Manuel's Enquiry. BEFORE JUDGE MORRIS. JAMES J. McKAY, (Sworn)—I an member of the firm of Campbell & McKay, and our office is on Water Street. I know that on August 19th Mr. F. L. Southgate and Mr. Thom as Anderson were drowned by the of Conception Bay. I first heard about the accident about 10.15 or 10.30 or the night of August 19th. Rev. Mr Facey telephoned me from Manuels about that time, and told me what had happened and informed me also thing of it up to that time and asked Facey that I would go out right away and I then got in touch with the Inspector General by telephone and asked him what news he had of the t about seven o'clock, that a motor boat had gone out from Bell Island but had not got back at that time, and he also informed me that he had not been able to get in touch with any steamer. He also informed me that he heard there were three motor poats at Kelligrews but the men had nels. He also told me he would tele- some instructions to the captain of tirely different from me refusing to graph me at Kelligrews if he heard the Pawnee to that effect. On pro- go out.
