Highlanders' Ladies' Association.

ME OF WORK AND CONCERT.
The Sale of Work and Concert held at the Newfoundland Highlanders' Association in the Presbyterian Hall yesterday afternoon and night proved an unqualified success. A large sum was realized as a result of the effort. The Sale was held in the afternoon by Lt.-Col. Ferguson, who welcomed all. He paid well-deserved tribute to the ladies who were doing and the assistance they were giving to the cause. He announced that the Highlanders were joining with the Rhododendrons to build an Army which would contain a joint hall and recreation room with a large and distinct company room. A Brigade to preserve its own individuality. To build this hall, rough-estimated would be required and the help of the ladies was necessary to raise this amount. He then declared the Sale open and from that on the holders were kept busy. Candy tables, plain and fancy work tables, table stalls, a children's stall, a silver stall and a stall all played a splendid selection which had ready purchasers. Afternoon tea was served and this helped considerably to augment the funds. A short concert was held. Mr. R. J. Power acted as chairman, which the following was the programme: Piano duet, Miss Oates and Lee; song, Miss Langmead; duet, Miss Jardine; violin solo, Mrs. Dunlop; dance, Miss Doris Mew; song, A. Lawrence. The concert was thoroughly enjoyed, the performers giving up to their best form. Following the concert, light refreshments were sold and the goods remaining in stalls were auctioned. The donations of the hall was highly commended upon and the Ladies' Association have every reason to be proud of the result of their endeavors.
