CURRIE & BARTLETT FOR BUKIN.

Great Enthusiasm at Grand Bank—The Government Candidates Hold Splendid Meeting Tuesday Night—What Aaron Buffett Says of Premier Cashin.

Special Evening Telegram.

GRAND BANK, To-Day.

Messrs. Currie and Bartlett, Government candidates, arrived here yesterday by motor boat and held a meeting here last night in the Orange Hall. The meeting opened at 8 o'clock. A large audience was present. Aaron Buffett, Esq., was chairman, and in a few well chosen remarks introduced the speakers of the evening, Messrs. Currie and Bartlett. Mr. Bartlett is of a commanding appearance and a good speaker, and last night in presenting the Government's policy made an admirable speech for his side of the issue before the country. Mr. Buffett, in introducing Hon. John Currie, made a clear, unvarnished statement that when the Coalition Government under Sir W. Lloyd refused the granting of a vote in the estimates for Grand Bank, the Board was convened and instructed Mr. Aaron Buffett to wire the Finance Minister, Sir Michael Cashin, in St. John's for a definite answer to their demands. He wired immediately that $50,000.00 would this year be voted for the purpose. It was done and the construction is going ahead, and Mr. Buffett declared he was witness that Sir M. P. Cashin was the man we had to thank for the same. Mr. Currie took the floor and in a well delivered, thoughtful address, explained the Government's policy. He dealt with education, better pay for teachers, the coastal service and the Bowring transfer and the negotiations under way for new steamships—one port and one for this coast. Roads were dealt with also. The cause of different delays in many directions was due to the great world wide war. The meeting closed orderly with the singing of the National Anthem. They leave to-day for Fortune and will return here a week hence. Messrs. Currie and Bartlett will get a splendid vote in Grand Bank.

LITTLE BAY ISLANDS, Oct. 15.

Third week of our canvass opened at Jackson's Cove, Monday night. Same reception as everywhere. Mr. Randolph Newhook, chairman. On Tuesday at King's Point with Mr. John Gillard in the chair. We held what is said to be the finest meeting ever held there. Coaker's circular roundly condemned, and many cannot believe it, and say if true they will show their feelings on election day. Am now doubly convinced Coaker does not know the ethics of politics, as his circular is a great canvass for us. We are driving night and day towards the south end of the district. Moore says cheerio.

MORINE, WINSOR & FORBES GET GREAT RECEPTION AT ST. BRENDAN'S.

(Special to Evening Telegram.)

ST. BRENDAN'S, via Salvage, Oct. 15.

The most enthusiastic meeting ever held at St. Brendan's listened to Morine, Winsor and Forbes. Tuesday night. The hall was crowded, and order and applause were equally remarkable. Not a dissenting note was heard. The speeches were able and much appreciated by the audience. A considerable number of people from surrounding places hearing the display of burning, came to the meeting and joined in the applause. This section bias fair to give the Government more than its old-time support. Reports circulated by the Opposition candidates as to their reception, turned out to be wholly untrue. Their meeting here Friday night was poorly attended. Speeches were confined to personal abuse, which took badly with the audience.

JOSEPH LANE, WILLIAM HYNES.

[Ed. Note.—St. Brendan's is the place where it was reported Morine and colleagues were not allowed to land when they were not anywhere near the place. Now they reach the place, and not only land, but get a great reception. This shows what reliance can be placed in anything the Opposition papers say.]

THE WINNING CANDIDATES FOR TRINITY BAY CAPTIVATE VOTERS OF WHITBOURNE.

(Special to Evening Telegram.)

WHITBOURNE, Oct. 15.

The three winning candidates for Trinity District, Messrs. Stone, Carnell and Matthews, arrived here at 6.30 p.m. this evening and held a meeting in the Orange Hall shortly afterwards. Every voter in Whitbourne was in attendance. Carnell was the first to be introduced and spoke for seventy minutes explaining fully the aims of the Cashin Government, also what the country will be up against should Bolsherviki Coaker once get the reins of power in his grasp. He was splendid all through, and was listened to with the utmost silence, barring frequent cheering. Matthews came next with a brilliant broadside against the Squires-Coaker Liberal Reform Party, referring to Coaker's attitude towards the Army and Navy in 1914, especially the latter. Coaker can never hope to obtain a vote from any Reservist or soldier in Trinity District once Matthews has shown up Coaker's yellow streak. Stone was then introduced to the assembly, and for almost two hours he thrilled his hearers with a speech which was certainly a masterpiece. Would that Coaker or Squires were here to listen to it. There would be no opposition to Cashin on Nov. 3rd from either of these "reformers." Stone explained fully why Coaker styled him traitor, but the people of the town know after to-night that instead of traitor he is the whitest and straightest man that ever solicited a vote in Trinity Bay, and it is a full vote sure for the Liberal-Progressive candidates on Nov. 3rd. We hear nothing of the slacker trio coming this way, but suggest they keep on going and give Whitbourne a wide berth, as they are certainly not wanted here. The meeting, the finest of its kind ever held here, closed at midnight with the singing of the National Anthem and cheers for Stone, Carnell and Matthews. Cashin will come back.

PLACENTIA & ST. MARYS SAYS CASHIN WILL COME BACK.

Liberal Progressive Candidates Successful Canvass.

Special Evening Telegram.

ARGENTIA, Oct. 15.

The Liberal Progressive candidates, Walsh, Sullivan and Sinnott, held meeting here last night. The large hall was packed with men from outlying settlements and it is the unanimous opinion that it was the best meeting ever held in Argentia. The candidates are quite jubilant and feel confident that they are going to poll the biggest vote in this district. Meetings held at Pt. Verde, Dunville and Placentia. This bay has fallen in line for Cashin and if it were possible is extending to Walsh, Sullivan and Sinnott even a more hearty and enthusiastic welcome than Trepassy and St. Mary's Bay. Placentia Bay has decided that as the three Liberal Progressive candidates are natives of the district they are the men they want and they assure Trepassy and St. Mary's Bay that Placentia Bay wants no other and the people here feel confident that Trepassy and St. Mary's will help to roll up for Walsh, Sullivan and Sinnott a record vote. Slogan still continues in this district that Cashin is coming back.

The "Night Raiders."

The politics are getting hot And hotter every day; And many interesting things I hear along the way.

At daytime when I take a stroll Along our village street, Full many a costly motor car My thirsty eye does meet.

The other night while out to hear What rumor had to say, I heard a gallant motor car Come hooting o'er the way.

Myself she passed, a glance I cast And next "O brave word," "Vote for Squires" was in the tires? My strained auricle heard?

While pondering o'er this happening Another auto passed, And "sakes alive" from out her hull A "Daily Star" was cast!

Is this called Liberal Reform (?) I ask in all good faith; But by the way DEAR MR. SQUIRES Your Manifesto's empty prate!

"St. Elmo."

STAGED AT CASHIN LAST NIGHT.

The story of "St. Elmo," as written by Augusta J. Evans, has been for two generations one of the most widely read of American novels. It is one of the few American novels of a generation ago that has stood the test of time and still retained its popularity. For this reason the dramatization of St. Elmo is of unusual interest. It is a good, old-fashioned drama, with strong situations, stirring climaxes, tense moments of heart-thrilling suspense, romantic love passages, little snatches of bright comedy here and there, all cleverly intermingled by a master hand into a play of absorbing interest. The following is the cast of characters: Aaron Hunt, a blacksmith, Mr. Fred Sharkey; Van Jiggins, an inventor, Mr. Burton Mallory; Edna Earl, an orphan, Miss Gladys Klark; Allen Hammond, a clergyman, Mr. Arthur Hebert; Murray Hammond, his son, Mr. G. McManus; Agnes Hammond, his wife, Miss Edythe Bryan; St. Elmo Murray, Mr. J. Edmund Balfour; Dr. Harding, friend of the family, Mr. G. McManus; Gordon Leigh, a man of the world, Mr. Boyd Hallaway; Gertrude, Agnes' sister, Miss Annalee White.

Obituary.

It was with feelings of the deepest regret that we noted a few days ago the demise of Mr. E. Morris, after a long and trying illness of some months. The deceased was a native of Trinity where he spent the days of his boyhood. He was one of the first to join the Royal Naval Reserve in this country. He served with the Reid Nfld Company for fourteen years, and since then has held the responsible position of caretaker of the Masonic Temple in this city, where he passed to his rest. Interment took place in the Anglican cemetery. The casket containing the remains, draped with the Union Jack, and covered with flowers, was followed to its resting place by a large number of friends, members of the Masonic Fraternity, and a guard of honor from H.M.S. Briton. To the sorrowing wife and children, brother and sisters, we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

The Majestic.

Renee is mistaken by a Native Prince who thinks she is the reincarnated spirit of the Queen of Sheba, and tries to capture her. She escapes, but is shot accidentally by Lerier, who nurses her back to health and takes her back to Paris. He soon tires of her and turns to his former love, Almee. Renee, in a rage destroys a valuable curio and then goes to Abyssinia to get another one. Lerier goes back to the spot where he met Renee and is captured by the frantic Prince, who prepares to sacrifice to the spirit of the Queen. Renee appears and saves him. The natives mistake her for the Queen and flee in terror. You have only two days to see how "A Wild Woman tamed Parisian Social Lions" at the Majestic. Mr. Ruggles will sing at the Majestic to-night.

DR. H. M. V.

And Those Like

Mr. Squires, in his speech at Casino Theatre last Friday night, fact that Sir Michael Cashin had ordered for some liquor from the U.S. Mr. Squires denounced it most papers have been sounding the alarm himself despatched on this subject meeting at the Ropewalk on Tue

It has been pictured to the country as a terrible offence for Sir Michael Cashin to give a script, because he is not a doctor; but this raises the question whether doctors who are not in regular practice should avail of the opportunity afforded them by the Act, to issue scripts, either.

We raise this question because we have documentary evidence in our possession, and will show it to any person who cares to call on us, that Dr. Mosdell has been issuing scripts within the past three months. One of these is a script for 24 ozs. of spirits issued to a prominent young business man of Water Street on August 10th, and another is a script for 24 ozs. issued to Mr. J. T. Meaney, an August 14th, and we understand that this practice of giving out scripts is fairly continuous on the part of Dr. Mosdell.

Dr. Mosdell is not, we understand, the family physician of this young business man, and while he is probably strictly within his rights as a medical man in issuing this script, the question arises whether it was a proper thing for him to do, in view of all the surrounding circumstances. In the script as issued, there is no prescription as to any dose to be taken by the recipient. All that appears on the face of the script is "24 ounces spirits for medicinal use and not as beverage." This script is marked "Special" by which we understand that the recipient is to have a large bottle, only given in pneumonia cases.

Mr. J. T. Meaney, who received the
