NEWCASTLE, NEW B CK, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1920

Fall Underwear and Hoisery

For Men. Women and Children For best values in Fall and Winter Underwear, call at this store.

Also see our big range of medium weight Hose at moderate prices.

A. H. MACKAY

Special Exhibition for Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Only Two More Days

Many Excellent Values are still on Sale Don't Wait till its all over!

A Special Exhibition of the Most Up-to-Date Lines of Women's Fall and Winter

uits and Coats

At Very Reasonable Prices

Here is an opportunity to see the most Fashionable Styles of the time as demonstrated in New York or Montreal. All are invited to attend.

Remember the dates!

Friday, Saturday.

Styles will be Exclusive. No one style will be sold to two persons in the same town.

Dress different than others! Come and see the showing

His Lordship Lord Beaverbrook servived in his home lown, Newcastle, in his private car attached to the Ocean Limited, on Saturday aftermon at 245 o'clock. He was met at the station by a large number of his friends and citisens of the town, and the Newcastle Concert Band serenaded him on his arrival. His Lordship was given the field hand of welcome to his home town by the pointment is to the sense of the opportunity of again expressing their deep appreciation of their town's illustrious son. After shaking hands and having a few words ing hands and having a few words of the cach one, His Lordship spoke the ach one, His Lordship spoke.

His Lordship Lordship appointment is to the sense of their deep appreciation of their town's illustrious son. After shaking hands and having a few words of Charlottefown vice Bishop Henry O'Leary, who was recently appointed The Right Rev. Patrick Chaisson, C. J. M., D. Chatham's new bishop, is well known in the Maritime Provinces.

LORD BEAVERBROOK

ofly to the members of the Band presented them with a substan sum in recognition of their kind s. The citizens were invited in private car and many reminiscent of the days he spent in Newcaswert recalled. He was then control by automobile to the residence by automobile to the residence by automobile to the residence other Mrs. William Althon he had come to visit. During temoon a large number of

Scholarship Awards

C. J. M., D. D. Chatham's new blahop, is well known in the Maritime Provinces. During the oriest period of the college at St.
Anne, Church Point, Digby county, N. S. Bishop Chaiseon recided at Seven Islands, Saguenay county, Quebec. The Eduist order, of which he is a member, has a house in Gloucester county. When the superior general of the Eudists came from Paris to the houses of the order. Mgr. Chaiseon, was his interpre ter, During their brief stay in the city
they were the guests of the Monastery of the Good Shepherd, Waterloo St.

Want Early Session Of Legislature

FREDERICTON. Sept. 8—The Council of the Temperance Affinite has selected Rev. Z. L. Fash as secretary, in place of Rev. F. h. Booth In St. John To

In minimals citizens called on him bidd he was exceedingly pleased to meet them all. Later in the afternoon he visited his father's grave in St. James' Cemetery.

The many readers of Rod and Gun his visit by Mr. W. D. Ross, a direction of the Nova Scotia Sizel and Coal Company, and Mr. Murray Williams Director of The Atiantic Refineries of Montreal.

His Lordship attended the eventing service on Sunday in St. James Presbyterian Church, the pulpit of which his father, Rev. William Ait-ken occupied for twenty three years. Last year Lord Beaverbrook donated St. James' Church congregation with a beautiful "Sassavant" Pipe Organ in loving memory of his father and the pastor. Rev. L. H. Martan and the pastor. Rev. L.

dicasre E. L. Pesse, Vice-Fresident of the Royal Bank of Canada, R. MacD. Patterson of Hamilton, Ont. and C. S. Wilcox of Montreal, Directors of the Royal Bank of Canada arrived in Newcastle last Thursday arrived in Newcastle last Thursday afternoon in their special car attached to the Ocean Hamted. While here they made a visit to the different mills on the river and were well pleased with the conditions prevailing. The party are an an inspection tour of the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland. They left Newcastla Thursday night, in their car attached to the midnight sleeping train for Moneton.

him a Silver Cup, six first prizes one winners, and one special prize. The silver cup is on exhibition in Mr. Morris drug store window, and Mr. Morris is to be congratulated on owning such a valuable dog.

In St. John To-day

It was decided to urge on the gavernment that the legislature he convened at an early date and that steps be taken for prohibiting the importation of liquor into the province.

The government is to be asked to increase the salaries of the chief liquor inspector and the sub-inspector.

Lord Beaverbrook and party arrived this afternoon from Newcastle with was accompanied by W. D. Ross, of the Bank of Nova Scota; liurary Williams of the Atlantic Refineries directorate; E. H. Sinelair increase the salaries of the chief liquor inspector and the sub-inspector. ncial government.

beautiful "Sassavant" Pipe Organ loving memory of his father and the pastor, Rev. L. H. MacLean, durge the service on Sunday evening ok the opportunity of expressing this Lordship the smoore thanks himself and congregation for his named and congregation for his named to them. Considering the Element weather a large congregation for his named to them. Considering the Element weather a large congregation for his named to the Choir were in attentions. Murdoch Hayre of Exmoor was present and about twenty makes himself and congregation for his named to them. Considering the Element weather a large congregation for his named to the Choir were in attentions. Murdoch Hayre of Exmoor was large car services and the shutt-