OPENING OF THE NEW PARLIAMEN

London, Nov. 23-The Royal Stanard and the Union Jack of old England tugged and tore in the brisk wind from the spires of the houses of parlament to-day, a silent token of the fact that the day designated for the assembling of the new parliament had arrived. The usual crowds be gan to assemble outside the gates of Westminister Palace vard at an early nour, and by noon thousands of peo ple were massed about the outer entrances to the legislative chambers. and the services of the police were called into requisition to make a pathway through which the members charge of foreign business, becomes night pass without being compelled assistant general manager, with suto fight their way through the ranks pervision over foreign business .Mr. of their friends or opponents, as the Noble is a Fredericton man, and was case might be. Quebec, Nov. 23-The sworn state ments that one of the men originally charged with the murder of Blanche Garneau, a young Quebec girl, two years ago, but acquitted by a jury after a sensational trial, had admitted that he had actually committed the crime when produced before the Royal Commission this afternoon, roused the interest in the enquiry to fever heat. Raoul Binet, according to ffidavits made in St. Vincent DePaul penitentiary as recently as the end of January this year by three convicts, companions of Binet in the jail, not only confessed to the murder of Blanche Garneau, but promised he would also kill his own wife as soon as he was liberated.

The affidavits with a most emphatic denial by the deputy attorney gener al of the Province of Quebec, Chas Laclot, that he or any of his officers had ever attempted to shield or pr tect anyone in connection with the Blanche Garneau case, were outstand-

Melaval, Saskatchewan.—"I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised for women's troubles and when a friend recommended it to me I tried it and it has done me so much good in the two years in which I have been taking it that I find I am a different woman since then. I recommend your Vegetable Compound as much as I can and you may use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. WM. J. THOMAS, Melaval, Saskatchewan. Saskatchewan.

Saskatchewan.

These letters recommending Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound ought to convince women of the great worth of this medicine in the treatment of ailments to which they are often subtert.

SOCIAL DANCE

A social dance given last Friday evening in the Town Hall, by the Young Bachelors of Newcastle was a most pleasant and successful affair. A large number of dancing enthus iasts enjoyed the evening, and the music furnished by Rattray's orchestra of Campbellton was much enjoyed.
