

BRIGADIER WOUNDED. LONDON, To-day. Brigadier-General Holman, of the Sixteenth Cavalry Indian Army, is reported wounded in the battle

NORWEGIAN SUNK. LONDON, To-day. The Norwegian steamship Nico was sunk; eleven survivors, including the pilot, have been landed. The Nico was 712 tons gross and built in Chrisiania in 1913.

MISERY AMONG POOR IN BERLIN. LONDON, To-day. Telegraphing from Amsterdam, the respondent of Reuter's Telegram ompany says: Life in the poorer uarters of the German capital is de-cribed pitiful by a German-born wife f an English laborer residing in Bern, who after sixteen months intern-nent has arrived at Flushing, Holland, on the way to England, accord-ing to a correspondent of the Amsteram Telegraaf. The German authoriies, the Telegraaf correspondent notes the woman as saying, are in reat fear of revolt owing to the great iscontent of the people. Several riots occurred in which shops were plundered. Mounted police charged the crowds which were composed mainly of women. The misery among working classes is considerable and is increasing daily. The woman's story is somewhat confirmed, says a Reuter despatch, by a letter from the Berlin correspondent of the Handels blad, who declares the shops literally were stormed by large crowds who were after their daily allowance of outter, which was only about a quarter of a pound per family. The pro vision shops are guarded by the po lice to prevent disturbances. DESPATCH OF AMERICAN NOTE.

WASHINGTON, To-day. The American note to Austria-Hun gary, regarding the sinking of the It lian steamship Ancona, is under tood to have been cabled last night to Ambassador Penfield for presenta tion to the Vienna Foreign Office Secretary of State Lansing and other officials of the State Department de lined to divulge any information conerning the communication. From oter reliable sources, however, cam strong intimation that the final lraft of the note had been completed by the Secretary of State Lansing during the day and had been put in code and started on its way over the cables.

GAS ATTACKS FAIL. LONDON, To-day. (Official) .- Last night and early vesterday morning the enemy dis-charged gas against our line north ast of Ypres, accompanied by a heavy If not, will you ask your Grocer for some? You abardment. Except at few places will be charmed with its delightful flavor. If you are ere they were driven back before eaching our lines they were preventalready using "BLOSSOM", will you please tell your ed from leaving their trenches by our fire. Our protective measure against gas proved effective. Our lines everyfriends how good it is? gas proved effective. Out mice or artillery where are intact. Except for artillery activity on both sides, there has been no further development during the day. Hostile artillery is unusually active East of Ypres and also against British Grown and Packed. our trenches West and South of Mes-5 pound tins. 10 pound tins. 1 pound tins. sines. The enemy blew up two mines front of our trenches east of Arentieres and infantry which attempted to occupy craters were driven off by our rifle fire. On the rest of the front there is nothing important to recouptry is muddier and altogether in these operations by Turkish forces An enemy aeroplane was worse than last year. Activity on the brought down by ours to-day east of Gallipoli Peninsula, and small Italian Armentieres gains are the only important military operations reported to-day. Germany as soon as the Entente Allies are de-FRENCH TAKES LEAVE OF POINas lost the small cruiser Breman and a torpedo boat in the Baltic Sea ther Greece will permit the Turks to PARIS. To-day. hrough submarine attacks. It is pre- enter her territory after refusing to Field Marshal French arrived sumed the submarine was one of the have the Bulgarians. Paris last evening from the front, he will be received this afternoon by British undersea squadron, which recently has shown enterprises in these BRIGADIERS WOUNDED. waters. The Turks claim to have sunk a British monitor in the Tigras resident Poincare. BRITISH SUNK THE BREMEN. River. Henry Ford's peace party ar-rived at Christiania yesterday morn-LONDON. To-day. The Daily Mail's Copenhagen cor-respondent, says: He learns that the torpedoing of the German cruiser Bre-1.30 P.M. Dardanelles. nen and German torpedo boat occur red on Friday night close to Libau, while the Bremen was returning with GOVERNMENT SUSTAINED. lights out from an inspection of the entrance of the Finnish Gulf. The correspondent adds the attack was TOKIO, To-Day. A vote of want of confidence in the fovernment was defeated in the House nade by two British submarines. of Representatives by 222 to 132: LONDON BUDGET. BROKE TURKISH LINES. LONDON, To-day. During the relaxation of all offen-sive campaigns except the Italian pressure on the Austrians, which fol-LONDON, To-Day. According to Constantinople y the flying fragments. spatches received by way of Amster owed the expulsion of the Serb army am by the Reuter's Telegram Comrom its own country, European in pany, two British monitors have mad terest is focused upon the possibilities of some new, but as yet undeveloped a successful attempt to break the Turkish lines besieging Rutchalamara upheaval. It appears to be taken for granted on all sides that the policy of Mesopotamia he Central Powers will be to attempt to gain a decision somewhere, while JOUNARIS' MAJORITY. LONDON, To-Day. heir opponents will prefer to devote The returns from the Parliamentary lection held in Greece on Sunday give the winter to preparations for war are in the spring. There is much dis-cussion in Britian of reported Turko he party of M. Jounaris; Minister of German attempts upon the Suez Canal. Messages received from neutral counthe Interior, a great majority, According to the Athens correspondent of the Matin, he says he learns from a reliians for military purposes tries, professing to have German sources of information, describing the able source that a complete agree-ment has been reached by the Army Staffs as to the applications of measerman Field-Marshal von Der Goltz Here and There. as equipping at Aleppo an army for the invasion of Egypt. The same cor-respondent asserts the Germans are collecting extensive droves of camels and donkeys for their transport. The ures requested by the latter for the security of the Entente troops and freedom of their movements. GERMANS CONCENTRATING FORCES. najority of English writers who know Egypt declare such a project to be hopeless. The observer considers a German attempt to invade England as a desperate gamble. There are possiring, respectively. hopeless. The observer considers a a desperate gamble. There are possi-bilities that the extensive movement of troops in Belgium may mean prepara-tions for embarking at Zeebrugge and in the Scheldt River. Officers re-turning from the Western front ex-press the belief that fighting there on a big scale is impossible, because the

