We have got rid of differential duties; our tariff will undoubtedly undergo some further modification; we have a prospect of free trade with the United States ;nd inter-colonial free trade is peing established between all these British Provinces. We entertain a well founded hope, if we have no positive certainty, of getting a grand Provincial Railway from Halifax to Lake Huron. The Provincial Post Office has come under the controll of the local Legislature, and the system will speedily undergo a thorough reformation.

GOOD NEWS FOR CANADA!

We received last night the hest intelligence for Canada which has arrived in a very fong while. No less than the approaching abolition of the British Navigation Laws!

Mr. Labouchere introduced the Government measure in the House of Commons on the 15th utility. Mr. Labouchere introduced the Governmens on the 13th ultimo. We regret that the late hour last night at which we received our files prevents onr giving Mr. Labouchere's speech in full; but the sum total of the Bill in Mr. L.'s own words is, " with the exception of the fisheries and coasting trade, to throw open to competition the whole navigation of this cauntry of every sort and description." REPORTED CHANGE IN THE BRITISH MIN TRY.-It was reported that Lord Joh Russell is to resign, and that Sir Robert Peel will be Minister, and that larger recreased. The shipping monopolists have ever been the blind foes of their own interests. If we may judge of the effects of the proposed relaxation of the navigation laws by the history of the Russell may be about to retire both from vicissitudes through which the commercial matter the state of his health, and from feeling that his powers are scarcely equal to the Herculean task of ruling the country a Herculean task of rolling the country as such a crisis. But we cannot see how Sir Robert Peel-can govern the country with a Tory Ministry. He is no longer a Tory himself, but a very liberal Whig, and he might act cordially enough with the present ministers, and be a great acquisition to them from his business talent and experience. But he can only rule with, and ence. Bit he can only rule with, and through the Whigs. That party, including all the Liberals, forms a complete majority of the present House. Sir Robert Peel has not above a fifth of the whole, the largest section of the Tories being dead against him. Coalitions rarely succeed, but there never seemed a more favourable moment for trying a coalition between the Liberal party and the Tory-Liberals, with Sir R. Peel at their head. The Country seems to call for such an effort of Parliament and of triumph over party spirit .- Globe.

CANADA FARMER. Family Journal of Agriculture—Internal Improvement—Literature—Schence-General Intelligence—published every Saturday, at R. Brewer & Co.'s Establishment, Toronto, and is now offered at the exceeding low price of ONE DOLLAR per year.

THE FARMER was established to supply a want that has long been felt in the periodical Literature of Canada. On the periodical Literature of Canada. On the one hand, a majority of the weekly publications devoted their exclusive atten-tion to the politics of "party," a few to Religion and kindred topics, and on the other, one "magazine" poured out its monthly stores on the grand, inexhaustable, and vitally important subject of Canadian Agriculture. Agriculture.

Although it is impossible to treat of pubquestion without, in some sense, writing dled with 'parties' nor will it hereafter less scrupillously avoid them. Its objects are the interesting, the useful, the necessary. As agriculture is the interest of first in portance to the people of Canada, so is it awarded the first place and the chief attention in the columns of the Farmer. Emigration, Commercial regulations, Education, Legislative enactments, and all questions bearing on the industrial pursuits of the country come under impartial reviews.— Short notices of useful books &cc.; literary Short notices of useful books &Cc.; literary selections, entertaining, instructive and moral; the improvements and discoveries in Science and the useful arts; a dish for the Indies and the Scraps for the boys; the markets at home and abroad, with the general news of the day, complete the bill of fare to which we invite the attention of every family, in every town and township of Canada. The first volume has met with unexspected favour from the public and the press. The enconiums of the latter, so iberally bestowed, would have consoled the Editors with the belief that their labours merited, had they not received encourage-ment. But the substantial support of the
