OUR readers will remember mention being made in our columns, a couple weeks ago, of Captain Ledwell of Rollo Bay sustaining a very serious and painful ceident to one of his eyes. He was at once taken to the Charlottetown Hospital, where he has since been undergoing treatment. The acaident was of a peculiarly serious character; but, although progress has been slow, hopes are now entertained that he will not lose the eye.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Howlan visited St. Joseph's Convent Wednesday afternoon last, and each was presented with an address of welcome from teachers and pupils. His Honor delivered an appropriate address in reply, and promised a gold medal for the best essay on "Canada and its Resources." The interesting programme prepared for the occasion included the singing of the patrictic song "Canada Forevet," presented to the Convent by His Honor—Ex.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Halifax Herald. Says the impressive Requiem service held in the Basilica in Ottawa on Friday morning last, for the repose of the soul of the late Sir John Thompson will long be remembered by those who were present at it as one of the most remarkable gatherings of the kind. The decorations were in black and gold. The colors of his Holiness were of a most elaborate character. The music was The colors of his Holiness were of a most claborate character. The music was rendered by a picked choir composed of representatives from all churches of the city, Protestant and Catholic, and they rendered the musical portion of the ceremony in an exceedingly creditable manner. All classes of the community were represented in the concourse of 5,000 people present. Archbishop Duhamel preached the sermon. The discourse was that of a broad minded man, and was a splendid sulogy of Sir John.

DIED:

The Right Honorable Sir John Sparrow David Thompson, P. C., K. C. M. C., M. P., Prime Minister of Canada, youngest child of the late John Sparrow Thompson of Waterford, Ireland, and Charlotte S, R. broad minded man, and was a splendid eulogy of Sir John.

Fellowing are some of the opinions, of Mr. Bowell, from sources that cannot be accused of conservative tendencies. The Free Frees, of Winnipeg, an Opposition organ says: "To Mr. Bowell personally mo one will object, and he may be congratulated on having attained the Premiership of this great Dominion. He is a man of high character and sterling personal qualities." The (Independent) Journal of Ottaws says: "Mr. Bowell, as everyone knows, is a minister of long experience and a man of the highest personal character. There has not been, even in the bitterness and recklessness of party campaign, a breath of aspersion on his personal scrupulousness and absolute integrity, and that is a notable fact in a time in which aspersions are numerous and often justifiable. Mr. Bowell stands clear of all that sort of thing. He is held by all, friends and opponents alike, to be a first-class administrator, as his life long knowledge in public affairs will enable him to triumph over many a problem which might upset equally able but less experienced statesmen. Latterly Mr. Bowell's initiation and pronoction of the remarkably successful Intercolonial conference made him a figure in the public experience there paved the way somewhat for his present succession to the late immented Fremier. Undoubtedly, Mr. Bowell will receive a most hearty and united support from the Conservative party, and while there is oertainly a hard struggle ahead of the party in the near future thay will cortainly go into it under creditable and capable leadership."

Wm. Grant & Co's.,

We are pleased to know that Mr. John P. Murphy of South Shore, who, as our readers are aware underwort a serious operation in the Charlottetown Hospital, in consequence of terrible injuries sustained in a mill at Clyde River, is now progressing very favorably. The doctors found it necessary to amputate his leg twice. It may well be imagined the weakening effect of these operations, to gether with the awful shattering and loss of blood suffered in the first place, must have had on his constitution. He is now out of danger, and is suffering from weakness only. That his life was saved at all, seems little short of miraculeus.

In the constitution of the tree was then found that, besides his body being badly crushed, one of his legs was broken about six inches above the knee. He was taken to his home as soon as possible and medical evictors are placed.
