further material gains in the process of driving the invader from Belgian soil; on the front in France, the British, French and Americans are hard after the Germans and are making progress, although slowly as a result of the strenuous defence that is being offered.

In Albania the Entente troops are well to the north of Durazzo on the Adriatic Sea, and in Serbia a considerable distance beyond Nish, with the enemy falling back toward the frontier of Austria-Hungary.

In the Palestine theatre the British cavalry has driven far to the north and northwest of Damascus, having reached Tripoli near the Mediterranean coast, forty-five miles of Beirut and Homs, eighty-five miles north of Damascus.

In Flanders, Thourout, at the head of the railway leading to Bruges, and numerous villages to the south have been taken, while Courtrai, the junction point of the railway to Ghent, is almost entirely surrounded. Large numbers of prisoners and many additional guns have been captured by the Belgian, French and British troops, who are carrying out the operation.

To the south of the region the Germans are continuing to withdraw, closely followed by the British, who are within two and a half miles and three and three-quarter miles of Lille, respectively southwest and west of the city.

In the Champagne regions, where the French and Americans are driving their way northward, Bethel, the important junction point for the railways running to Metziers and other points inside the enemy-held territory, is all but captured by the French. Eastward the Americans also have again pressed slightly forward.

Thursday

Over a front of forty miles, from the North Sea in Belgium to Lille, in northern France, the Germans are in general retreat before the British, French and Belgian armies. Likewise the enemy is being forced to concede defeat by retrograde movements before the British and Americans southeast of Cambrai; under

SOUR, ACID STOMACHS, GASES OR INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapiesin" neutralizes excessive acid in stomach, relieving dyspepsia, heartburn and distress at once.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress, due to acidity, will go.
No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs.
It is the surest, quickest stomach sweetener in the whole world, and besides it is harmless. Put an end to stomach distress at once by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder caused by fermentation due to excessive acids in stomach.

the attacks of the French in the pos-ket between the Oise and Serre rivers north of Laon, and by reason of continued strong attacks by the French and Americans in Champagne and along the Meuse river.

Nowhere, however, is the enemy in disorder. In Belgian-Flanders his steps are being hastened by reason of the swift drives into his lines by the British at Lille just south of the Belgian border, and by the French and Belgians further north, which threaten to compel him to enter Dutch territory and face internment unless he is fleet enough to withdraw out of the entire pocket between the Scheldt river and the sea and reconstitute his line with its right wing resting on Antwerp.

Ostend, one of the famous submarine bases on the sea, is in British hands. Bruges is all but captured, while to the south from the region east of Roulers, the Allied forces are fast driving toward Ghent in an endeavor to seal the western Flanders sack and retain in it large elements of the enemy's forces. Strong opposition is being offered in the Cour-trai sector to prevent the Allies from carrying out their manoeuvre. To the full. More than a score of additional villages have been liberated by the Allied troops and numerous guns and quantities of stores have been captured.

Southeast of Cambrai over a front of ten miles between Le Cateau and Bohain the British and Americans are delivering a violent attack against the Germans, and at last reports they were meeting with success, although the Germans were savagely resisting with machine guns and infantry and with artillery behind their line.

North of Laon in the sack between the Oise and the Serre rivers the French are endeavoring to drive out the Germans or capture them before they can make their way eastward to Hirson. Here also the enemy is using his machine gunners and artillery to stay the progress of the French, but nevertheless further gains have been recorded.

The greatest resistance of all, however, is still being imposed against the efforts of the French and Americans in Champagne and along the Meuse river where the holding of the line is essential to stave off a general retreat by the Germans all the way from Belgium to the Swiss frontier. The French in Champagne are still fighting hard to capture Rethel, but the Germans thus far have been able to hold this important position in their own hands.
North of Grand Pre both the French and Americans have made further progress over the difficult ground.
Especially severe have been the handicaps suffered by the Americans in encompassing the natural fortifications and the attacks by hordes of enemy machine gunners.

Before the Americans, the Germans are giving ground only inch by inch.
Saturday
The Belgian coast, again is Belgian.
Germany's dream of an invasion of England across the North Sea from Calais is ended.

Belgian Franders is fast being evacuated by the enemy, and his line from the Belgian frontier to the Meuse river gradually giving way under the attacks of the British, French and American armies.

A haven of safety in a shorter and more compact line is being sought by the Germans in order to escape annihilation by their foes. Everywhere they are being whipped. But seemingly they are still far from defeat.

In Belgium the enemy is giving ground hastily in order to bring his armies safely out of the trap which menaces them; but from the French frontier to the Meuse river he still is fighting desperately to hold back the lower jaw of the great Foch pincher from closing in a great converging movement and entrapping in its maw the German fighting force in its entirety. And thus far he has successfully, through the use of picked troops and machine gunners who know defeat only in death, warded off the culminating blow.

Zeebrugge, Germany's second great submarine base on the North Sea, has gone the way of Ostend. The flag of Belgium once more flies over it. To the south Bruges has been evacuated and Turoing, Roubaix and other towns have been delivered.

Out of the great sack between the North Sea and the Lys river the enemy is fleeing fast in an endeavor to prevent capture or internment in Holland. His hope is that he will be able to reach Antwerp and there reconstitute his line from the Dutch frontier through Antwerp and Namur to some point in the south, probably Sedan or Metz, and stabilize it, for the moment, at least, to the Swiss frontier.

Sunday

Victory crowns the allied armies on every battlefield. Northern Belgium is being rapidly cleared of the enemy by British and Belgian forces.
15,000 Germans cut off from their retreat, are reported to have withdrawn into Holland, where they were interned. Ghent, it is predicted, will fall at an early date, and the French by a swift stroke along an extended line have put their forces within two miles of Tournai.

British troops have crossed the Selle River, have reconquered Solmes and have had hard fighting not

Mother is Well Now

Your Noise Does Not Disturb Me Any More—It is a Pleasure to Hear You
Romp and Play.

"It is like a dream now to think of the long, weary months I spent in nervous helplessness. Some days I would be cheered by feeling better, but only to slip back again, and to be more than ever discouraged.

"I had always been very active. Had a wide acquaintance and did much entertaining. In addition to helping in whatever was going on at the church, there was Red Cross work to be done, and all the time I had my little family to look after and could not get help.

"I suppose I tried to do too much, for I got so I could not sleep at nights and always felt tired out in the mornings.
Then I would have headaches and did not seem to care for my meals.

"Instead of the usual ambition and energy I found myself putting off the duties of the day. I got behind with the housework, and this worried me.

"I did not think that I was sick, but only tired. However, the time came when I did not get up in the morning. I simply could not. The doctor came and said, "Nervous Prostration." It seems I had kept on the go until the nervous system was wrung dry of all nerve force.

"Then came the long, weary weeks, and weeks dragged into months, without finding much improvement. I was completely discouraged and almost devoid of hope.

"But one day a friend told me of her experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and she was so sure that this treatment would do me good that I decided to give it a chance.

"I need scarcely say that there were some dark, discouraging days after beginning the use of the Nerve Food, but as my appetite and digestion improved I felt that I was gradually getting back the old-time vigor. Sleep became more natural and refreshing. The dark days passed and I began to take a more cheerful view of the future. Then I began to plan what I would do when I got around again. The house must be decorated and the children brought home, for I had to send them to my sister's on account of the way their noise disturbed me.

"Now I feel that I am entirely well again, and without hesitation give the credit to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I cannot tell you the pleasure it gives me to be restored to my husband and children after the long period of helplessness." only in the sector around that town, but at St. Prihon to the east. Here the British have captured more than 2,000 prisoners.

Fighting desperately to hold their position to the north and south of Le Cateau, the Germans on a front of forty miles have massed nearly half a million men.

The British third army is smashing its way forward to the south of Valenciennes. Success so far has attended this effort. The American forces operating in conjunction with the British north of Wassigny have advanced to the Sambre-Oise Canal.
They occupied Repot, east of St.
Souplet, at the point of the bayonet.

On the front in Russia a severe defeat with the loss of 1,000 men killed has been inflicted on the Bolsheviks in the Yekaterinburg district by Czecho Slovak and Siberian forces.

Monday

Dr. Solf, the German secretary of foreign affairs has sent another message to President Wilson on the important question of peace. This time Germany professes to accept all the conditions for an armistice and eventual peace as laid down by President Wilson.

The reply though couched in vague and complex phrases, indicates Germany's willingness to evacuate occupied territory under an agreement to be reached by the military chiefs in the field. It is announced, in the note that all submarine commanders have been ordered to cease attacks upon passenger vessels. Denial is made that lifeboats and passengers have ever purposely been destroyed or that any authorized atrocities have been committed by German troops.
It is declared that Germany now has a parliamentary form of government responsible to the people.

In the war theatre the Allied armies have taken no heed of the efforts under way for the re-establishment of peace, but are continuing to force back the Germans at vital points along the lines in Belgium and France.

The British have approached to within two miles of Valenciennes, and the Americans, to the northwest of Verdun have succeeded in occupying two highly important positions.

American and British troops have crossed the Oise Canal on a wide front in the face of desperate resistance.

The Valenciennes-Hirson railway has been cut off.

The west bank of the Scheldt Canal has been occupied by the British along an extent of ten miles to the north of Tournai, which city is being defended by masses of Germans armed with machine guns.

Belgium is gradually being redeemed, although now that the Germans have drawn in their lines, the British, Belgians and French are encountering much stiffer opposition than during the early days of the great drive for the re-occupation by the Allies of the Belgian coast. The city of Ghent, is yet seven miles away. Probably it will be outflanked from the north before it is taken.

Having cleared the Germans out of western Belgium, the Allied forces are standing on a line from the Dutch frontier to the Oise Canal that is virtually straight. A new movement has begun to the east of Courtrai, the object of which is to free the northern section of Belgium from the enemy.

French troops have reached the Danube River in the region of Vidin after offensive operations in the eastern theatre of the war lasting for more than a month. The economic independence of Hungary is to be proclaimed at an early date in a manifesto which it is reported, will be issued by Emperor Charles.
Hungary will be permitted to maintain her own army and her own diplomatic corps.
