The Juron Signal, (ESTABLISHED 1848,) ne of the Largest Papers published in Canada, rinted and published at Goderich, Outario, ever VEDNESDAY MORNING, "The Greatest Possible Good to the Greatest Possible Number." t the Office, Montreal Street, adjoining the Marke compiler out al most a bolym anasied when had J. J. BELL, GODERICH, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY. MARCH 26, 1873. WHOLE NO. 1362. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. VOL. XXVI. NO. 10. AV. MARCH 26, 1873.
WHOLE NO. 1869.
A PARCH 26, 1873.
Manual States are specified by setting of the states are specified by the growthere of the states are specified by the specified by the growthere of the states are specified by the specified by that father and mother even in playful-ness. 'We'll see what mamma thinks about it, 'was the father's answer to the childish importunities, and the mother's, 'We would not do it unless pa was wil-ling,' convinced the children very soon that there was co-operation and Tym-pathy between father and mother. 'We'll shat do you think about it? TERMS - $1.50 per annum, is advance, $2 if cree is given. No paper discontinued till all arrears a paid, except at the option of the publisher. Money to Lend. Poetry. Meetings. RATES OF ADVERTISING : -----MONEY TO LOAN Who Will Care. Eight cents per line for the first insertion, an wo cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Business cards not exceeding 6 lines $4 Pé innum, from 6 to 10 lines $5. The number of lines to be rectored by the spac coupled measured by a scale of solid Nonparelle GODERICH LODGE NO. 33 Who will care ? When we lie beneath the daisies, AT LOW RATES OF INTEREST. G. B. C., A. F. A. A. M. THE REGULAR COMMUNICATION Is held on thefirst Weinesday of each month at 7.30 p. m. Visiting brethren cordially invited. REEHOLD Permanent Building and pathy between father and mother. Well, what do you think about it ? asked George, suddenly turning toward Underneath the churchward mould Savings Society of Toronto. For particulars apply to A. M. ROSS. And the long grass o'er our faces rtisements without specific direc Lays its fingers damp and cold ; 'I am inclined to think he was about W. DICKSON, Sec. sw78-1y oderich,4th May, 1871. Agent at Goderich When we sleep from care and sorrew, right, I answered. 'I guess he was not far out of the way,' said George as we drove up to the house. YEARLY AGREEMENTS Secretary and Treasurer, CHAS. ROBERTON, And the ills of earthly life -lowing rates will be charged to me 1343. Sleep, to know no sad to-morrow Toronto. mn 1 year..... 6 months. 8 months. 1 year..... 6 months. 8 months. One Colu With its bitterness and strifehotels. MONEY TO LEND Death of Archderosn Brough. Who will care ? Half The Ven. C. C. Brough, Archdeacon of London, expired at his residence, St. John's Rectory, yesterday morning, about six o'clock, after a long and pain-At Greatly reduced Rates of Interes Who will care ? BRITISH EXCHANGE HOTEL. 1 year ..... 6 months. 8 months. Quarter " Who will some to weep above us, THE undersigned has any amount of meney t loan from two to fifteen years, at a low rate of MARKET SQUARE GODERICH. Lying, oh ! so white and still, about six o'clock, after a long and pain-ful illness. His name has been a house-hold word in the Diocess of Huron for many years, and all who had intercourse with him, especially those for whom he ministered with much acceptance during a long period of years. The decessed was born in the County of Carlow, Ire-land, in the year 1784, and after attend-ing college for several years, was ordain-ed as a clergyman in Dublin, where he made himself very popular by his expressiones and kind Christian qualities. In 1832 he emigrated to Canada, and settled in Orillis, where he pursued farm-ing obrations for about at years, ma cident to the lives of early pioneers. He was then induced to visit the Manitoulin Is-lands, and labored anonget the Indians Eighth ' 6 months. 8 months. ments; rate of expenses will de Underneath the skies of summer CAPT. W. COX, - PROPRIETOR Where all nature's pulses thrill, LATE OF THE-HURON HOTEL. HORACE HORTON ment is to be confined Full of beauty rich and aweet, business of commercial houses, and for not be held to include Austion Sales, Co-Partnership Notices, Private Adver Appraiser for the Canada Per -manent Building & Savings Society, of Toronto. continuance of the favor and support of the mmercial and Travelling public that was accorded fore the fire, respectfully solicited. All the world is glad in splandor That the years shall o'er repeat-Who will care! 1 834 Sale, de. The above rates will in all cases te strictly JOLBORNE HOTEL INSURANCE CARD. Who will care ? ments intended for insertion in any saue should reach the office by noen on Advertiset The Subscriber is agent for the to neurance Companies PHOENIX of London, Eugland. HARTFORD of Hartlord. PROVINCIAL of Toronto Who will think of white hands lying GODERICH. The large circulation of the SIGNAL makes a unsurpassed advertising medium. On a still and silent breast, Never more to know a sighing PROVINCIAL of Toronto. BRITISH AMERICA, of Toronto. Fire & Marine business E. MARTIN Proprietor. Ever more to know of rest? Who will care? No one can tell us, JOB WORK OF ALL KINDS ted with nestness and desnatch. Bills printed you wait. Orders by mail punctually attend-Good Accommodation. Ample Stable HORACE HORION But if rest and peace befall, From. This is admitted to be a First clas House kept in Good Style. August 16th. 1870 Robm. Will it matter if you miss us, Or they miss us not at all 7 Not at all 1 FARMER BROWN'S THEORT. As we turned the corner we came up on Farmer Brown with a load of produces on his way to market. His horses had come to an obstinate halt. Theway was too marrow for us to pass. and Genzey handing me the reins, jumped out to see what was the matter. 'Good morning, sir, 'said he, walking up to the farmer, pushing his hat to one side of his head and striking an attitude.— 'The mat-'Will it matter if you miss us, 'Will it matter if you miss us, 'Un la, noo !' answered the farmer, pushing his hat to one side of his head and striking an attitude.— 'The mat-'Will it matter if you miss us, 'Will you the it is a station of the is an interve of the ministry, and in 'Will it matter is your load too heavy ?' 'Whill is mattitude.— 'The mat-'Will it was the was a Christian gentleman in every to the is in the was a for the word. Deceased had an 'Will it was the was a christian gentleman in every to the is in the word in the was a for the word. The and the town of Guelph, containing 550 arcs of mission in the word in the word in the word in the was a for you will you there is the word in the was a for the Will it matter if you miss us, Office Market Square, Goderich Oct. 26th 1870. $25,000 Business Directory. O Loan on FARM or Town property at Tpe cent. Apply to Insurance. G. CAMPAIGNE, Solicitor. &c., Dr. P. L. Mo Dougall WILL be at home for Consultation up t e'clock, c.m., every day will wait path at any hou alterwards, aight or day. Oct 30th. 1571 4115 Goderich E IVERPOOL&LONDON MONEY TO LEND 7. 414 mon 1.1) AND GLOBE EIGHT PER C'NT. SIMPLE INTEREST for 5 or 10 years. Interest repayable either MUSSICIAN S R EON. AC A. Conternal NSUBANCE COMPANY A pp'y to HE SY MATHERS, St. Helens NA POLIOT S'CI 1309-1f. sses paid in the course of Thirty-five years co MISSICIAN & ROBON CORONER, &c. MONEY TO LEND. FORTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS : Dr. Cassady. McGill College N IMPROVED FARM PRO-Claims by CHIICAGO FITTE estiporty. at S per cent simple interest PHYSICIAN, SURGEON. &c., Office, Han Street Goderich, Ontario. iquidated as fast as adjusted without DFDT The sentity, Prompt Payment, no Liberaity in an instment of its losses are the prominent features J. Campbell, M. D. C. M. FIR and LIFE POIICIES issued with very ate of MeGill University. Montrea!. Gederich, 8:h Oct , 1872. PUTSICIAN, SUES ON AND AC OFCH' UK. Corner for the County. office and reside ce over the "Farmer's tare," (a.d. p.e. office build-Corpar for the County. Off over the "Farmer's 'tare," (0.d ing) Main Street, Scaforib. Head Office, Canada Branch, MON. ANCHOR LINE. TREAL 1308-1y DARRISTER IND ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. INC.

The tax rate in Sta to be crimted by hor 0 each to the proposed : According to the consur of 1871 there to in Canada 1886 Pagane, 13 Mahom no, 20 Athenator, 400 Dalata, 55 one, and 5140 who had no religion tob we could the are that all th all the

G.F.C. SMITH, Resident Secretary, MONTESAL teamers ail wery Wednesday A. M. ROSS, Agent for Coderich ow Calling at London or ry when a set of the passenger. 13<sup>29</sup> Passenger, 13<sup>29</sup> Passenger, 13<sup>20</sup> Passenger, 14<sup>20</sup> Passen Toronto Life Assurance and Tontine Company.

ARRISTERS, SOLICITORSIN CHANCERY, & Office, Kingston street, Goderich C. CAMERON w52 J. T. GARROW. HEAD 'OFFICE : TORONTO, ONT. With liberty to increase to half a million

B. L. DOYLE DARRISTER AND ATTORNEY, SOLICITOR in-Chancery, &c., Goderich, Ont. 1387 A mount called in, 25 per cent. -all paid

Joderich. Ont. Office in Court House.

Cameron & (Jarrow.

"The Staff of Life" is th

	on Farmer Brown with a load of produce	deep interest in church matters, and was	and that such examinations were made	was carried on a division of 32 to 24. In	flaming roof, driving the fire before	BROWER CE CARACTAR SHEET OF WAR
ars. Interest repayable either ly. App'y to HE KY MATHERS,	on his way to market. His horses had come to an obstinate halt. The way was	on the most important committees of the	by practical and scientific persons, com- petent to judge of the adaptability and	answer to Mr. Tooley, the Attorney-Gen-	them; but the draught had swept it round to the eastern portion of the fifth	At a religious gathering in Uhicago a
HE ST MATHERS, St. Helens, 1309-tf.	too narrow for us to pass. and George	Church Society and Synod, from the meetings of which bodies his familiar	fitness of these lands for the purposes in-	eral said it was the intention of the gov- ernment to establish three additional	flat, and the rooms immediately sur-	the venerable Rey. Dr. Goodall, Broken service and the service and the service and the service of the ser	handing me the reins, jumped out to see	face and wise counsels will be missed	tonded, and that such persons have, in their reports, pronounced against the a-	Normal Schools, one at Ottawa, one at	rounding the clock were at about 2 o'clock one mass of flames. Sparks and	in mind and body, but animated by the occasion, the (aged clergyman said :
Y TO LEND.	What was the matter. 'Good morning, sir,' said he, walking	Deceased was very highly respected by his brethren of the ministry, and his	daptability or fitness of such lands, and	Kingston, and one in the West. That at	cinders shot high in the sir, and in a	"Friends, I am far upon my journey to
OVED FARM PRO-	up to the farmer. 'What's the trouble ?	advice was frequently sought and in.	have recommended that the said agricul- tural college and farm be not established	Ottawa was the only one which would be provided for this session. After recess	few minutes, with a terrible creab the	the Celestial City ; but I could not help
S per cent simple interest	Is your load too heavy ?' 'Oh. la, noo !' answered the farmer.	variably tendered in that Christian spirit	on said jands ; that instead of the said	a number of private bills were advanced	stone work and beams gave way and fell in. At this time a ory was raised	stopping on my way to attend this meet- ing in Chicago." Here a voice from the
MUEL SLOAN,	pushing his hat to one side of his head	which characterized his every action. He was a Christian gentleman in every	lands, the farm of F. W. Stone. near the	a stage, when the House went into Com- mittee on the estimates and passed, a	that the walls were shout to fall, but the	multitude was heard by all : " Chicago
Colborne Hotel.	and striking an attitude The mat-	sense of the word. Deceased had a	town of Guelph, containing 550 acres of land, can be acquired, and the said farm	an and the state of the state o	firemen within heeded it not. They	is not on that road." The effect was h Oct , 1872. 1338	ter is the critters don't pull together.' 'Ah !' said George with an interested	family of eight children, six daughters	is altogether suitable for the hereinbe-	Tuesdsy, 18th March.	kept the advantage they had gained and gradually extinguished the fire after it	electrical, especially upon the poor old look at the sleek horses, and the load of	and two sons. Two of the daughters died some years since. The sore are	fore mentioned purpose, and that it is	After routine business the Attorney-	had totally gutted the fifth flat and	could say no more, and he was obliged
OR LINE.	corn which really did not look so very	both alive. The funeral of deceased will	expedient to purchase the aid farm for an amount not to exceed the sum of	General moved that this House ratify	seriously damaged the one helow . The	to sit down.
Service and the Party of the Service and the S	large. 'If that's the trouble why don't you make them pull together if	tare place from his late residence on	$70.000. He disclaimed any animosity	the Order in Council approved by the Lieutenant-Governor on the 12th March.	fire was first discovered at one e'clock. It was in the rear of the lauadry, and	The increasing quantities of bad but-
	'A body would think they might,'	Monday afternoon next, at three o'clock. Free Press. 15th	towards the late government in propos-	1873, with reference to aid granted to	was forcing itself rapidly towards the	ter is arousing a strange agitation in the markets of the Province. Both in
Saturday. N NEW YORK AND GLAS-	said the man, 'when they've been work-		ing that the Agricultural College should be moved from Mimico; but thought an-	the Toronto, Grev & Bruce Railway Co. He explained that by a previous Order	front, where several servants slept in the upper attic. At this time they were	Toronto and Guelph it is almost an imondonderry to land Vails and	ed together this five year,' and picking up the reins he called out, 'Gee up, John-	Goderich Township.	other locality would be more fitting for	in Council $2,250 was granted to the	making their escape from the windows.	possibility to get a pound of good sweet butter in the markets, and a large quan-
booked and forwarded to and	nie ; go 'long, Kate.'	10th March, 1873.	the purposes of an Agricultural College. He contended that he had not acted	Toronto, Grey & Bruce, and Wellington,	large volumes of smoke coming out with	tity of that offered for sale is such nasty.
ations in Great Britain, Ireland, , Sweden or Denmark and	Johnnie, 'geed up' with a clatter, but by the time Kate was ready to 'go 'long,'	The council met to-day pursuant to adjournment. The members all pres-	hastily, but had obtained the best	Grey & Bruce Railways, to aid them in constructing their lines from Harriston	them. Two of the girls who came out of the attic windows on the roof were in	unclean, ranoid, salty, greasy stuff, that
y, spedily, confortably and other Route or Line.	be had ceased his efforts, and all that	ent.	opinions on the subject, including the	to Wingham, and from Wingham te	the act of jumping off, but a centleman	it is utterly unfit for the human stomach. We notice in a Whithy paper an account
W DEPARTURES. From New York.	was accomplished was some cracking a-	The minutes of last meeting were read	valuable services of Prof. Mills, of Mich- igan. Messrs Ball, of Niagara, Dunlop,	Kincardine, upon agreement that this section should be used by both compan-	appealed to them to remain quiet till the brigade arrived with ladders, but the	of a meeting of merchants at Port Perry
IOWAMon., Oct. 16th, CALEDONIASat., Oct. 21st	bout the waggon, and considerable dust about the horses.	and approved. The Auditor's report was received.	of Woodstock, Miller, of Markham, and	ies. The W. G. & B., have however,	latter did not come to the aid of the un-	on Tuesday last, for the purpose of agreeing upon regulations for the in-
ANGLIA Sat., Oct. 28th CULUMBIA Sat., Nov 4th	'Ye see,' said the man, standing back	read and passed, and 100 copies thereof	Drayton, unanimously reported against the Mimico site. He repudiated the	declined to agree to this arrangement,	fortunates. In a few minutes more	spection of butter, and classing the sam-
COLUMBIASat., Nov 4th esday and Saturday thereafter 0. North River, at noon.	again, 'that wheel sticks a bit in the rut, and if they were a mind to pull together	ordered to be printed for public distribu	idea of being actuated by political mo-	and the order is ineffectual. He, there- fore, asked the House to grant the T.	many people had arrived, some of whom, seeing the perilous position of the girls,	ples brought to the markey into grades.
AGE PATABLE IN CURRENCY,	they'd have it out in a minute.'	tion. Thomas Champion was paid the sum of $1.50 for the use of his house for	tives. He denied that the location of	G. & B. $2,000 per mile in constructing	went over to Shaw's new buildings near	By the adoption of similar action thoughout Outario, a more favourable and $75, according to location Tickets (good for 12 months)	'I see,' said George, contemplatively ;	Council purposes. Charles Robinson,	the farm in Guelph was a reward to Mr Gow for retiring from the ministry.	their line from Harriston to Teeswater.	the ruius of St. Patrick's Hall, and re-	character might be obtained for Canaest accomodation, $180.	'foolish fellows, are nt they ?' 'Well, I dunno about that,' answered	Wm. H Cook, and Mrs. Ann Munro,	Guelph, on account of its good average	After some discussion the resolution was carried. The Attorney-General moved a	turned with a ladder and saved the women. By this time the fire had got	dian butter both at home and abroad, ate, $33. Steerage, $28. WEAT RATES can be bought ag to send for their friend	the farmer, who evidently had a good	received certificates to obtain tavern licenses. John T. Naftel, Esq., was re-	soil, its medium climate, and its central location, had been selected. He assert-	resolution with reference to the Welling-	into the hotel. A woman had get out-	ACCIDENT AT MITCHELL A portion able on preser tation.	deal of icspect for his horses. "I've seen a good many husbands and wives pull	funded the sum of $2 53, and John	ed that half of Mr. Stone's farm was	ton, Grey & Bruce Railway. He said that in this matter an Order in Council	side and was holding on by her hands to a sash, her feet resting on the mould-	of the brick wall of the late Commercial
MRS WARNOCK.	apart a sight worse than they do.'	Smeltzer the sum of $2 30, for over as- sessment for the year 1872. The Audi-	equal to the whole of the Mimico farm.	had already been granted, and ratified by	ing of the window below. She could be	Hotel, recently destroyed by fire, was blown over during a stosm at about two
West St. Goderich, On	'Indeed !' said George with some sur-	tors and TayernInspectors were paid the	On the former we have a large building, and commodious barns and outbuildings.	the House, but on account of certain ar- rangements between the County of	seen moving her hands at intervals. Bedding and all sorts of material were	o'clock Sunday morning, and was precip-
TAT DOTAT	prise, but at the same time staling a glance back at the carriage-which, of	sum of $6, for their services. Hugh Hall was refunded his taxes for the year	Hon. Mr. Crooks, as a member of the	Brace and the Company a modification	flying from the lower windows to the	itated through the roof and flooring of Mr. Thomas Macdonald's hardware
EAL OCEAN	course, I did not see.	1872, amounting to $3 53. The follow-	Government, and representative of the city of Toronto, thought he ought to ex-	was needed. The sum granted was $23,- 000. Carried. The Attorney-General	pavement, and were piled up by the	store. So tremendous was the concus-
	'Yes,' yes,' said the man, 'you see Johnnie wants to pull to one side of the	ing persons were appointed tence-view- ers, viz: For ward No.1, Isaac Salkeld,	press his views. Having an interest to	then moved that the Port Perry and	spectators so that if the ladders did not come in time the woman would not	sion that all the plate glass and framing of the show windows were totally demol-
IL EN	road, and Kate wants to pull straight	James McIntosh, John Johnston, for	retain the farm at Mimico for the bene-	Port V-hitby Railway be granted aid at	have her brains dashed out by the fall.	ished. A large portion of the valuable
A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A	ahead, so they don't agree about it. Men and women are always doing the same	ward * No. 2, John Sturdy, Andrew	fit of his constituency, if otherwise de- sirable, he had, given the subject deep	the rate of $2000 per mile. Carried. A number of bills were then read a third	The chief of the brigade had in the mean- time secured ladders, but it took at least	stock is buried and mixed up with the debris, and the remainder is consider-
UID COMPANY	thing I don't mind so much about the	Whitely, John Clarke ; for ward No. 3, Thomas Woods, John Elliott, G. West-	consideration, and carefully weighed all the data, and the conclusion that he was	time. Hon. Mr. Pardee moved that	ten minutes to place them against the	ably damaged. Mr. Macdonald's loss
HIP COMPANY.	old folks, he continued ; but it spiles	on; for ward No. 4, Henry Steep, John	forced to, was that the change would be	the order for a bill to provide for the es- tablishment of training School for Idiotic	wall, when, to the horror of all, they were found to be thirty feet too short.	cannot fall short of $2,000.
o and from Liverpool, London- ow by the above Steamship Coy. P. H. CARTER.	the children.' 'Spoils the children ! what do you	Plewes, William Wise. For Ward No. 5. William Laithwaite, William	a beneficial one. Dr. Boulter moved in amendment-that it is not desirable that	and Imbecile Children be discharged.	Several of the firemen grasped a thirty-	LIEUTENANT-GOVERNORSHIPS-The
P. H. CARTER. Agent Grand Trunk Railway 5, 1870. w30	mean? said George. 'Humph ! a man can see that with	Murphy, John Colclough. Charles Rob- inson was instructed to erect a Pound	this Province should be burdened at the	Carried. Hon. Mr. Crooks moved the second reading of the bill to establish a	foot ladder and succeeded in saving the woman after being thirty-five minutes	French papers mention a rumor that Judge Allen will probably succeed Hon.
5. 1870. W30	half an awa ' was the answer.	on his premises, the work to be superin-	present time with the expense of an ag- ricultural college. Hon. Mr. Cameron		in her perilous position. Another per-	L. A. Wilmot as Lieutenant-Governor
	'If a man and his wife pull together, if they do have a hard scrabble of it, the	tended by the Reeve, and when com- pleted, the material for the building to	moved an amendmen' to the amendment	required, and he hoped by next session	son on the roof was also saved by the heroic exertions of the brigade. After	of New Brunswick, while the Ottawa Free Press montions Sir F. Hincks as a nto a	children turn out well enough; but if	be paid for by the council.	to the effect that, considering the ex-	that he would be so able to extend the	the fire was over a woman named Bran-	probable successor of Mr. Howland as
* 1 H H	they are pulling apart and scolding at	Mr. Henry Young was re-appointed	moving the site of the agricultural col-	operations of this college that, through the Mechanics' Institutes through out the	nan employed as laundress in the hotel, was found lying dead in a bedroom.	Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.
TA TTT	one another, the children always go to destruction.	Collector of Taxes for the current year. Salary, $70.	lege. He supported his amendment at	length and breadth of the land, artizana	having been sufficiented When the fine	Thousands of people are now care-
EW	George examined Kate's harness, and	The council adjourned to meet again	considerable length, quoting largely	may feel the benefit of this practical	was discovered the some was torrible	longly alloging themselves to drift
0	brushed a fly from her back. You	on the second Monday in May next,	opinions of practical tarmers in the neighbourhood, who testified to the	training. "r. Macdonald thought that the Government had failed to show the	One lady, who, with her child, occupied	through the preliminary symptoms of
r Store.	speak as if you had experience, no said ; You have a wife, I suppose ?	-said meeting to be Court of Revision and Appeal.	quality of the soll. Dir Gow Baid chavas	necessity of this college. The college	at the last moment and escaned in her	that they are tranhlad with mathing but
	Bless you, yes, was the answer, 'and six boys.' We never had no trouble	T. B. STOKES,	first he looked upon the change with re- pugnance, but that he became convinced	would be mainly for the benefit of To- ronto, and he thought that Terento and	night clothes to the fourth story, where	a "alight cold." Hay magazing is it
	six boys. We never had no trouble bringing up our shildren; fine young	Clerk.	by subsequent evidence that the change	not the Province at large, should bear	she was saved at one of the windows. Several gentlemen, unappalled at their	then, that a cold should be sared for from its incipiency, and every exertion
N BOND,	man that are now avery one of them.	Josh Billings on the Duck.	was desirable. Mr. Gibbons said that	the burden. Mr. Rykert opposed some	dangerous position, gathered some of	mad to get rid of it "Reven's Pal.
the state of the states have	When I fold one of them to do some	The dek is a foul. There aint no	from his personal inspection of the Mimico farm he thought that the crops	of the details of the measure, after which the motion for the second reading	their effects together and pitched them out of the windows. Trunks, boxes,	monic Wafers" will stop the hacking
T&DRUGGIST	thing my wife dida't take him behind the door and tell him his father was hard	doubt of this naturalists say so-and	looked about as bad as they could in	of the bill was carried The bills re-	Sc., came down in general ruin. Men	cough in a few minutes, and by their influence on the bronchial and pul-
EARS PRACTICE.	on him and give him a sugarplum. No. sir-ee; she'd tell him to mind his father	kommon sense teaches it.	any part of Canada. He could have car- ried an acre's crop of grass away on his	specting procedure under summary con-	and women immod from windows to the	menary organs all fears of dangerous
EARS FRAUFICE.	sir-ee; she'd tell him to mind his father if he wanted any help from her; and	and are an up; and down flat footed jop.	back. Shaly sand stone and sand pre-	tates, in which the Crown is interested,	street in their despair. Mr. J. E. Thomas, of the Ontario Bank, a native	results will soon be dissipated—but they must be taken in time. Sold
1 11 11 11 11 11 11 11 11	when she told'am to do anything ane	They don't kackle like the hen, nor	vailed. There was no water, and the whole place was as dry as dust. The	were read a second time. The House	of Niagara, is suffering from a broken	by all Druggists and country dealers.
		kro like the rooster, nor holler like the		then went into Committee on the esti-	rib and other injuries from this cause.	Price 25 cents per box.
ORPHRE DRUGS	Lange J Til back has up and LDG DOVA		man must be next thing to a maniac or	mates, and Dassed a large number of	Me Clame Dalabas	T HOW AN COURS POR OVA.
FOR PURE DRUGN.	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't au fools. My, advice to	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey ; but they quack	man must be next thing to a maniac or a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult-	mates, and passed a large number of items.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra, Nield & Co., Le-	Poor Hogans There are thousands
MAN HALLING	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My, advice to	peakok, or squeam like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack like a root dekter, and their bill re-	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of	items.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messre, Nield & Co., Le- moine street, a native of Sonthampton.	Poor HorsesThere are thousands
YOU SICK	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I was sitting,	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor furk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's.	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Causeron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong	A NOVEL ADDRESS -A latter me	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moine street, a native of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in	Poor Horses There are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence auffering from a variety of
YOU SICK	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can't think he intended any-	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a woven fut, and kan float on the water as mutral as a cosp hubble.	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Causeron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and	A NOVEL ADDRESS A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratfard the discovery	Mr. Harry Beloher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a precarious condition. Te is baliared his tack is	Poor Hozans There are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of discesses, readering them almost worth- line, the would be restored to a healthy
YOU SICK onstipution, Beed Ache, Indigen- of the Heart, Bullous Discesses ity If so call at J. Hondy, Bast dort his Renumber Verstable	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull toro the " If one does haven to make	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a woven fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a scap bubble. They are pretty much all feathers, and	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the operation, much as he restricted doing so.	A Novel Address, -A letter was posted in this city yesterday atternoon destined for Stratford, the hisroglyphices on the envelope of which an envelope of which an envelope of of which an envelope of the strategy and not	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a native of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a precarious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Sammad Gazas Hiddich, in	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- lags, shat would be restored by a healthy and sound condition, and a value given
YOU SICK.	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhilo, it's better to	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack like a root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They are presty much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their intards ont, there is just about as.	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Causeron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf-	A Novel Address, -A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratterd, the hisroglyphics; on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the poriginator con-	Mr. Harry Beloher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co., Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. Te is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this size who leaved from our of	Poor Hozans There are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, readering them almost worth- lein, that would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given by them of which their owners mover dragmed would they but use the means
YOU SICK onstipution, Beed Ache, Indigen- of the Heart, Bullous Discesses ity If so call at J. Hondy, Bast dort his Renumed Verstable	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhilo, it's better to hang together, and the children will woon know what to expect; his Johnnie, git	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a scap bubble. They are pretty much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their shards ont, there is just about as include mettion at there is on a	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Causeron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regreted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that	A NOVEL ADDRESS A letter was posted in this city yesterday atternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter	Mr. Harry Beloher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preostrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who lesped from one of the windows, gradually, saft, and disd	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners mover dreamed; would they but use the means within their reach a from one to three exclose fill indiana Omision Pow-
VOU SICK onstruction, Head Ache, Indiger- of the Heart, Bullous Discesses thy If no call at J. Hondy, East diget his Renowned Verstable b has completely cured thousands de as well as 800 in Goderich and CBPHIPCATES. AUTORS, January 1864	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I. was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, ho "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhilo, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate.	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack like a root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They are presty much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their intards ont, there is just about as.	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gilfwrd said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lander in a sumwhat lengther	A NOVEL ADDRESS. —A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, the hieroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the left- hand corner a man with a carnet has in	Mr. Harry Beloher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preostrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who lesped from one of the windows, gradually, saft, and disd	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners mover dreamed; would they but use the means within their reach a from one to three exclose fill indiana Omision Pow-
YOU SICK Onsignation, Head Ache, Indigree- of the Heart, Billious Discenses thy If no call at 3, Honda, Bast ud gat his Ren.whed Vegatable has somplerely cured thereand as swell as 800 in Oodenich and CEDTIFICATES. Aurons, January 1864 Shat Jhave derized a beneficiel Trink Bitters and Bound is to b	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I. was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Katesoneladed to pull to- gether this time, and the load went for-	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the water as matcal as a soap bubble. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the water as matcal as a soap bubble. They have a woren fut, and kan float their shards ont, there is just about as incuch meation them as; there is on a kroke meater them as there is on a kroke meater that has gone to w seed. Wild duke are very good shooting.	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government wore doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a somewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great minuscie in the matter. Mr.	A NOVEL ADDRESS A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, the hisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the conjunator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the 1str- hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, the initial son the value corresponding with a the gantileman's	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a native ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed hiw back is broken. Samuel George Hildfitch, in the employ of Massra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this eity, who leaged from one of the windows, gradually, suft: and died bit eleven o clock this foremoon. The St- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin.	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed; would they but use the means within their visch a from one to three packages of 1% Darley's Gandition. Pow- dars and Arabian deays. Remedy" will in all cases produce a satisfactory result:
Autors, Band Ache, Indigen- onstipation, Bend Ache, Indigen- of the Wear, Billions Diseases thy If its call st J. Hondra, Band the Hear on Diseases that completely cured thereins and the standard state of the state that in a source, January 1864 that I have derived a beneficial Tonic Bilters, and Dubind it to be ticle in twee for Dyspecial and fee, a c	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I. was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhilo, it's better to hang together, and the childrein will soon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily.	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack like a root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They are pretty much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their marks ont, there is just about as huch meat on them as; there is on a krook meeter and that has gone to seed. Wild duks are very good shooting, and are very good, to miss also, unloss you understand the bismes.	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Causeron's amendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Craig (Glenorary said that therein sugar	A Novel ADDRESS A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, the initials on the value, corresponding with the gastleman's pame to whom the letter was directed.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont. was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hildfitch, in the employ of Massra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradnally, sank and died at eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The St. James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gorkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building with the divisione Hall.	Poor Hozsus There are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed; would they but use the means within their visch almost one to three packagest of 35 Darley W Gasdidian Pow- dars and Arabian Manya. Romedy" will in all cases produce a satisfactory result: hindreds have testified to the fact.
Aurora, January 1564 Constitution, Bland, Ache, Indigen- orithe Heart, Bullous, Diseases by If no call at 3, Honda, Bast digat his Ren.wheed Vegatable has sowill as 800 in Godeleit and carbonic and a start of the source CEPTHYCATES. Aurora, January 1564 that I have derived a beneficial T-inic Bitters and Build it to be ticle to use for Dyspessia and Sc. & C. JOEFPH SHIPLY, Wealeyse Minister.	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage there i, was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhilo, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Katsooneladed to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the water as maral as a soap bubble. They are prety much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed; and their shards ont, there is just about as incle meation them as there is on a krock meation them as there is on a krock meating them as there is on a krock meating them as there is on a widd duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unlose you understand the bisness. You should aim about three fut ahead	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government wore doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a somewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjusice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to wote	A NOVEL ADDRESS A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, the hisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the conjunator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, the initials on the value corresponding with the gantleman's name to whom the letter was directed. The other corners were smbell 'ad by two frogs; and a Lord Dandreary weik	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a native of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preckrous condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samed George Hiddiceh, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Meter & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradnally safk and died it eleven o clock this foremoon. The Sb. James Hotel is owned by Mr. T. Gerkin, progressor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, & for	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- laus, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed; would they but use the means within shair visch? Born and to three package of !!! Darley's Gaedition Pow- dern and Arabian dreave, Remedy? will in all eases produce a satisfactory result: hindreds have tastified to the fact. Resistance of Horse tastified to the fact.
Autors, Band Ache, Indigen- onstipation, Bend Ache, Indigen- of the Wear, Billions Diseases thy If its call st J. Hondra, Band the Hear on Diseases that completely cured thereins and the standard state of the state that in a source, January 1864 that I have derived a beneficial Tonic Bilters, and Dubind it to be ticle in twee for Dyspecial and fee, a c	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I. was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Katesoneluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and wakking back to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice.	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack like a root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the store as matral as a coap bubble. They are pretty much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their marks ont, there is just about as hunch meat on them at there is on a krook meeter at them at there is on a krook meeter and that has gone to w seed. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good, to miss also, unloss you understand the bisness. You should aim about three fut ahead or them, and let them fiy up to the shot:	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron's amendment. The lattersaid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Craig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke	A Novel ADDRESS A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have cansed the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, the initials on the value, corresponding with the gantleman's name to whom the letter was directed. The other corners were embell 'ed by two from a love Binser, both attined in	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co., Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Massra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, saft, and died it eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The St- Jannes' Hotel is ownied by Alfred Finson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Garkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sci. is volmed to amount to $20,000, and are oonputed to amount to $20,000, and set	Poor Hozsus There are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their work of Brow end to three packages of 1% Darley's Gandition. Pow- ders and Arabian densys. Remedy" will in all eness produce a satisfactory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hard: & Go., do, on each packages. Northrep, & Lyman, New-
Autors, Status and Street Status and Street Status and Street Str	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I. was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Katesoncluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir," said George lifting his hat and wakking back to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a reterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the rater as maral as a scap bubble. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the rater as maral as a scap bubble. They have a woren fut, and kan float when the feathers are all removed, and their shards ont, there is just about as incute instain at them as there is on a krook neeked squash that has gone to a seed. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unless you understand the bismess. You should aim about three fut ahead or them, and let them fly up to the shot. J have shot at them all day, and got	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would og this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke	A NOVEL ADDRESS A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, the hisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the coriginator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the defi- hand was drawn, the initial on the ralies corresponding with a the gentleman's pame to whom the letter was directed. The other corners were embell 'ed by two frogs; and a Lord Dundreary, well, and a Flore MoFlimsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the reenter of the any long.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed hiw back is broken. Samuel George Hildficth, in the employ of Massra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, saft and died at eleven o'clock this foremoon. The St. James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, propriator of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, 20, 16 valued at over $75,000. The loase are computed to amount to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing commanies - North. Reitid, and	Poor HozsusThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed; would they but use the means within their visch almost one to three packagest of 15 Darley W Gasdition Pow- dars and Arabian Means. Remedy" will in all cases produce a satisfactory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the mine and see that the signature of Hard: & So., is on each package. Northrep, & Lyman. New- castle, Ontario, proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine delets.
Autors, Status and Street Status and Street Status and Street Str	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I. was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Kateorneluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you air," said George lifting his hat and waiking back to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it,"	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the stor as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and the store is on the store as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and the store is nuch mett on them as there is ou a knock mett on them as there is ou a knock mett on them as there is ou a knock metter and that has gone to w seed. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss you understand the binnes. You should aim about three fut ahead ov them, and lot them fly up to the shot. J have shot at them all day, and got nothing but this feather now and then ;	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a somewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measrs Descon and Coyne, ful- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a	A Novel ADDRESS A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the wrightator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the left- hand was drawn, the initiation the value corresponding with the gentleman's mame to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were embell 'ed by two from the latter was directed in the latter fashing. In the control of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociol, that was drawn, with	Mr. Harry Beloher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his tack is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Massra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, saft, and died Steleven o'dlock this foremoon. The St- James' Hotel is ownied by Alfred Finson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Garkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, &co. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies "North British and Mercantile, $8,000 on the building 1 and fare	Poor Hozzar,There are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of dissesses, rendering them almost worth- lein, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given by them of which their owners never dreamed; would they but use the means within share reach. Brom one to three packages of :// Darley's Gaedition Pow- dern and Arabian Masye, Romedy' will in all cases produce a satisfactory result: hindreds have tastified to the fact. Resistance the Hard: & Co., is, yn each package. Northrep, & Lyman, New- cessile, Ontario, preprietors for Canada. Bold by all medicing dealett.
Autors, Status and Street Status and Street Status and Street Str	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I. was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Kateorneluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you air," said George lifting his hat and waiking back to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it,"	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the stor as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and the store is on the store as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and the store is nuch mett on them as there is ou a knock mett on them as there is ou a knock mett on them as there is ou a knock metter and that has gone to w seed. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss you understand the binnes. You should aim about three fut ahead ov them, and lot them fly up to the shot. J have shot at them all day, and got nothing but this feather now and then ;	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjuscie in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengery) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measrs Deacon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's	A Novel ADDRESS A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the wrightator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the left- hand was drawn, the initiation the value corresponding with the gentleman's mame to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were embell 'ed by two from the latter was directed in the latter fashing. In the control of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociol, that was drawn, with	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hildfitch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradnally, sank and died at eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The St. James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinnon- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gorkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, so, is valued at over $75,000. The loases are computed to amount to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies "North British and Mercantile, $8,000 on the building; Ean- oushire, $10,000 on the building and fur-	Poor HozsusThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their visch all from song to three packages of 1% Darley's Gandition. Pow- dars and Arabian dreave. Romody" will in all ences produce a satisfactory result: hindreds: have testified to the fact. Remember the name, and see that the signature of Hard: & 60 size on each package. Northrop, & Lyman, New- castle, Ontario, prepriotors for Canada. Sold by all medicing dealets:
Aurora, January 1504 Aurora, Biand Ache, Indigen- of the Bear, Billious Diseases thy If No call at J. Honda, Baat data his Ren.wned Verstable is has completely cared thorwands as well as 800 in Godeslein and CSNTBYCATER. Aurora, January 1504 that Lhove derised a beneficial Tonic Alitary and CSNTBYCATER. Aurora, January 1504 that Lhove derised a beneficial Tonic Alitary and CSNTBYCATER. Aurora, January 1504 that Lhove derised a beneficial Tonic Alitary and CSNTBYCATER. Aurora, January 1504 that Anove for Dyspessia and Call Control and the secon- ticle to use for Dyspessia Mesiby and Minister. Gederich, Aug. 37 1872 Thave great pleasure in recom- to Bittern as an stoceless thing for at-mach and evengthening the Ihave Attachtion.	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I. was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect; his Johnnie, git up, Kate. Johnie and Katesoncluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load went for- ward easily. "Thank you ir," said George lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the remon that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, hecause their parents did not parce in their training ? Perhaps the add farmer might be right. Floaked about a pro-	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They are pretry much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their inards ont, there is just about as inuch meat on them at there is on a krok nickt on them at there is on a krok nickted squash that has gone to seed. Wild duks are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss you understand the bisness. Y-u should aim about three fut ahead or them, and let them fiy up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then ; but this satisfied use, for I am erazy for all kind ov aport you know. That's are sum kind ov ducks that are inverband fear kill wave. It even do hill	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regreited doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a somewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjuscie in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, ful- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's amendment, which waslost. Yeas, Si. Nave 40. A number of buncombe mo-	A Novel ADDRESSA letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter- hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, the initials on the value orresponding with the gastleman's name to whom the letter was directed. The other corniers were emball 'ed by two frogs; and a Lord Dandreary swell, and a Flore MoFlimsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the resure of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thistle, was directing, with the well-known motio, "Nemo me im- puse lacestif," printed inline, encircling it. Is is donbit whether the	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co., Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Massra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, safk and died it eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The St- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, 86, 16 valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurances in the follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building if an- oushire, $10,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dandoa and Mutual, each $6,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the	Poor Horses There are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of dissesses, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given by them of which their owners never dreamed; would they but use the means within their worth. How on the the packages of "Darley's Gaedition Pow- ders and Arabian Meany. Remedy" will in all cases produce a satisfactory result: hindreds have tastified to the fact. Remienter the tastified to the fact. Remienter the Hard: & Co. is on each package. Northrep & Lyman, New- cestle, Onfario, proprietors for Cambia. Sold by all medicine dealers. "Write: wills. With You: SugrasThe "Cambian Pain Desteoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from
Autors, Status and Street Status and Street Status and Street Str	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage there i, was sitting, though I can't think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pul- together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to have together, and the children will woom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate. Johnnie and Kateomeinded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking back to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the remon that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I loaded about av ac- quisintences for examples. There was	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the sater as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the sater as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and the state of the feathers are all removed, and their marks ont, there is just about as inch mett on them at there is on a knock meeter and that has gone to a seed. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unless you understand the binnes. You should aim about three fut ahead ov them, and lot them fly up to the shot. J have shot at them all day, and got nothing buts tail feather now and then; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov sport you know. That are sum kind ov ducks that are your hard tew kill, even if you do hit	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph. Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Messrs Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Caneron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, Si, Nays 40. A number of buncombe mo-	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the wrightator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the 1eft- hand was drawn, the initiation the value corresponding with the gentleman's name to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were embell 'ed by two from the letter was directed. The other corriers were embell 'ed by two from McFlimsty, both stired in the latest fashions. In the router of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thistle was drawn, with the well-known motio, "Nemo me im- pure lacestit," printed mink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candle. The address read as follows :-	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed hiw back is broken. Samuel George Hildficth, in the employ of Massra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this sity, who leaged from one of the windows, gradually, saft and died at eleven o'clock this foremoon. The St. James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, propriator of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the farmiture, 200, is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies "North. British and Mercantile, $8,000 on the building; Lam- onshire, $10,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dondon and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building, Gueen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rental; the Reyal	Poor HozzasThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their worth a from one to three packages of "Darley's Gandition Pow- dars and Arabian deave. Remedy" will in all ences produce a satisfactory result: hundreds have testified to the fact. Restender the manuel and ese that the signature of Hard: & So. do on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- castle, Ontario, preprietors for Usanda. Sold by all medicine dealers. "Wart and write d'Auto BuzzasThe "Ganadian Pain Destroyar" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best
Aurora, January Market State (1) A state of the second state (1) A state of the second state (2) A state	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to- wards the carriage there I. was sitting, though I can't think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pul- together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to have together, and the children will woon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up. Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeinded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the remon that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the back former might be right. I loaked about by ac- quisintances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreck he was to be anner and had every advantage too.	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the sater as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the sater as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and the state of the feathers are all removed, and their marks ont, there is just about as inch mett on them at there is on a knock meeter and that has gone to a seed. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unless you understand the binnes. You should aim about three fut ahead ov them, and lot them fly up to the shot. J have shot at them all day, and got nothing buts tail feather now and then; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov sport you know. That are sum kind ov ducks that are your hard tew kill, even if you do hit	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regreited doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a somewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjuscie in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, ful- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's amendment, which waslost. Yeas, Si. Nave 40. A number of buncombe mo-	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the wrightator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the 1eft- hand was drawn, the initiation the value corresponding with the gentleman's name to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were embell 'ed by two from the letter was directed. The other corriers were embell 'ed by two from McFlimsty, both stired in the latest fashions. In the router of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thistle was drawn, with the well-known motio, "Nemo me im- pure lacestit," printed mink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candle. The address read as follows :-	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed hiw back is broken. Samuel George Hildficth, in the employ of Massra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this sity, who leaged from one of the windows, gradually, saft and died at eleven o'clock this foremoon. The St. James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, propriator of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the farmiture, 200, is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies "North. British and Mercantile, $8,000 on the building; Lam- onshire, $10,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dondon and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building, Gueen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rental; the Reyal	Poor HozzasThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their worth a from one to three packages of "Darley's Gandition Pow- dars and Arabian deave. Remedy" will in all ences produce a satisfactory result: hundreds have testified to the fact. Restender the manuel and ese that the signature of Hard: & So. do on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- castle, Ontario, preprietors for Usanda. Sold by all medicine dealers. "Wart and write d'Auto BuzzasThe "Ganadian Pain Destroyar" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best
Aurora, January 1604 the series of the seri	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, modding sidewise to- wards the carriage where I, was sitting, though I can's think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhilo, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate.' Johnnie and Katsoomeladed to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking back to the carri- age. I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the remon that so many children '' went to destruction,'' as he termed it, 'necume their parents did not prese in their training ? Perhaps the mid farmer might be right. I honked about a y ac- quisintances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreth he was to be sure, and had every advantage too.	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root disktey, and their bill re- sembles a reterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the sater as maral as a scap bubble. They are prety much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their shards ont, there is just about as incle meation time as there is on a knock meation the sizes. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unlose you understand the bismess. You should aim about three fut shead or them, and let them fly up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied me, for I am errary for all kind ov sport you know. That's are sum kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hir them. I shot one whole afternoon, three years ago, it sum door ducks, and never got one ov them. I hav never told ove	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measure Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's simendment, which waslost. Yeas, Si, Nays, 40. A numbér of boncombe mo- tions were sterwards made, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKellar's resolu-	A Novel ADDRESSA letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which "appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value orresponding with the gastleman's name to whom the letter was directed. The other corniers were embell 'ed by two frogs, and a Lord Bundreary swell, and a Blore MoPlinssy, both attired in the latest fashions. In the yearter de dress, a Sociel, thistle, was drawn, with the well-known motio, "Nemo me im- pute lacestif," printed infine, secircling it. Is is doubted, The address read as follows: "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man,	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed hiw back is broken. Samuel George Hildficth, in the employ of Massra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this sity, who leaged from one of the windows, gradually, saft and died at eleven o'clock this foremoon. The St. James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, propriator of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the farmiture, 200, is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies "North. British and Mercantile, $8,000 on the building; Lam- onshire, $10,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dondon and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building, Gueen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rental; the Reyal	Poor HozzasThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their worth a from one to three packages of "Darley's Gandition Pow- dars and Arabian deave. Remedy" will in all ences produce a satisfactory result: hundreds have testified to the fact. Restender the manuel and ese that the signature of Hard: & So. do on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- castle, Ontario, preprietors for Usanda. Sold by all medicine dealers. "Wart and write d'Auto BuzzasThe "Ganadian Pain Destroyar" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best
Aurora, January 1604 the service of the service of	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeladed to pull to- gether this time, and the load went for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking back to the carri- age. I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I felt to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, heenuse their parents did not zoree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about av so- quinitances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreck he was to be sire; and had every advantage to. An only son and idelized by both father and mother, but they wished him to do.	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root disktey, and their bill re- sembles a reterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the sater as maral as a scap bubble. They are prety much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their shards ont, there is just about as incle meation time as there is on a knock meation the sizes. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unlose you understand the bismess. You should aim about three fut shead or them, and let them fly up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied me, for I am errary for all kind ov sport you know. That's are sum kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hir them. I shot one whole afternoon, three years ago, it sum door ducks, and never got one ov them. I hav never told ove	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient estimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measure strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, Si, Nays 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards mde, and after a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were arried witheuts division. Wednesday, 12th March. To-day's atting was principally occu-	A Novel ADDRESSA letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, the initials on the value, corresponding with the gantleman's name to whom the letter was directed. The other corners were embelli 'ed by two frogs, and a Lord Dandresry swell, and a Flore MoFilmsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the resurce of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, that we drawn, with the well-known motio, ''Name me im- puse lacessif," printed inlink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candler. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a yoing man. The Morpeth girls loved, him-bits	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preoarlous condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradnally, saft, and died bt eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Sb- James' Hotel is ownied by Alfred Finson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gorkin, propriator of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, so; is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to smouth to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies North Building and fur- niture; Dondon and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the Building and Commercial, unknown; Westarn and Ottizens, each $4,000 on the furniture, Stopping, Stopp	Poor Hozzar,There are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, readering them almost worth- lein, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would be restored to a healthy and sound condition. And a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within shair reach a From ent to the packages of "Darley's Gaedition Pow- dern and Arabian disease. Komedy" will in all enses produce a satisfactory result: hundreds have tastified to the fact. Resionber the mane and esse that the signature of Hurd: & Co., is own each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- castle, Onfario, prepriotor for Uanada. Sold by all medicine dialett: "Watter wills d'200 SuspanThe "Canadian. Pain Destroyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desided the best medicine hown for the use of frauma- tions, place, waras, from bite, So., and use on heap that all can afford to buy
Aurora, January 1604 the series of the seri	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can't think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhilo, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect; his Johnnie, git up, Kate. Johnnie and Kateomeladed to pull to gether this time, and the load went for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking back to the carri- age. I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I felt to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, heenue their parents did not zores in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I looked about av so- queintances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreck he was to be sure; and had every advantage ton. An only son and idelized by both father and mother, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father was	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like the turkey; but they quack likes root disktey, and their bill re- sembles a reterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the sater as maral as a scap bubble. They are prety much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their shards ont, there is just about as incle meation time as there is on a knock meation the sizes. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unlose you understand the bismess. You should aim about three fut shead or them, and let them fly up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied me, for I am errary for all kind ov sport you know. That's are sum kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hir them. I shot one whole afternoon, three years ago, it sum door ducks, and never got one ov them. I hav never told ove	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient estimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measure strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, Si, Nays 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards mde, and after a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were arried witheuts division. Wednesday, 12th March. To-day's atting was principally occu-	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- niderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the 1str- hand comer a man with a carpte bag in hand was drawn, the initials on the value corresponding with the genitleman's name to whom the letter was directed. The other corners were smooll is d by two from a letter was directed. The other corners were smooll is d by two from a letter was directed. The other corners were smooll is d by two from a letter was directed. The other corners were smooll is d by two from a labor Morelinsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contre of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociol thistle was drawn, with the well-known motio. "Namo me im- pune lacestit," printed infink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candle. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man, The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him i Who can i	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hildfitch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradnally, sank and died at eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The St. James' Hotel is owned by Affred Pinnon- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, &c., is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies to $20,000 on the building; Ean- oushire, $10,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dundoa and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rental; the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and Citizens, Edina, $5,000 on the building; Bettish American, $5,000 on sental and Attures, Zina, $2,000 on the building, making a sum total of $60,000 on the building	Poor HozsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never drammed, would they but use the means within their worth. Bowers on so three packages of 35 Darley's Gendition. Pow- dara and Arabian draws. Romedy" will in all cases produce a satisfactory result: hundreds have testified to the fact. Restenesses the name, and was that the signature of Hurd: & Oo do on each package. Northrep, & Lyman. New- castle, Ontario, proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealett. Warth WILL You. Supra. The "Gaussian. Pain Destroyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine knows for the sum- tion have the affect to buy it. Sold by all Reducine Dealers.
Aurora, January 1604 Tomar State Control of State Sta	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage where I was sitting, though I can's think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect; his Johnnie, git up, Kate.' Johnnie and Kateooncluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said Goorge lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. 'I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I felt to musing. Was that the remon that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, heenuse their parents did not prese in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I looked about y ac- opunitances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreak he was to be size; and had every advantage too. An only son and adolised by both father and mother, but they were mever known to agree in what they wished him to do. His mother to do this the to the int to do the size; and had every advantage too. An only son and idelised by tooh father and mother, but they were mever known to agree in what they were mever known	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor furk like the turkey; but they quack likes root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the water as maral as a scap bubble. They are prety much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their shards ont, there is just about as inch meat on them as there is on a knock meat on the bismes. . You should aim about three fut ahead or them, and let them fly up to the shot. . I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied me, for I am erasy for all kind ov aport you knew. . Thare are sum kind ov ducks that are vivey hard tew kill, even if you do hit them. I shot one whole aftersoon, three years ago, at sum decoy ducks, and never got one ov them. I hav never told ove the before, and hope no one will repeat it. this is strikly confidensial!.	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would og this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Caneron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, Si, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a tedious debate Mr. McKeliar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, in atter a tedious debate Mr. McKeliar's resolu- tions were asteried witheuts division. Wednesday, 12th March. To-day's sitting was, prinsipally occu- pied with discussions on the Whichy and Port Perry and Credit Valley. Railway Bills.	A NOVEL ADDRESSA letter was posted in this city yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his attan- tion for several hours. On the 1efty hand was drawn, the initiation the value corresponding with the gentleman's mame to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were embell 'ed by two from McFlimsdy, both attired in the latest fashions. In the rentre of the surelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thistle, was drawn, with the well-known motio, "Nemo me im- pme lacestit," printed influe, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candle. The address read as follows: "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man. The Morpeth girls loved him-but cate him i Who can't They tried him all round-he get frightmed and ran.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moiue street, a naive ef Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hildfitch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradnally, sank and died at eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The St. James' Hotel is owned by Affred Pinnon- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, &c., is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies to $20,000 on the building; Ean- oushire, $10,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dundoa and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rental; the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and Citizens, Edina, $5,000 on the building; Bettish American, $5,000 on sental and Attures, Zina, $2,000 on the building, making a sum total of $60,000 on the building	Poor HozsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, auffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never drammed, would they but use the means within their worth. Bowers on so three packages of 35 Darley's Gendition. Pow- dara and Arabian draws. Romedy" will in all cases produce a satisfactory result: hundreds have testified to the fact. Restenesses the name, and was that the signature of Hurd: & Oo do on each package. Northrep, & Lyman. New- castle, Ontario, proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealett. Warth WILL You. Supra. The "Gaussian. Pain Destroyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine knows for the sum- tion have the affect to buy it. Sold by all Reducine Dealers.
Aurora, January 1604 Tomar State Control of State Sta	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, modding sidewise to wards the carriage where I was sitting, though I can's think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect; his Johnnie, git up, Kate.' Johnnie and Katsooncluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said Goorge lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I felt to musing. Was that the remon that so many children "went to destruction," as he termid it, hecause their parents did not prese in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I hocked about y so- quinitances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreek he was to be size; and had every advantage too. An only son and doliaed by both father and mother, but they winded him his ma was sailly. I well remember how a hock- ed I was, though but a child, on reening was sailly. I well remember how a hock- ed I was, though but a child, on reening	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor furk like the turkey; but they quack likes root disktey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the rater as instal as a coap bubble. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the rater as instal as a coap bubble. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the rater as instal as a coap bubble. They have a woren fut, and kan float on the rater as instal feathers, and when the feathers are all removed; and their shards ont, there is on a knock meat on them as also, unlose you understand the binnes. You understand the binnes. You understand the binnes. You understand the binnes. There should aim about three fut shead or them, and lat them fly up to the shet. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied me, for I am erary for all kind ov aport you know. There are sum kind ov ducks that are youry hard tew kill, even if you do hit them. I shot one whole atternoon, three years ago, at sum decord ducks, and never pot one ov them. I hav never told ove the boroe, and hope no one will repeat it. this is turkly confidential. Treasen Apples. It apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or wherever they havenes to be there in mean	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would og this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Caneron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, Si, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a tedious debate Mr. McKeliar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, in atter a tedious debate Mr. McKeliar's resolu- tions were asteried witheuts division. Wednesday, 12th March. To-day's sitting was, prinsipally occu- pied with discussions on the Whichy and Port Perry and Credit Valley. Railway Bills.	A Novel ADDRESSA letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value corresponding with the gastleman's prame to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were emballi 'ed by two frogs; and a Lord Dandreary swell and a Blore MoFlimsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel thistle, was drawn, with the well-known motio. "Namo me im- pute lacestic" printed infinite, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candle. The address read as follows: "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man." The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him 1. Who can?" They tried him sil round-he get frightened and ran.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co., Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, safk and died at eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Sa- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, &o., is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurance in this follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building i Law- onshire, $10,000 on the building and fur- miture; Dondoe and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, surniture and rental, the Royal and Commercial, unknown. Western and Ottoma, each $4,000 on the building British American, $5,000 on sental, and fixtures; Zinas, $2,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building a sum total of $60,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
A service of the serv	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the wind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, modding sidewise to wards the carriage where I was sitting, though I can's think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect; his Johnnie, git up, Kate.' Johnnie and Katsooncluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said Goorge lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I felt to musing. Was that the remon that so many children "went to destruction," as he termid it, hecause their parents did not prese in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I hocked about y so- quinitances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreek he was to be size; and had every advantage too. An only son and doliaed by both father and mother, but they winded him his ma was sailly. I well remember how a hock- ed I was, though but a child, on reening was sailly. I well remember how a hock- ed I was, though but a child, on reening	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like a reset inkey; but they quack like a root dickiey, and their bill re- sembles a reset inary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as maral as a scap bubble. They are prety much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their shards ont, there is just about as inch meat on them as there is on a knock meat on them as there is on a knock meat on the bismes. You understand the bismes. You understand the bismes. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied me, for I am erary for all kind ov sport you know. Thare are sum kind ov ducks that are vary hard tew kill, even if you do hit them. I whot one whole aftersoon, three years ago, at sum decoy ducks, and never got one ov them. I hav never fold ove this before, and hope no one will repeat it. this is strikly confidensial! Trosen Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or wherever they happen to be, there is no as in thinking that they are practically	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would og this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measure Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Caneron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, Si, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a tedious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were astring was, principally coou- pied with discussions on the Whichy and Port Perry and Credit Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was eccupied, to-day on	A Novel ADDRESSA letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value corresponding with the gastleman's prame to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were emballi 'ed by two frogs; and a Lord Dandreary swell and a Blore MoFlimsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel thistle, was drawn, with the well-known motio. "Namo me im- pute lacestic" printed infinite, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candle. The address read as follows: "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man." The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him 1. Who can?" They tried him sil round-he get frightened and ran.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co., Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, safk and died at eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Sa- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, &o., is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurance in this follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building i Law- onshire, $10,000 on the building and fur- miture; Dondoe and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, surniture and rental, the Royal and Commercial, unknown. Western and Ottoma, each $4,000 on the building British American, $5,000 on sental, and fixtures; Zinas, $2,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building a sum total of $60,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
Aurora, January 1604 Tomar State Control of State Sta	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, modding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhite, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate.' Johnnie and Katsooneluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you air,' said George lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the remon that so many children "went to destroation," as he termid it, hecause their parents did not prese in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I looked about by a so- quesitances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreek he was to be sure; and had every advantage too. An only son and edulated by both father and mother, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father was nevers, and his father rold him his ma was stilly. I wall remember how a hock- ed I was, though but a child, on seeing his mother one day, when I was at their house, give him some whiskey, because he was the rest at one of him his ma was stilly.	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like a reset inkey; but they quack like a root dickiey, and their bill re- sembles a reset inary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as maral as a scap bubble. They are prety much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their shards ont, there is just about as inch meat on them as there is on a knock meat on them as there is on a knock meat on the bismes. You understand the bismes. You understand the bismes. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied me, for I am erary for all kind ov sport you know. Thare are sum kind ov ducks that are vary hard tew kill, even if you do hit them. I whot one whole aftersoon, three years ago, at sum decoy ducks, and never got one ov them. I hav never fold ove this before, and hope no one will repeat it. this is strikly confidensial! Trosen Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or wherever they happen to be, there is no as in thinking that they are practically	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would og this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measure Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Caneron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, Si, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a tedious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were astring was, principally coou- pied with discussions on the Whichy and Port Perry and Credit Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was eccupied, to-day on	A Novel ADDRESSA letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value corresponding with the gastleman's prame to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were emballi 'ed by two frogs; and a Lord Dandreary swell and a Blore MoFlimsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel thistle, was drawn, with the well-known motio. "Namo me im- pute lacestic" printed infinite, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candle. The address read as follows: "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man." The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him 1. Who can?" They tried him sil round-he get frightened and ran.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co., Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, safk and died at eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Sa- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, &o., is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurance in this follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building i Law- onshire, $10,000 on the building and fur- miture; Dondoe and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, surniture and rental, the Royal and Commercial, unknown. Western and Ottoma, each $4,000 on the building British American, $5,000 on sental, and fixtures; Zinas, $2,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building a sum total of $60,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
AND	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage a here I was aitting, though I can's think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect; his Johnnie, git up, Kate. Johnnie and Kategoneluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir," said Goorge lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. 'I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I felt to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he termid it, heeanne their parents did not pree was Bert Sawyer. What a wreak he was to be sure, and had every advantage too. An only son and idelized by both father and mother, but they wise meyer known to spree in what they wise a stat their is was they wise a wise the was dis was stilly. T well emember how shock d I was though but achild, on seeing his mother code any when I was at their house, give him some whiskay, because he was the willing he should have any.	peakok, or scream like the goose, nor turk like a reset inkey; but they quack like a root dickiey, and their bill re- sembles a reset inary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as maral as a scap bubble. They are prety much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their shards ont, there is just about as inch meat on them as there is on a knock meat on them as there is on a knock meat on the bismes. You understand the bismes. You understand the bismes. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied me, for I am erary for all kind ov sport you know. Thare are sum kind ov ducks that are vary hard tew kill, even if you do hit them. I whot one whole aftersoon, three years ago, at sum decoy ducks, and never got one ov them. I hav never fold ove this before, and hope no one will repeat it. this is strikly confidensial! Trosen Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or wherever they happen to be, there is no as in thinking that they are practically	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government ware doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would og this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measure Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Caneron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, Si, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a tedious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were astring was, principally coou- pied with discussions on the Whichy and Port Perry and Credit Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was eccupied, to-day on	A Novel ADDRESSA letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value corresponding with the gastleman's prame to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were emballi 'ed by two frogs; and a Lord Dandreary swell and a Blore MoFlimsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel thistle, was drawn, with the well-known motio. "Namo me im- pute lacestic" printed infinite, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candle. The address read as follows: "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man." The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him 1. Who can?" They tried him sil round-he get frightened and ran.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co., Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, safk and died at eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Sa- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, &o., is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurance in this follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building i Law- onshire, $10,000 on the building and fur- miture; Dondoe and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, surniture and rental, the Royal and Commercial, unknown. Western and Ottoma, each $4,000 on the building British American, $5,000 on sental, and fixtures; Zinas, $2,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building a sum total of $60,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
A service of the serv	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, modding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Katsoomeluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you air," said George lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. I'll think on your advice. "As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the remon that so many children "went to destroation," as he termid it, hecause their parents did not prese might be right. I looked about a y ac- ous instand wat they wished him to do. Bert Sawyer. What a wreek he was to be sure, and had every advantage too. An only son and edulated by both father and mother, but they were mere known to some to what they wished him to do. Big mother toid him that his father was sovere, and his father cold him his ma was stilly. I well remember how shock- ed I was, though but a child, on seeing his mother one day, when I was at their house, give him some whiskey, because she said he needed it, only his father was never willing he should have any thing he wanted ; and on the father's coming home unexpectedly, she hurried.	peakok, or seream luke the goose, nor turk like a restrictly, and they quack like a root dektep, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap-bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap-bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap-bubble. They are pretty much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their instat on them as there is on a knoch meat on the bis set in the state of the states as the set in the seed. Wild duks are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss you understand the bismes. You should aim about three fut ahead or them, and let them fir up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then ; but this satisfied me, for I am erray for all kind ov uport you knew. Thare are sum kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hit them. I shot one whole aftersoon, three year ago, at sum decord nots, and never this before, and hope no one will repeat it. this is strikly confidenshall. Frome Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or whenever they happen to be, there is no mas in thinking thet hoy are practically ruined. If allowed to them maildy, or as fast as the temperature of the atmos- phere changes, they will not, probably, command a serv remunerative price. If,	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Ar. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would og this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Messrs Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Caneron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, 31, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were storwards made, and atter a tedious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were storwards made, and atter a tedious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were astried witheuts division. Wednesday, 12th March. To-day's asting was principally occu- pied with discussions on the whichy and Purt Perry and Cresit Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was cocupied, to-day on the stimates! A minber of items were passed, after considerable discussion on hous for furnishings for the Speaker's and Minister's zooms.	A Novel ADDRESSA letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value corresponding with the gastleman's prame to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were emballi 'ed by two frogs; and a Lord Dandreary swell and a Blore MoFlimsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel thistle, was drawn, with the well-known motio. "Namo me im- pute lacestic" printed infinite, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candle. The address read as follows: "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man." The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him 1. Who can?" They tried him sil round-he get frightened and ran.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co., Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, safk and died at eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Sa- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, &o., is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurance in this follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building i Law- onshire, $10,000 on the building and fur- miture; Dondoe and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, surniture and rental, the Royal and Commercial, unknown. Western and Ottoma, each $4,000 on the building British American, $5,000 on sental, and fixtures; Zinas, $2,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building a sum total of $60,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
AND	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, modding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Katsoomeluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you air,' said George lifting his hat and waiking back to the carri- age. I'll think on your advice. "As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the remon that so many children "went to destroation," as he termid it, hecause their parents did not prese might be right. I looked about a y ac- ous instand wat they wished him to do. Bert Sawyer. What a wreek he was to be sure, and had every advantage too. An only son and edulated by both father and mother, but they were mere known to some to what they wished him to do. Big mother toid him that his father was sovere, and his father cold him his ma was stilly. I well remember how shock- ed I was, though but a child, on seeing his mother one day, when I was at their house, give him some whiskey, because she suid he needed it, only his father was never willing he should have any thing he wanted ; and on the father's coming home unexpectedly, she hurried.	peakok, or seream luke the goose, nor turk like a restrictly, and they quack like a root dektep, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap-bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap-bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap-bubble. They are pretty much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their instat on them as there is on a knoch meat on the bis set in the state of the states as the set in the seed. Wild duks are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss you understand the bismes. You should aim about three fut ahead or them, and let them fir up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then ; but this satisfied me, for I am erray for all kind ov uport you knew. Thare are sum kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hit them. I shot one whole aftersoon, three year ago, at sum decord nots, and never this before, and hope no one will repeat it. this is strikly confidenshall. Frome Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or whenever they happen to be, there is no mas in thinking thet hoy are practically ruined. If allowed to them maildy, or as fast as the temperature of the atmos- phere changes, they will not, probably, command a serv remunerative price. If,	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjuscie in the matter. Mr. Craig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Decon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's mendment, which wafter. Keas, 31, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards mede, and after a todious Jebate Mr. McKellar's resolu- tions were carried without a division. Wedneday, 12th March. To-day's sitting was, principally occu- ried with discussions on the which y and Port Perry and Cresit Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was coupled, to-day on the estimates. A number of itoms were passed, after comiderable discussion on those for furnishings for the Speaker's and Minister's rooms.> Eriday, 14th March.	A Novel ADDRESSA letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value corresponding with the gastleman's prame to whom the letter was directed. The other corriers were emballi 'ed by two frogs; and a Lord Dandreary swell and a Blore MoFlimsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel thistle, was drawn, with the well-known motio. "Namo me im- pute lacestic" printed infinite, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game was worth the candle. The address read as follows: "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man." The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him 1. Who can?" They tried him sil round-he get frightened and ran.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Co., Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, safk and died at eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Sa- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, &o., is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurance in this follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building i Law- onshire, $10,000 on the building and fur- miture; Dondoe and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, surniture and rental, the Royal and Commercial, unknown. Western and Ottoma, each $4,000 on the building British American, $5,000 on sental, and fixtures; Zinas, $2,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building a sum total of $60,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 on the building	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
AND	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boys soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage a here I was aitting, though I can's think he intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect; his Johnnie, git up, Kate. Johnnie and Kategoneluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir," said Goorge lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. 'I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I felt to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he termid it, heeanne their parents did not prese us Bert Sawyer. What a wreak he was to be sure; and had every advantage too. An only son and idelized by both father and mother, but they wise meyer known to spree in what they wise a stat their is was they wise a word him has father was stilly. T well emember how shock ed I was, though but a child, on seeing his mother one day, when I was at their house, give him some whiskay, because was any willing he should have any.	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a rest like the turkey; but they quack like a root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They are pretty much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their instal on them as there is on a knoch meat on them as also, unloss you understand the bismes. To us should aim about three fut ahead or them, and let them fiy up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then ; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov upper you know. Thate are sum kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do bit them. I shot one whole aftersoon, three year ago, at sum decord ducks, and never pot one ov them. I hav never bold ove this before, and hope no one will repeat it. This is strikly confidential. If apples freeze is barrels, or heaps, or wherever they happen to be, there is no mas in thinking thet they are practically ruised. If allowed to them rapidly, or as fast as the temperature of the states place changes, they will not, probably, command a tery remunerative price. If, however, they are covered over with terw, or whatever is conventent, so as to archide light and air, or if the resm	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Ar. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual ys asuporter of the adininistration, he would og this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the more the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, Si, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were asteriary, 12th March. To-day's sitting was, prinsipally coou- pied with discussions on the Whichy and Port Perry and Cresit Valley. Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was eccupied, to-day on the setimates. A number of items were and fitter comsiderable discussion on those for furnishing for the Speaker's and Minister's rooms.» Friday, 14th March.	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratterd, thefhisroglyphics only to have caused the originator con- niderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value orresponding with the gantleman's prame to whom the letter was directed. The other corners ward embelli 'ed by two frogs, and a Lord Dundresry swell, and a Flore MoFilmsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the courte of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, threther was direven, with the vell-known motio, "Name me im- pute lacessif," printed inlink, entircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the candle. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a yoing man." The Morgeth girls loved, him-but catch him ! Who can?" They tried him sil round—he get rightened and ran. Pot their sweet Dr. T—since he's gone away." London Free Pres.	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Sammel George Hilditch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaged from one of the windows, gradually safk and died bt eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Si- James Hotel is owned by Alfred Finson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, propriator of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, 8:0, is valued at over $75,000. The loases are computed to amount to $90,000, and are fully covered by insurance in this follow- ing companies "North Building and fur- mature; Badoo and Matual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rental; the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and fittures, each $4,000 on the building and fur- niture; Londoo and Matual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building furniture and rental; the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and fittures, each $2,000 on the building distures. An Inquest was opened on the building as an $2,000 on the building making a sum total of $60,000 or the property. An Inquest was opened on the building of the sound of the property. An Inquest was opened on the building of the sound of the property. An Inquest was opened on the building of the sound of a protect army officer, the son of an az-cobines minimizer, the insphere of mothing ex- cubinet minimizer, and the son of a proting	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
AND	knowed I'd back her up, and the boys soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain's no fools. My advice to you is, he added, modding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhilo, it's beiter to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnnie and Katsooneladed to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking back to the carri- age. I'll think on your advice. As we rode on I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, hecause their parents did not prese to be sure, and had every advantage too. An only son and idolised by soth father and mother, but they were never known to agree in what they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father was were and his father told him his me was suid he needed it, only his father was never willing be should have a sta- dor only son and idolised by both father and mother, but they wished him hot do. His mother told him that his father was severe, and his father told him his me was suid he needed it, only his father was never willing he should have, have and nother told him that his father was the which is meaned whishey, because he wild he needed it, only his father was never willing he should have any- thing he was to mapped on the father's coming home unexpectedly, she hurried. I'w he was the father a doar. Yew have, when the state into the doar. What's that'f asked Mit. Sawyer, who we may have the support in the father's coming home unexpectedly, he hurried. I'w he was to be wrented in the father's coming home unexpectedly, he hurried. I'w he was to be some the model have.	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a rest like the turkey; but they quack like a root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They are pretty much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their instal on them as there is on a knoch meat on them as also, unloss you understand the bismes. To us should aim about three fut ahead or them, and let them fiy up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then ; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov upper you know. Thate are sum kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do bit them. I shot one whole aftersoon, three year ago, at sum decord ducks, and never pot one ov them. I hav never bold ove this before, and hope no one will repeat it. This is strikly confidential. If apples freeze is barrels, or heaps, or wherever they happen to be, there is no mas in thinking thet they are practically ruised. If allowed to them rapidly, or as fast as the temperature of the states place changes, they will not, probably, command a tery remunerative price. If, however, they are covered over with terw, or whatever is conventent, so as to archide light and air, or if the room	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Cuelph Ar. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Craig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Messrs Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's amendment, which waflost. Yeas, Sl, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were carried withouts division. Wednesday, 12th March. To-day's sitting was, principally occu- pied with discussions on the which and Port Perry and Credit Valley. Railway Bill. Thursday, 13th March. The House was compiled, to-day on the estimates. A number of items were passed, after considerable discussion on those for furnishings for the Speaker's and Minister's zooma.» Finday, 14th March.	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratterd, the hisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator com- niderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand comer a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, the initials on the value corresponding with the caritleman's orresponding with the caritleman's or from Morellinst, both attired in the latest fashions. In the courte of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sootok thistle was drawn, with the well-known moth. "Namo me im- pune lacestif." printed infine, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the gene as worth the candle. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Ont., there lives a young man." The Morpeth girls loved him-but catch him I Who can?" They tried him all round-he get frightmed and ran. Postmaster, just hand him this letter and say. That the dear girls are weeping and mourning all day. London Free Press. The Prince Edward Island Levislature	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preoarlous condition. It is believed his tack is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaged from one of the windows, gradually safk and died bt eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Si- James Hotel is ownied by Alfred Finson- misult and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sci, is valued at over $75,000. The loases are computed to amount to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companiesNorth Building and fur- niture; Dadoo and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rankal the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and fitzens, each $4,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dadoo and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building furniture and rankal the Royal and Commercial, $2,000 on the building fitzens, each $4,000 on the building and fitzens, each $4,000 on the building and fitzens, each $2,000 on the building the building; Gueen, $5,000 on the building furniture and rankal the Royal and Commercial, strate of $20,000 on the building furniture and rankal the Royal and Commercial, S2,000 on the building fitzens, each $4,000 on the building the building of the rotetime this strengen. Lapos HoronastaThe Oshawe Vindicator in us last issue gives the fol- lowing - "Among the appression in the building, the inplew of a noter ex- cubinet munitate, and the sam of a notice and army officer, the son of an ex-onbinet muniture, the inplew of mother ex- cubinet muniture, and the sam of a induce. They are indentared for the regular	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
AND	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boye soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage a here I was aitting though I can's think he. intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhid, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnie and Kateooneluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said Goorge lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. 'I'l think on your advice. As we rode on I felt to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, hecause their parents did not prees in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I looked about y so- opulationes for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreak he was to be size; and had every advantage too. An only son and adolised by both father and mother, but they were mever known to agree in what they were mever known to sorre, and his father toild in his ma was silly. I well remember how shock- ed I was, though but a schild, on seeing his mother cold him that his father was nevere willing he should have any- ting he wanted; and on the father the start is and on the father the sorred it, may as a their house, give him some whister, because the will be needed it, only his father the wat he seeded it, only his father thing her wanted; and on the father thing her wanted; and on the father to mered to mapped contantly that something was wrong." "Oh, writhing bat campoor, soid his	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a rest like the turkey; but they quack like a root dektey, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They are pretty much all feathers, and when the feathers are all removed, and their instal on them as there is on a knoch meat on them as also, unloss you understand the bismes. To us should aim about three fut ahead or them, and let them fiy up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then ; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov upper you know. Thate are sum kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do bit them. I shot one whole aftersoon, three year ago, at sum decord ducks, and never pot one ov them. I hav never bold ove this before, and hope no one will repeat it. This is strikly confidential. If apples freeze is barrels, or heaps, or wherever they happen to be, there is no mas in thinking thet they are practically ruised. If allowed to them rapidly, or as fast as the temperature of the states place changes, they will not, probably, command a tery remunerative price. If, however, they are covered over with terw, or whatever is conventent, so as to archide light and air, or if the room	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Deacon and Coyne, fol- lowed in a similar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's mendment, which wallost. Yeas, 31, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were startwards made, and atter a todious Jebate Mr. McKellar's resolu- tions were carried witheut a division. Wednesday, 12th March. Tho-day's sitting was, prinsipally occu- ried with discussions on the Whitby and Port Perry and Cresit Valley Railway Bill. Thursday, 13th March. The House was ecoupied to-day on the estimates. A number of items were passed, after comsiderable discussion on those for furnishings for the Speaker's and Minister's rooms.» Finday, 14th March. A number of Bills were advanced a stage, and the rest of the sitting was passed, after cominderable discussion on those for furnishings for the Speaker's and Minister's rooms.»	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratterd, the hisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator com- niderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand comer a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, the initials on the value corresponding with the cariteman's orresponding with states was directed. The other corriers were embell is do the senvelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sootok thistle was drawn, with the well-known moto. "Namo me im- pure lacestit" printed infine, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the candle. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Ont., there lives a young man." The Morpeth girls loved him-but catch him i Who can?" They tried him all round-he get frightmed and ran. Postmaster, just hand him this letter and say. That the dear girls are weeping and mourning all day. For their sweet Dr. 7since he's gone away." London Free Press. The Prince Edward Island Lerislature has been formally dissolved and a new	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preoarlous condition. It is believed his tack is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaged from one of the windows, gradually saft, and died bt eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Si- James' Hotel is ownied by Alfred Finson- misult and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sci. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to smouth to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies "North Residen and Mercantile, $8,000 on the building: Lam- mashire, $10,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dondon and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rantal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and fitteens, esch $4,000 on the building and fitteens, esch $4,000 on the building south American, $5,000 on the building fitteens, as the follower was opened on the bodies of the vice in the intermittee fitteens of the vice in the last issue gives the fol- lowing - "Among the appresence in the fall Works are:-a set of a rotired army officer, the son of an ex-onbined minimiter, the indplew of mother es- cubinet minister, and the son of a judge. They are indentared for the regular period, and take the regular appresention work without fear of the dirt, or favor	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
AND	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boye soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain't no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage a here I was aitting though I can's think he. intended any- thing personal in his remarks, to "pull together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhid, it's better to hang together, and the children will soon know what to expect; his Johnnie, git up, Kate." Johnie and Kateooneluded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said Goorge lifting his hat and walking back to the carri- age. 'I'l think on your advice. As we rode on I felt to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, hecause their parents did not prees in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I looked about y so- opulationes for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreak he was to be size; and had every advantage too. An only son and adolised by both father and mother, but they were mever known to agree in what they were mever known to sorre, and his father toild in his ma was silly. I well remember how shock- ed I was, though but a schild, on seeing his mother cold him that his father was nevere willing he should have any- ting he wanted; and on the father the start is and on the father the sorred it, may as a their house, give him some whister, because the will be needed it, only his father the wat he seeded it, only his father thing her wanted; and on the father thing her wanted; and on the father to mered to mapped contantly that something was wrong." "Oh, writhing bat campoor, soid his	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a root dokter, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and then float when the feathers are all removed, and their instal on them at there is on a knoch meat on them at there is on a knoch meat on them at there is on a knoch meat on them at there is on a knoch meat on the binnes. To a should aim about three fut ahead or them, and let them fly up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing but tail feather now and then ; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov aport you know. That's are sum kind ov ducks that are work have the lift, even af you do hit them. I shot one aftersoon, three years ago, at sum decory ducks, and never for one or them. I hav never told ove this before, and hops no one will repeat it—this is stirkly confidenshall. Trosen Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or where they happen to be, there is no mas in thinking that they are probably, or as fast as the temperatures of the stonoly plose changes, they will not, probably, command a server remunerative price. If, however, they are is convenient, so as to exclude light and any or if the room where they are is dark collar, where the temperature is moderately cold, hay will them yeard gilly, and will be almost as recol as areas. The freeze the the temperature is moderately cold, hay will the ward a server the temperature of the atmost aread as a the temperature of the sum of a stone in the ward of any or if they aread as a server. The freeze the temperature is moderately cold, hay will the ward as a servere the sum of a servered on the sum of a stone	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The lattersaid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Mr. Lauder, in a sumewhat lengthy speech charged the government with do- ing a great mjuscie in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- iy a supporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Deacon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's unendment, which watout. Yeas, Si, Nays 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were stretwards mede, and after a todious debate Mr. McKuliar's resolu- tions were stretwards mede, and after a todious debate Mr. McKuliar's resolu- tions were stretwards mede, and after a todious debate Mr. McKuliar's resolu- tions were stretwards mede, and after a todious debate Mr. McKuliar's resolu- tions were stretwards mede, and stret a todious debate Mr. McKuliar's resolu- tions were carried witheuts division. Wednesday, 12th March. The House was compised to-day on the estimates. A number of items were passed, after considerable discussion on the stimester. A number of items were passed, after considerable discussion on the stimester. Enday, 13th March. A number of Bills were advanced a stage, and the rest of the sitting was pent over the catimates. Saturday, 15th March. The House had a short sitting to day	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratterd, the hisroglyphics on the envelope of which appeared not, only to have caused the originator com- niderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand comer a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, the initials on the value corresponding with the cariteman's orresponding with states was directed. The other corriers were embell is do the senvelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sootok thistle was drawn, with the well-known moto. "Namo me im- pure lacestit" printed infine, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the candle. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Ont., there lives a young man." The Morpeth girls loved him-but catch him i Who can?" They tried him all round-he get frightmed and ran. Postmaster, just hand him this letter and say. That the dear girls are weeping and mourning all day. For their sweet Dr. 7since he's gone away." London Free Press. The Prince Edward Island Lerislature has been formally dissolved and a new	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preoarlous condition. It is believed his tack is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaged from one of the windows, gradually saft, and died bt eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Si- James' Hotel is ownied by Alfred Finson- misult and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sci. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to smouth to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies "North Residen and Mercantile, $8,000 on the building: Lam- mashire, $10,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dondon and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rantal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and fitteens, esch $4,000 on the building and fitteens, esch $4,000 on the building south American, $5,000 on the building fitteens, as the follower was opened on the bodies of the vice in the intermittee fitteens of the vice in the last issue gives the fol- lowing - "Among the appresence in the fall Works are:-a set of a rotired army officer, the son of an ex-onbined minimiter, the indplew of mother es- cubinet minister, and the son of a judge. They are indentared for the regular period, and take the regular appresention work without fear of the dirt, or favor	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
AND	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boye soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain's no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, 10 "pul- together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to have together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up. Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeinded to pull to- gether this time, and the load went for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking book to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode un I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about farmer might be right. I locked about farmer might be right. I locked about farmer might be right, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father: was best Sawyer. What a wreek he was to be sure, and had every advantage too. An only son and diclized by both father and molhier, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father: was novere, and had every advantage too. An only son and diclized by both father and molhier, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father: was nover willing he should have any- diting he wanted; and on the father's boung home unexpectedly, she hurried. "Whit's that T saked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supper consult have any- vising how suppet consult have any- sting he wanted; and on the father's coming home unexpectedly, she hurried. "Whit's that T saked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to suppet consult his father's coming home unexpected life." Sawyer, who seemed to suppet consult his father's coming home unexpected life. The same how it to decrive his. There have a side."	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a reservant like the goose, nor turk like a root dektep, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float when the feathers are all removed, and their shards out, there is just about as include instant on them as there is on a knock niecked squash that has gono to a seed. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss you understand the binnes. "You should aim about three fut ahead ov them, and lot them fly up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing buts tail feather now and then; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov sport you knew. "That's are stup kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hit them. I shot one whole afternoon, three years ago, it sum decay ducks, and never got one ov them. They nevee told ove this befort, and hope he ones vill repeat it—this is stuffly confidential! "Trezen Apples. "If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or when we they happen to be, there is no set in thinking that they are practically, or as fast as the temperatures of the stmos- phere they happen to be, there is no set enanget, they are covered over with streaw, or shatever is convenient, so as to exclude light and any, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they temperature is a darkened, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they temperature is and any, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they are removed to a dark	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Ar. Lauder, in a sumowhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would og this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, 34, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- uicons were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were after comistion on the stimates. A number of thems were and Alinister's rooms." Friday, 13th March. A number of Bills were advanced a stage, and the rest of the sitting was appent over the estimates. Saturday, 15th March. The House had a short sitting to-day which was specied on the estimates. Monday, 17th March.	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratterd, thefhisroglyphics only to have caused the originator con- nidersble labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value or several hours. On the letter was directed. The other orners ward emballi 'ed by two frogs, and a Lord Dendreary swell, and a Blore MoFilmsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the courte of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thiele, was drawn, with the vell-known motio, "Nemo me im- pone lacestif," printed inlink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the candle. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man." The Morgeth girls loved, him-but catch him ! Who can?" They tried him sll round—he get frightened and rat. Potnester, just hand him this letter and asy." That the dear girls are veeping and mourning all day. The Prince Edward Island Loring have so formally dissolved and a ray of saver." Ins Prince Edward Island Loring have been formally dissolved and a ray of the State poling on the 2nd of April, write returnable on the 2nd of April, write returnable on the later	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preoarlous condition. It is believed his tack is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaged from one of the windows, gradually saft, and died bt eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Si- James' Hotel is ownied by Alfred Finson- misult and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sci. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to smouth to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies "North Residen and Mercantile, $8,000 on the building: Lam- mashire, $10,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dondon and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rantal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and fitteens, esch $4,000 on the building and fitteens, esch $4,000 on the building south American, $5,000 on the building fitteens, as the follower was opened on the bodies of the vice in the intermittee fitteens of the vice in the last issue gives the fol- lowing - "Among the appresence in the fall Works are:-a set of a rotired army officer, the son of an ex-onbined minimiter, the indplew of mother es- cubinet minister, and the son of a judge. They are indentared for the regular period, and take the regular appresention work without fear of the dirt, or favor	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
AND	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boye soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain's no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, 10 "pul- together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to have together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up. Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeinded to pull to- gether this time, and the load went for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking book to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode un I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about farmer might be right. I locked about farmer might be right. I locked about farmer might be right, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father: was best Sawyer. What a wreek he was to be sure, and had every advantage too. An only son and diclized by both father and molhier, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father: was novere, and had every advantage too. An only son and diclized by both father and molhier, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father: was nover willing he should have any- diting he wanted; and on the father's boung home unexpectedly, she hurried. "Whit's that T saked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supper consult have any- vising how suppet consult have any- sting he wanted; and on the father's coming home unexpectedly, she hurried. "Whit's that T saked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to suppet consult his father's coming home unexpected life." Sawyer, who seemed to suppet consult his father's coming home unexpected life. The same how it to decrive his. There have a side."	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a reservant like the goose, nor turk like a root dektep, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float when the feathers are all removed, and their shards out, there is just about as include instant on them as there is on a knock niecked squash that has gono to a seed. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss you understand the binnes. "You should aim about three fut ahead ov them, and lot them fly up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing buts tail feather now and then; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov sport you knew. "That's are stup kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hit them. I shot one whole afternoon, three years ago, it sum decay ducks, and never got one ov them. They nevee told ove this befort, and hope he ones vill repeat it—this is stuffly confidential! "Trezen Apples. "If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or when we they happen to be, there is no set in thinking that they are practically, or as fast as the temperatures of the stmos- phere they happen to be, there is no set enanget, they are covered over with streaw, or shatever is convenient, so as to exclude light and any, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they temperature is a darkened, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they temperature is and any, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they are removed to a dark	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bee and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the site from Mimico, and he would have to oppuse them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Ar. Lauder, in a sumowhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengary) said that though usual- ly a supporter of the administration, he would og this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's amendment, which was lost. Yeas, 34, Nays, 40. A number of buncombe mo- uicons were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were afterwards mede, and atter a todious debate Mr. McKultar's resolu- tions were after comistion on the stimates. A number of thems were and Alinister's rooms." Friday, 13th March. A number of Bills were advanced a stage, and the rest of the sitting was appent over the estimates. Saturday, 15th March. The House had a short sitting to-day which was specied on the estimates. Monday, 17th March.	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratterd, thefhisroglyphics only to have caused the originator con- nidersble labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value or several hours. On the letter was directed. The other orners ward emballi 'ed by two frogs, and a Lord Dendreary swell, and a Blore MoFilmsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the courte of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thiele, was drawn, with the vell-known motio, "Nemo me im- pone lacestif," printed inlink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the candle. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man." The Morgeth girls loved, him-but catch him ! Who can?" They tried him sll round—he get frightened and rat. Potnester, just hand him this letter and asy." That the dear girls are veeping and mourning all day. The Prince Edward Island Loring have so formally dissolved and a ray of saver." Ins Prince Edward Island Loring have been formally dissolved and a ray of the State poling on the 2nd of April, write returnable on the 2nd of April, write returnable on the later	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was severely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preoarlous condition. It is believed his tack is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Masura. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaged from one of the windows, gradually safk and died bt eleven o'dlock this foremoon. The Si- James' Hotel is ownied by Alfred Finson- misult and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furmiture, sci. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to smouth to $20,000, and are fully covered by insurance in the follow- ing companies "North Residen and Mercantile, $8,000 on the building: Lam- mashire, $10,000 on the building and fur- niture; Dondon and Mutual, each $4,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, furniture and rankal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and fittering, as and $4,000 on the building and fittering as the violation $50,000 on the building; furniture and rankal; the Royal and Commercial, $2,000 on the building and Commercial, unknown; Western and fittering as sum total of $50,000 on the building as sum total of $50,000 on the building as the violation the formiture; Manage as the violation the formiture; army officer, the son of an ex-cohinet minimer, the insphere of mother ex- cohinet minister, and the son of a judge. They are indentured for the regular period, and take the regular appreciation work without fear of the dirt, or favor from the formula; of these wonny as in- the the framits of the Hall Works is widely known, when it is placed in the formula of the Hall Works is widely known, when it is placed.	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given to them of which their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owners never dreamed, would they but use the means within their owner. Remedy" will in all enses produce a satisfratory result: hindreds have testified to the fact. Remember the maney and sees that the bigssture of Hurd: & Go. is on each package. Northrep, A Lyman, New- oastle, Ontario, proprietors for Cambia. Bold by all medicine dealers. With wills: You: SugrasThe "Cambian, Pain Destoyer" instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is desidedly the best medicine know the statistics to doubters. MORESA. Themin' Reserve off Wort: The Jens is Wete model and an Markine Dealers.
Aurora January 1604 Aurora Ja	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boye soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain's no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, 10 "pul- together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to have together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up. Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeinded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking book to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode un I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about far y ac- quisintances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreek he was to be enre, and had every advantage too. An only son and diclized by both father and molhier, but they wished him to do. His mother told him this his father was not and his father told him this may was saily. I well remember how shock- ed I was though but a child, on seeing his mother cone day, when I was at their house, give him some shishey, because he wild he exceed it, only his father was never willing he should have any outer will no some shishey, because he wild he order of and on the father something was wrent. "What's that I asked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supper consult they was never willing he should have any who we will no supper consult they who we may the instate." "Mow rough and a prove support has father who we not to supper any has father and Min. Walking, the atomation to the work her. There have two deas Mr. mod Min. Walking, the atomation the bala more the some they wish the father's bound here work at memore they bould here work any support support." soid his wife. "Bert's got a heatenet."	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a reservant like the goose, nor turk like a root doktep, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float when the feathers are all removed, and their shards out, there is just about as incoh meat on them as there is on a knoch meat on the binnes. Wild duks are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss oun understand the binnes. The about a them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov sport you know. Thate are stup kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hit before, and hope ho one will repeat in this is stuffly confidential! Trozen Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or whenever they happen to be, there is no sport they happen to be, there is no may in thinking that they are practically, or as fast as the temperatures of the stmos- phere they are covered over with strow, or shatever is convenient, so as to exclude light and any, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they a	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bes and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the sits from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Ar. Lauder, in a squewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengery) said that though usual- ly a suporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's unendment, which was lost. Yeas, 31, Nays 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards made, and after a totious debate Mr. McKaliar's resolu- tions were actively theurs a division. Wednesday, 12th March. The douses was eccupied to day on the setting was principally occu- ied with discussions on the Whitby and pure Perry and Creakt Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was eccupied to-day on the settimater's rooms. Finlar , 14th March. A number of Bills were advanced a stopen dother are of the sitting was pure over the estimates. Saturday, 15th March. The House had a short sitting to day the was speat on the sitting to day the sitter was principally cody.	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value or several hours. On the letter was or forget and a Lord Dundreary swell, and a flore Mofflinsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the vell-known motio, "Nemo me in- pute lacestif," printed inlink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the caudit. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man," The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him ! Who can?" They tried him all round—he get rightened and ran. Postmester, just hand him this letter and asy." The their sweet Dr. 7—since he's your away." London Free Press. The Prince Edward Island Lorialistury has been formally dissolved and a new settom will false place-mominations on April, mrits returnable on the 18th of April, The question before the false of a fast the genera-mominations on the Stoh March polling on the 2nd of April. The question before the letter of the the accention before the false of a fast the genera-mominations on the Stoh March polling on the 2nd of April. The question before the letter with the polling on the 18th of April. The question before the letter with the second common before the theory of the the accention the measurements	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was neverely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, sank and died it sloven o clock this foremoon. The Sa- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sc. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurances in the follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building it an- oashire, $10,000 on the building it fur- miture; Dondoa and Mutual, each $6,000 on the building; Queen, $9,000 on the building, surniture and rantal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and Othersis, each $6,000 on the building; matting a sum total of $60,000 on the building, surniture, and rantal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown; Western and Othersis, each $6,000 on the building, matting a sum total of $60,000 on the building and the victims this afternoon. Labors HoronautzThe Calaswa Windicator in its has insue growthe fol- lowing"Among the approximent of the sentent manifier, and the sum of a judge. They are indentared for the regular army officer, the son of an ex-cobinet minimum, the insphere of smother ex- cobinet manifier, and the sum of a judge. They are indentared for the regular period, and take the regular appreciation the forward without fear of the dirt, or favor from the forward. We mention this for two purposes. First, because its hows that the reputation of the Hall Works is widely known, when it is alloci- ud by the friands of these young gen-	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, that would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given by them of which their, owners never dramatic would they but use the means within their vessel. "From one to three packages of
Aurora January 1604 Aurora Ja	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boye soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain's no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, 10 "pul- together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to have together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up. Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeinded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking book to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode un I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about far y ac- quisintances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreek he was to be enre, and had every advantage too. An only son and diclized by both father and molhier, but they wished him to do. His mother told him this his father was not and his father told him this may was saily. I well remember how shock- ed I was though but a child, on seeing his mother cone day, when I was at their house, give him some shishey, because he wild he exceed it, only his father was never willing he should have any outer will no some shishey, because he wild he order of and on the father something was wrent. "What's that I asked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supper consult they was never willing he should have any who we will no supper consult they who we may the instate." "Mow rough and a prove support has father who we not to supper any has father and Min. Walking, the atomation to the work her. There have two deas Mr. mod Min. Walking, the atomation the bala more the some they wish the father's bound here work at memore they bould here work any support support." soid his wife. "Bert's got a heatenet."	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a reservant like the goose, nor turk like a root doktep, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float when the feathers are all removed, and their shards out, there is just about as incoh meat on them as there is on a knoch meat on the binnes. Wild duks are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss oun understand the binnes. The about a them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov sport you know. Thate are stup kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hit before, and hope ho one will repeat in this is stuffly confidential! Trozen Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or whenever they happen to be, there is no sport they happen to be, there is no may in thinking that they are practically, or as fast as the temperatures of the stmos- phere they are covered over with strow, or shatever is convenient, so as to exclude light and any, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they a	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bes and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the sits from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Ar. Lauder, in a squewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengery) said that though usual- ly a suporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's unendment, which was lost. Yeas, 31, Nays 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards made, and after a totious debate Mr. McKaliar's resolu- tions were actively theurs a division. Wednesday, 12th March. The douses was eccupied to day on the setting was principally occu- ied with discussions on the Whitby and pure Perry and Creakt Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was eccupied to-day on the settimater's rooms. Finlar , 14th March. A number of Bills were advanced a stopen dother are of the sitting was pure over the estimates. Saturday, 15th March. The House had a short sitting to day the was speat on the sitting to day the sitter was principally cody.	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value or several hours. On the letter was or forget and a Lord Dundreary swell, and a flore Mofflinsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the vell-known motio, "Nemo me in- pute lacestif," printed inlink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the caudit. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man," The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him ! Who can?" They tried him all round—he get rightened and ran. Postmester, just hand him this letter and asy." The their sweet Dr. 7—since he's your away." London Free Press. The Prince Edward Island Lorialistury has been formally dissolved and a new settom will false place-mominations on April, mrits returnable on the 18th of April, The question before the false of a fast the genera-mominations on the Stoh March polling on the 2nd of April. The question before the letter of the the accention before the false of a fast the genera-mominations on the Stoh March polling on the 2nd of April. The question before the letter with the polling on the 18th of April. The question before the letter with the second common before the theory of the the accention the measurements	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was neverely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, sank and died it sloven o clock this foremoon. The So- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sc. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurances in the follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building it far- mathre, $10,000 on the building it far- onshire, furniture and rantal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown, Western and Otthesis, each $4,000 on sential and fittiness, each $4,000 on sential and fittiness in the tistes gives the fol- broperty. An inquest was opened on the bodies of the victims this afternoon. Labors HoronantzThe Cohaww Windicator in its has insue gives the fol- lowing"Aimong the approximest of the sentimeter, the son of an ex-cohines minimum the foreman. We mention the fall Works are:s. son of a parties army officer, the son of an ex-cohines minimum the foreman. We mention the for two purposes. First, because it shows that the reputation of the Hall Works is widely known, when it is alloci- ed by the friands of these young gen-	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, that would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given by them of which their, owners never dramatic would they but use the means within their vessel. "From one to three packages of
Aurora January 1604 Aurora Ja	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boye soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain's no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, 10 "pul- together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to have together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up. Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeinded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking book to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode un I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about far y ac- quisintances for examples. There was Bert Sawyer. What a wreek he was to be enre, and had every advantage too. An only son and diclized by both father and molhier, but they wished him to do. His mother told him this his father was not and his father told him this may was saily. I well remember how shock- ed I was though but a child, on seeing his mother cone day, when I was at their house, give him some shishey, because he wild he exceed it, only his father was never willing he should have any outer will no some shishey, because he wild he order of and on the father something was wrent. "What's that I asked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supper consult they was never willing he should have any who we will no supper consult they who we may the instate." "Mow rough and a prove support has father who we not to supper any has father and Min. Walking, the atomation to the work her. There have two deas Mr. mod Min. Walking, the atomation the bala more the some they wish the father's bound here work at memore they bould here work any support support." soid his wife. "Bert's got a heatenet."	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a reservant like the goose, nor turk like a root doktep, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float when the feathers are all removed, and their shards out, there is just about as incoh meat on them as there is on a knoch meat on the binnes. Wild duks are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss oun understand the binnes. The about a them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov sport you know. Thate are stup kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hit before, and hope ho one will repeat in this is stuffly confidential! Trozen Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or whenever they happen to be, there is no sport they happen to be, there is no may in thinking that they are practically, or as fast as the temperatures of the stmos- phere they are covered over with strow, or shatever is convenient, so as to exclude light and any, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they a	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bes and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the sits from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Ar. Lauder, in a squewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengery) said that though usual- ly a suporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's unendment, which was lost. Yeas, 31, Nays 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards made, and after a totious debate Mr. McKaliar's resolu- tions were actively theurs a division. Wednesday, 12th March. The douses was eccupied to day on the setting was principally occu- ied with discussions on the Whitby and pure Perry and Creakt Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was eccupied to-day on the settimater's rooms. Finlar , 14th March. A number of Bills were advanced a stopen dother are of the sitting was pure over the estimates. Saturday, 15th March. The House had a short sitting to day the was speat on the sitting to day the sitter was principally cody.	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value or several hours. On the letter was or forget and a Lord Dundreary swell, and a flore Mofflinsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the vell-known motio, "Nemo me in- pute lacestif," printed inlink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the caudit. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man," The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him ! Who can?" They tried him all round—he get rightened and ran. Postmester, just hand him this letter and asy." The their sweet Dr. 7—since he's your away." London Free Press. The Prince Edward Island Lorialistury has been formally dissolved and a new settom will false place-mominations on April, mrits returnable on the 18th of April, The question before the false of a fast the genera-mominations on the Stoh March polling on the 2nd of April. The question before the letter of the the accention before the false of a fast the genera-mominations on the Stoh March polling on the 2nd of April. The question before the letter with the polling on the 18th of April. The question before the letter with the second common before the theory of the the accention the measurements	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was neverely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, sank and died it sloven o clock this foremoon. The So- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sc. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurances in the follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building it far- mathre, $10,000 on the building it far- onshire, furniture and rantal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown, Western and Otthesis, each $4,000 on sential and fittiness, each $4,000 on sential and fittiness in the tistes gives the fol- broperty. An inquest was opened on the bodies of the victims this afternoon. Labors HoronantzThe Cohaww Windicator in its has insue gives the fol- lowing"Aimong the approximest of the sentimeter, the son of an ex-cohines minimum the foreman. We mention the fall Works are:s. son of a parties army officer, the son of an ex-cohines minimum the foreman. We mention the for two purposes. First, because it shows that the reputation of the Hall Works is widely known, when it is alloci- ed by the friands of these young gen-	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, that would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given by them of which their, owners never dramatic would they but use the means within their vessel. "From one to three packages of
Aurora January 1604 Aurora Ja	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boye soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain's no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, 10 "pul- together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to have together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up. Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeinded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking book to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode un I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about far was bet to destruction, as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about farmer might be right, and every advantage too. An only son and didiced by both father and molhier, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father was not and his father told him this may was silly. T well remember how shock- od I was, though but achild, on seeing his mother cone day, what a strek him to do. His mother cone day, what a the father' boung it is father told him this father was never willing he should have any- who seemed to supped contantly that something was wrent. "What's that T asked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supped contantly that. "What's that T asked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supped contantly that something was wrent." "More world an our part heat." More world an our part heat." More world an our part heat."	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a reservant like the goose, nor turk like a root doktep, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float when the feathers are all removed, and their shards out, there is just about as incoh meat on them as there is on a knoch meat on the binnes. Wild duks are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss oun understand the binnes. The about a them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov sport you know. Thate are stup kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hit before, and hope ho one will repeat in this is stuffly confidential! Trozen Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or whenever they happen to be, there is no sport they happen to be, there is no may in thinking that they are practically, or as fast as the temperatures of the stmos- phere they are covered over with strow, or shatever is convenient, so as to exclude light and any, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they a	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bes and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the sits from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Ar. Lauder, in a squewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengery) said that though usual- ly a suporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's unendment, which was lost. Yeas, 31, Nays 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards made, and after a totious debate Mr. McKaliar's resolu- tions were actively theurs a division. Wednesday, 12th March. The douses was eccupied to day on the setting was principally occu- ied with discussions on the Whitby and pure Perry and Creakt Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was eccupied to-day on the settimater's rooms. Finlar , 14th March. A number of Bills were advanced a stopen dother are of the sitting was pure over the estimates. Saturday, 15th March. The House had a short sitting to day the was speat on the sitting to day the sitter was principally cody.	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value or several hours. On the letter was or forget and a Lord Dundreary swell, and a flore Mofflinsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the vell-known motio, "Nemo me in- pute lacestif," printed inlink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the caudit. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man," The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him ! Who can?" They tried him all round—he get rightened and ran. Postmester, just hand him this letter and asy." The their sweet Dr. 7—since he's your away." London Free Press. The Prince Edward Island Lorialistury has been formally dissolved and a new settom will false place-mominations on April, mrits returnable on the 18th of April, The question before the false of a fast the genera-mominations on the Stoh March polling on the 2nd of April. The question before the letter of the the accention before the false of a fast the genera-mominations on the Stoh March polling on the 2nd of April. The question before the letter with the polling on the 18th of April. The question before the letter with the second common before the theory of the the accention the measurements	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was neverely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, sank and died it sloven o clock this foremoon. The So- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sc. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurances in the follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building it far- mathre, $10,000 on the building it far- onshire, furniture and rantal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown, Western and Otthesis, each $4,000 on sential and fittiness, each $4,000 on sential and fittiness in the tistes gives the fol- broperty. An inquest was opened on the bodies of the victims this afternoon. Labors HoronantzThe Cohaww Windicator in its has insue gives the fol- lowing"Aimong the approximest of the sentimeter, the son of an ex-cohines minimum the foreman. We mention the fall Works are:s. son of a parties army officer, the son of an ex-cohines minimum the foreman. We mention the for two purposes. First, because it shows that the reputation of the Hall Works is widely known, when it is alloci- ed by the friands of these young gen-	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, that would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given by them of which their, owners never dramatic would they but use the means within their vessel. "From one to three packages of
Aurora January 1604 Aurora Ja	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boye soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain's no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, 10 "pul- together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to have together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up. Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeinded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking book to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode un I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about far was bet to destruction, as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about farmer might be right, and every advantage too. An only son and didiced by both father and molhier, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father was not and his father told him this may was silly. T well remember how shock- od I was, though but achild, on seeing his mother cone day, what a strek him to do. His mother cone day, what a the father' boung it is father told him this father was never willing he should have any- who seemed to supped contantly that something was wrent. "What's that T asked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supped contantly that. "What's that T asked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supped contantly that something was wrent." "More world an our part heat." More world an our part heat." More world an our part heat."	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a reservant like the goose, nor turk like a root doktep, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float when the feathers are all removed, and their shards out, there is just about as incoh meat on them as there is on a knoch meat on the binnes. Wild duks are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss oun understand the binnes. The about a them all day, and got nothing but a tail feather now and then; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov sport you know. Thate are stup kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hit before, and hope ho one will repeat in this is stuffly confidential! Trozen Apples. If apples freeze in barrels, or heaps, or whenever they happen to be, there is no sport they happen to be, there is no may in thinking that they are practically, or as fast as the temperatures of the stmos- phere they are covered over with strow, or shatever is convenient, so as to exclude light and any, or if they are removed to a dark cellar, where they a	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bes and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the sits from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Ar. Lauder, in a squewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengery) said that though usual- ly a suporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's unendment, which was lost. Yeas, 31, Nays 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards made, and after a totious debate Mr. McKaliar's resolu- tions were actively theurs a division. Wednesday, 12th March. The douses was eccupied to day on the setting was principally occu- ied with discussions on the Whitby and pure Perry and Creakt Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was eccupied to-day on the settimater's rooms. Finlar , 14th March. A number of Bills were advanced a stopen dother are of the sitting was pure over the estimates. Saturday, 15th March. The House had a short sitting to day the was speat on the sitting to day the sitter was principally cody.	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value or several hours. On the letter was or forget and a Lord Dundreary swell, and a flore Mofflinsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the vell-known motio, "Nemo me in- pute lacestif," printed inlink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the caudit. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man," The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him ! Who can?" They tried him all round—he get rightened and ran. Postmester, just hand him this letter and asy." The their sweet Dr. 7—since he's your away." London Free Press. The Prince Edward Island Lorialistury has been formally dissolved and a new settom will false place-mominations on April, mrits returnable on the 18th of April, The question before the false of a fast the genera-mominations on the Stoh March polling on the 2nd of April. The question before the letter of the the accention before the false of a fast the genera-mominations on the Stoh March polling on the 2nd of April. The question before the letter with the polling on the 18th of April. The question before the letter with the second common before the theory of the the accention the measurements	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was neverely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, sank and died it sloven o clock this foremoon. The So- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sc. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurances in the follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building it far- mathre, $10,000 on the building it far- onshire, furniture and rantal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown, Western and Otthesis, each $4,000 on sential and fittiness, each $4,000 on sential and fittiness in the tistes gives the fol- broperty. An inquest was opened on the bodies of the victims this afternoon. Labors HoronantzThe Cohaww Windicator in its has insue gives the fol- lowing"Aimong the approximest of the sentimeter, the son of an ex-cohines minimum the foreman. We mention the fall Works are:s. son of a parties army officer, the son of an ex-cohines minimum the foreman. We mention the for two purposes. First, because it shows that the reputation of the Hall Works is widely known, when it is alloci- ed by the friands of these young gen-	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from almost worth- less, shat would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given by them of which their owners never dramatic would they but use the means within their vessel. "Room one to three packages of
Aurora January 1604 Aurora Ja	knowed I'd back her up, and the Boye soon found which way the sind blew. Children ain's no fools. My advice to you is, he added, nodding sidewise to wards the carriage there I was sitting, though I can's think he, intended any- thing personal in his remarks, 10 "pul- together." If one does happen to make a mistake once in awhile, it's better to have together, and the children will soom know what to expect ; his Johnnie, git up. Kate." Johnnie and Kateomeinded to pull to- gether this time, and the load want for- ward easily. "Thank you sir,' said George lifting his hat and waiking book to the carri- age. "I'll think on your advice. As we rode un I fell to musing. Was that the reason that so many children "went to destruction," as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about far was bet to destruction, as he terméd it, because their parents did not spree in their training ? Perhaps the old farmer might be right. I locked about farmer might be right, and every advantage too. An only son and didiced by both father and molhier, but they wished him to do. His mother told him that his father was not and his father told him this may was silly. T well remember how shock- od I was, though but achild, on seeing his mother cone day, what a strek him to do. His mother cone day, what a the father' boung it is father told him this father was never willing he should have any- who seemed to supped contantly that something was wrent. "What's that T asked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supped contantly that. "What's that T asked Mr. Sawyer, who seemed to supped contantly that something was wrent." "More world an our part heat." More world an our part heat." More world an our part heat."	peakok, or seream like the goose, nor turk like a reservant like the goose, nor turk like a root dektep, and their bill re- sembles a veterinary surgeon's. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float on the water as matral as a coap bubble. They have a worsen fut, and kan float when the feathers are all removed, and their shards out, there is just about as include instant on them as there is on a knock niecked squash that has gono to a seed. Wild duke are very good shooting, and are very good to miss also, unloss you understand the binnes. "You should aim about three fut ahead ov them, and lot them fly up to the shot. I have shot at them all day, and got nothing buts tail feather now and then; but this satisfied us, for I am crazy for all kind ov sport you knew. "That's are stup kind ov ducks that are very hard tew kill, even if you do hit them. I shot one whole afternoon, three years ago, it sum decay ducks, and never got one ov them. They nevee told ove this befort, and hope ho case to a some the thinking that they are practically, or as fast as the temperatures of the stmos- phere they happen to be, there is no make in thinking that they are practically, or as fast as the temperatures of the stmos- phere they happen to be, there is no make in thinking that they are practically runned. If allowed to them rapidly, or as fast as the temperatures of the stmos- phere they are is covered over with straw, or shatever is covered over	a fool to buy such a farm. Mr. Boult- bes and Mr. Paterson spoke in favor of Mr. Cameron'samendment. The latters aid that the government were doing wrong in removing the sits from Mimico, and he would have to oppose them in the question, much as he regretted doing so. Mr. Gifford said that there was not suf- ficient testimony adduced to show that the college should be removed to Guelph Ar. Lauder, in a squewhat lengthy speech tharged the government with do- ing a great mjustice in the matter. Mr. Graig (Glengery) said that though usual- ly a suporter of the administration, he would on this occasion have to vote against them. Mr. Rykert spoke against the proposition of the govern- ment. Measus Descon and Coyne, fol- lowed in asimilar strain, after which a division was taken on Mr. Cameron's unendment, which was lost. Yeas, 31, Nays 40. A number of buncombe mo- tions were afterwards made, and after a totious debate Mr. McKaliar's resolu- tions were actively theurs a division. Wednesday, 12th March. The douses was eccupied to day on the setting was principally occu- ied with discussions on the Whitby and pure Perry and Creakt Valley Railway Bills. Thursday, 13th March. The House was eccupied to-day on the settimater's rooms. Finlar , 14th March. A number of Bills were advanced a stopen dother are of the sitting was pure over the estimates. Saturday, 15th March. The House had a short sitting to day the was speat on the sitting to day the sitter was principally cody.	A Novel ADDRESS, -A letter was posted in this eity yesterday afternoon destined for Stratford, thefhisroglyphics only to have caused the originator con- siderable labor, but engaged his atten- tion for several hours. On the letter hand corner a man with a carpet bag in hand was drawn, theinitials on the value or several hours. On the letter was or forget and a Lord Dundreary swell, and a flore Mofflinsty, both attired in the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the latest fashions. In the contro of the envelope, immediately above the ad- dress, a Sociel, thirdle, was drawn, with the vell-known motio, "Nemo me in- pute lacestif," printed inlink, encircling it. Is is doubtful whether the game as worth the caudit. The address read as follows : "At Stratford, Out., there lives a young man," The Morpeth girls loved, him-but catch him ! Who can?" They tried him all round—he get rightened and ran. Postmester, just hand him this letter and asy." The their sweet Dr. 7—since he's your away." London Free Press. The Prince Edward Island Lorialistury has been formally dissolved and a new settom will fate place-mominations on April, mrits returnable on the 18th of April, The question before the fath of April, The question before the fath of April. The question before the fath of April. The question before the discor- net be accepting on the 2016 of April. The question before the left of april to the accepting on the 2016 of April. The question before the fath of April. The question before the left of april be the accepting on the 2016 of April. The question before the left of april be the accepting on the 2016 of April. The question before the left of april be the accepting on the 2016 of April the the more the fath of April the the more the fath of April the the accepting on the 2016 of April the the accepting on the 2016 of April the the more the fath of April the the second the fath of April the the second the fath of April the the second the	Mr. Harry Belcher, a commercial traveller for Messra. Nield & Coi, Le- moius street, a naive of Southampton, Ont., was neverely burned, and lies in the General Hospital in a preokrious condition. It is believed his back is broken. Samuel George Hilditch, in the employ of Messra. Evans, Mercer & Co., of this city, who leaped from one of the windows, gradually, sank and died it sloven o clock this foremoon. The So- James' Hotel is owned by Alfred Pinson- meault and is leased by Mr. T. Gerkin, proprietor of the St. Lawrence Hall. The building, with the furniture, sc. is valued at over $75,000. The losses are computed to amount to $20,000, and are ully covered by insurances in the follow- ing companiesNorth British and Mercantile, $5,000 on the building it far- mathre, $10,000 on the building it far- onshire, furniture and rantal; the Royal and Commercial, unknown, Western and Otthesis, each $4,000 on sential and fittiness, each $4,000 on sential and fittiness in the tistes gives the fol- broperty. An inquest was opened on the bodies of the victims this afternoon. Labors HoronantzThe Cohaww Windicator in its has insue gives the fol- lowing"Aimong the approximest of the sentimeter, the son of an ex-cohines minimum the foreman. We mention the fall Works are:s. son of a parties army officer, the son of an ex-cohines minimum the foreman. We mention the for two purposes. First, because it shows that the reputation of the Hall Works is widely known, when it is alloci- ed by the friands of these young gen-	Poor HorsesThere are thousands of poor horses dragging out a miserable existence, suffering from a variety of diseases, rendering them almost worth- less, that would be restored to a healthy and sound condition, and a value given by them of which their, owners never dramatic would they but use the means within their vessel. "From one to three packages of

