Promptly at halfpast seven the gathering sat down to a hot dinner, which was served by Miss Hattie Wills and her very capable assistants. "Black and Amber," the Club colors, predominated in the decorations. Amongst the guests present were Rev. E. A. and Mrs. Earp, Rev. G. B. Lightbourn, Miss Dorothy Lightbourn, Hon, R. Watson, Councillor Dowden and Mr. G. Cook, the Rector being the chairman for the evening. After dinner the following

E. Knight. In the speeches which were made, great tribute was paid to the former Director, Rev. (Capt.) Clayton. The welcome of the club to Rev. Lightbourn and Miss Lightbourn, was very enthusiastic. In a very forcible speech Rev. Lightbourn promised his support and friendship to the club. He was followed by Miss Lightbourn. who in a very graceful manner thanked the members and also promised her support to the club. A very hearty welcome was also accorded to the Hon. R. Watson, people's warden. Mr. Watson in his remarks made very pleasing reference to the club and its work in the parish. The Rotary Club who are so interested in the welfare of the youth of the city will, we feel sure be ready to support such a club as this which has for its objects the training of the youth of to-day for his position as a citizen of to-morrow. During the evening congratulations were tendered to the club's Ping-Pong team Messrs. E. Knight, E. Wood and W. Nicol who secured the Inter-Club Ping-Pong Tournament Cup. The ladies who catered were Misses Wills (3), Coaker (2), Cook, Brown and Mrs. C. Hammond. The management was done by the club secretary, E. D. Wills. The singing of The National Anthem brought the evening's proceedings to a fitting close-One who was present.

Wing Spread of Seagulls

BURLINGTON, Vermont.—The herring gulls of Lake Champlain left for the North earlier than usual this fall, and observers are wondering whether this means a long winter. The gulls are given protection on the Four Brother Islands, where they raise their young, and they are highly valued by the municipality of Burlington because of their usefulness as scavengers at the outlet of the city sewer in the lake. The species of gull seen here is said never to have been found farther south than Albany, N. Y. The islands were purchased by Edward Hatch, of New York, a half century ago for the purpose of protecting the birds, and the Hatch family ever since then has maintained guards to prevent the stealing of eggs and killing of gulls. The average full grown gull here measures between five and seven feet from tip to tip. The birds' shrill cries assist in scaring poachers away. If the nest of a setting bird is visited, the male gull will attack the intruder with his wings, which can deal a powerful blow. Scientists say that one of the gulls which comes to the islands annually is more than eighty years old.
