

The SECTARIAN APPEAL.

Mr. Andrew Broaders, Roman Catholic Vice-President of the F.P.U., Deals With the Sectarian Cry of the People's Party.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—Please insert in your valuable paper a statement from me regarding the recent political contest. I have to-day received a copy of the Fishermen's Advocate, and I must indeed state that I am shocked at the aspersion used by some of the Morris Party in their respective districts. The political contest is ended and the Morris Party have won, but by what atrocious methods.

Why, I say, have these men assailed Mr. Coaker in such a disgraceful manner? Did these men ever take it into consideration that W. F. Coaker represented seventeen thousand (17,000) men as President of the Fishermen's Union, and that this mighty organization was also represented by a Vice-President who is ready at a moment's notice to come forward and vindicate W. F. Coaker of such heinous and malicious assertions. Had I contemplated for a moment that these men should have recourse to such cowardly attacks on an innocent man, and raised their sectarian cry so bitterly, I would have visited these Catholic districts myself and proved to the electors the sincerity of W. F. Coaker to uplift the down-trodden toilers of his native land. I myself am a Roman Catholic, and you men that made such assertions that the Rules and Constitution of the Fishermen's Union embrace any clause whatever contrary to the rules of the Catholic Church, I throw it back in your throats as a deliberate lie. If the readers of this article doubt my integrity in any way, they can apply to our respected clergyman the Roman Catholic Priest of Bay-de-Verde, and no doubt they will receive my recommendation. Had not these eliminators made these statements on the eve of election, I would have some opportunity to refute them. But let them be assured that they stand before their country to-day stigmatized, first by influencing the electorate by their false and malicious statements; and secondly by defaming the character of an innocent man. I therefore state to these maligners, the Government papers, also to these seducers that made use of such vile statements from public platforms, that I will stand side by side with W. F. Coaker and do all in my power to assist him in the good work he is performing, and moreover let the readers of this article be assured that as I value my honor, my name, and my character, nothing either political or otherwise exist in our Union regarding any denomination whatever. Why should these men strike such a cowardly blow right on the eve of election? Never in our country's history was such nefarious methods made manifest. Shame on you men that profess to be honorable and I warn you that a day of reckoning will come.

Right will prevail. The Fishermen's Union is not composed of anarchists and bandits, as you and your vile press have stated. In acting as Vice-President of the Fishermen's Union, I represent the Roman Catholic body with the approbation of His Grace the Archbishop of St. John's. If the vile slanderers that made such statements as these referred to in the Fishermen's Advocate, have any respect for themselves or their denomination, let them make amends as soon as possible. Again I warn them that they have placed a stigma upon my character as well as W. F. Coaker's, and if opportunity afforded I would meet them on a public platform and convince them that nothing pertaining to anarchism prevails in our Union.

With thanks for space,
I am,
Yours respectfully,
ANDREW BROADERS,
Vice-Pres. F. P. U.
Bay-de-Verde, Nov. 6, 1913.

Another Postal Arrest.

EVENTS CLUB MEETING.—The Current Events Club held its first meeting for the season on Saturday afternoon. There was a large attendance, including the President Mrs. (Governor) Davidson. Mrs. Gosling read an interesting paper in relation to the education of females in the 19th century.

Should be Careful.

Teamsters and horse owners generally should exercise more care when driving through archways from mercantile wharves. This forenoon a young lady passing up Water Street, near Bowring Bros. stores, was knocked down by a horse that came through the archway; she fell under the wheel of the car but with the assistance of two citizens she managed to get clear unscathed.

The S. S. Portia left Channel at 1 p.m. yesterday, coming east.
The S. S. Prospero left Westport at 3 p.m. yesterday going north.

STORING CARGO.—The cargo of the damaged steamer Manchester Commerce, which is going into dry dock for repairs, is being stored on the S.S. Bellaventure and S.S. Bonaventure.

Congregational Church.

The evening service yesterday at this church was intensely interesting. It was Temperance Sunday in all the churches, and whilst the topic for the morning service at Queen's Road Church was that of Temperance generally, the evening service was doubly interesting on account of it being also the anniversary service of St. John's Band of Hope. This Society of youthful temperance workers was organized some five years ago by Rev. J. Thackeray, late pastor of the Congregational Church, and has been productive of good results amongst the children of the various denominations. It is now conducted by Rev. W. H. Thomas, as hon. president, and meets every Friday evening at 7.15 in the Congregational Lecture Hall—a cordial welcome being extended to all temperance workers interested in the moral and social life of the young and rising generation. At last night's service the boys and girls of the Band—about 100—occupied the side pews to the right and left of the pulpit, and quite a number of the parents, representing the different denominations, were present thus expressing their sympathy with the movement. After the Offertory, Rev. W. H. Thomas announced as a contribution to a Thanksgiving Service, Maunders' Anthem:—"While the Earth Remaineth," which was beautifully rendered as a quartette by Miss Grace Colton (soprano), Mrs. W. H. Thomas (Rev.) (contralto), Mr. S. R. Steele (tenor) and Rev. W. H. Thomas (bass). The sermon which was most impressive, was based on the words of Nehemiah, ch. chap. and 14th verse:—"Fight for your brethren, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses." In the course of his remarks the rev. gentleman commented very favourably on our temperance legislation here, generally, as compared with that of the Mother Country, but condemned very strongly the treating system in vogue here, incidentally citing this as a matter calling for legislative action in the future. During the service the Band of Hope children sang very pleasingly their Anniversary Hymn, the youthful voices blending nicely together, particularly in the second verse, viz.:—"Tis Drink that blights our English Homes, And makes our mothers sad; 'Tis Drink that fills our prison cells, 'Tis Drink that drives men mad, Then haste the day when Britain shall From every stain be free. When every voice shall sing and say No Drink, No Drink, for me."

TRY TO RECOVER.—An attempt will be made to try and recover the engine of the ferry boat which was lost in the harbour last week.

AT THE R. C. CATHEDRAL.—Rev. Fr. McDermott preached a powerful sermon at the R. C. Cathedral last evening, which was listened to by a large congregation.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Mr. Thomas Morris and family desire to thank the nurses of the General Hospital for their kindness to his sister during her illness; also, Miss Southcott, Sisters Bowden and Powell for wreaths to adorn the casket—advtd.

LEFT AGAIN.—The American vessel W. C. McKay, Capt. Dean, which rescued the crew of the Maggie Bell, which was abandoned forty miles off this port, as referred to in Saturday's Telegram, sailed on Saturday night with a cargo of fish for Gibraltar.

Collection at Holy Cross Schools.

The meeting in the Holy Cross Schools, after last Mass at St. Patrick's yesterday, was largely attended. Rev. Bro. Kennedy occupied the chair and outlined the object for which the meeting was convened, and showed the necessity of the proposed annex, the present rooms having only seating accommodation for about two-thirds of the scholars. He also stated that when the building is extended, the teaching staff will be increased, by two additional Brothers from the Mother House. This information was received with great applause. After the introductory remarks of the Chairman, Mr. F. J. Morris, K.C. moved that a subscription list be opened, which was seconded by Mr. T. J. Foran. Messrs. J. M. Kent, J. J. Lacey and T. Jackson also supported the motion, speaking in very eulogistic terms of the grand work that has been done by the Christian Brothers for the boys of St. John's and the plans that are in contemplation for their advancement. A subscription list was then opened, and the magnificent sum of nearly fifteen hundred dollars was realized. Several of the Brothers of Mt. St. Francis were present during the meeting, and at the close Rev. Bro. Ryan the superior, heartily thanked those present for the generous and substantial response that had been made to their first appeal.

Have Income of $1,000 a Day.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—Each of the heirs of the estate of Adolphus Busch, who, according to the will filed here late yesterday are to have shares of the trust into which the estate is to be formed, will have an annual income of $375,000 a share, or more than $1,000 a day.

The son, August A. Busch, who succeeded his father in the management of the vast properties, is to have two shares of the trust and his income consequently will be $750,000 a year, minus the provision he is required to make for his invalid brother, Carl.

These figures were made known today by a high officer of the Busch Corporations. According to this officer, the income of the estate is estimated at $3,000,000 which is a six per cent. return on a valuation of $50,000,000. The heirs are the widow and the seven children.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—While working on the St. Stephen, on Saturday afternoon, Joseph Kennedy tripped in a rope and fell heavily on the deck, breaking his left arm near the elbow. He was brought to the General Hospital for treatment.
