

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Latest Intelligence from all Parts.

Whom you know more as obdurate! however, he did con-

A farmer named James Davis, who is a resident of Mornington, appeared before the P. M. on Thursday, last week, charged with beating his wife.

Word was received last week of the death of Mrs. Maria F. Montgomery, of St. Joseph, Mo.

A manufacturer in Philadelphia has lately to a friend the story of one of his superintendents.

"Twelve years ago a boy applied to me for work. He was employed at low wages."

"What is the matter?" some one asked. "We have taken a medal for sheeting."

"I said nothing but kept my eye on Bob. The boy who could identify himself in two days with my interests would be of use to me hereafter."

"His work was to deliver packages. I found that he took real pride in it. His wagon must be cleaner, his horse better fed, his orders filled more promptly than those of the men belonging to any other firm."

"Never buy a draught horse," says the Farmer's Guide, "which needs the whip to make him pull."

"I tried every known remedy I could think of for rheumatism, without getting any relief, until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, which remedied I can highly recommend to all afflicted as I was."

A CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.

Successful Treatment in North Carolina Described by a Breakwater.

A correspondent of the Brooklyn Eagle says:—As diphtheria is prevalent on Long Island and all sorts of cures, including the mopping and caustic process, are offered by well meaning persons, it may not be out of place for me to state what an old lady did to prevent me from dying after the doctor gave me up, and I could not swallow water for the space of three days.

Interesting Paragraphs Relating to Christ.

A CURE FOR NARROWNESS.—The beginning of spiritual life lies in the personal knowledge of God. That is the first stage. But it ought to be followed by the second, which is like unto it—namely, personal recognition of the Kingdom of God and identification with it.

Canada's Extraordinary Growth

The wonderful way in which Canada is growing is shown by the postal returns. The letters and postal cards delivered in Canada numbered 53,600,000 in 1880 and 90,650,000 in 1887; there were 2,040,000 registered letters in 1880 and 3,660,000 in 1887; in 1880 there were issued 306,068 postal money orders amounting to $10,328,984; in 1880 the amount of money orders issued in other countries payable in Canada, was $698,651 and in 1887 it was $1,594,674; newspapers and periodicals posted in Canada numbered 45,120,062 in 1880, and 64,246,326 in 1887; the deposits in connection with the post office, amounted to $9,207,083 on July 1, 1880, and to $37,173,813 on July 1, 1887. The figures for 1888 have not yet been made public by the Government, and it is believed that there was a very great increase during the past year.

A Severe Attack

Miss Bella Elliot, of Pontypool, Ont., writes:—"My brother and I were both taken ill with a severe attack of diphtheria, having tried other remedies, we tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which gave immediate relief."

An Unfortunate Family

Mary Ann Albert, a domestic in the employ of J. V. Adams, 74 Degrass street, Toronto, met with a peculiar death on Saturday morning. She attended to the morning duties of the household, but was not seen around the house after 8 o'clock. As soon as she was missed Mr and Mrs Adams searched for her, with the result that the body of the unfortunate girl was found in the feeding bin in the stable. It is thought that Miss Albert had gone into the hayloft to feed the pony, as she sometimes did in the absence of Mr Adams, and while in the act of forcing the hay down the feeding box had fallen over and had suffocated before assistance came.
