The Mines by Means of the... of coal mines, where sun... quite useless, and where... not always to be found...

COPENHAGEN

Miss Susie Corner, of Hamilton, is spending a few weeks among her friends here.

A number from here took in the great M. C. R. picnic at St. Thomas on Thursday last.

Mr. Bruce Lindsay is improving, but is far from being well.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dunsford spent Sunday with Mr. Albert Nevills.

On Sunday evening, July 29th, the Rev. J. Veal will preach a sermon to the K. O. T. M. in the Copenhagen church. The Springfield and Aylmer tents are expected to be present.

Wednesday, Aug. 1st, the Sunday Schools of the Malahide circuit will will celebrate their annual S. S. picnic at Pt. Bruce.

Chronic Indigestion

By far the most important part of digestion takes place in the intestines and it is folly to expect stomach medicines to cure a severe case of indigestion or dyspepsia.

Papa—Aha! You have disobeyed me. Willie—Boo-hoo! I tried not to. It ain't my fault. Papa—Not your fault, eh? Willie—No, sir. You said: "Don't let me catch you at that again," and I done my best not to let you.

His Wonderful Nerve

Alone sustains Editor F. H. Higgins, of Seneca, Ill., when all doctors and medicines failed to relieve his pain from piles. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured him.

Is your new cook reliable? Thoroughly so. When she says breakfast will be ready at 7 o'clock sharp we know we needn't go down stairs until 8.15.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

Yes, said the young woman, I had books in the running brooks. Well, said Farmer Cornsossel, them summer boarders jittred the place up terrible with them trashy novels last year. Me an' ma done the best we could to burn 'em all in the cook stove, but they do seem to be turnin' up.

Eight hour laws are ignored by those greivels, little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing indigestion, biliousness, Constipation, Sick Headache and All Stomach, Liver and Bowel troubles.

Miss Gabby—Freddy Fethered reminds me of a barometer. Miss Wunder—Why? Miss Gabby—Oh, he can't talk of anything except the weather.

Mr. Pollock and wife and child, of Aylmer, spent Sunday at Mr. M. Lyons'.

Mrs. Grass, of St. Thomas, is spending a week or two at her nephew's, Mr. L. Martin.

Miss Pearl Heris, of Fairview is the guest of her aunt for a few days, Mrs. S. Irwin.

We understand that Miss McDonald our former teacher, has passed her examinations in Toronto with honors.

Miss Connie Ingram spent last week with friends in St. Thomas and Aylmer.

Off the Track.

This means disaster and death when applied to a fast express train. It is equally serious when it refers to people whose blood is disordered and who consequently have pimples and sores, bad stomachs, deranged kidneys, weak nerves and that tired feeling.

Constipation is cured by Hood's Pills. 25c

And what does the story of the prodigal son teach us? asked the teacher. It teaches us how to get the fatted calf, was the prompt reply of the boy at the foot of the class

RESULT OF ANARCHIST PLOT

Killing of King Humbert Was Long Premeditated.

Five Other Persons Have Been Taken into Custody at Monza—King Victor Emmanuel Hastening to His Father's Bed—Morbid Thirst for Notoriety is the Plague of Modern Civilization, Says Lord Salisbury.

Rome, Aug. 1.—The Tribune says the assassination of King Humbert is believed to have been the result of a plot. A non-militant anarchist recently declared, so The Tribune asserts, that a meeting had been held in Paris, at which lots were drawn, and several persons were elected to kill the King.

The papers announce that King Victor Emmanuel III. will reach Brindisa to-day, and will go directly to Monza.

Besides Bressi five persons have been taken into custody at Monza. Other suspects arrested.

A Tuscan named Giusta, who lives in the House of Remala in Milan, and other suspects have been arrested there.

The assassin speaks English, French and Spanish.

PATERSON ANARCHISTS MEET. Held a Meeting When They Endorsed the Killing of King Humbert.

New York, Aug. 1.—There was a meeting of Anarchists in Paterson, N. J., Monday night at which the killing of King Humbert was endorsed. A reporter who sought admittance was welcomed, as it was said that these Anarchists wanted the whole world to know their sentiments.

The principal speaker at the meeting was Ernesta Cravella, 21 years of age. In the course of an impassioned address he said: "We are members of the group of Anarchists to which Bressi belonged. He is a martyr. He has done what we would have him do. It was not our instruction to Bressi to kill, but he has done what he knew to be right, and we will sustain him and give him our sympathy. Humbert was a monarch, and all monarchs, according to our vows, must die."

Let Nicholas of Russia tremble, and let the new King of Italy prepare for death. They are inhuman. It is a republic that we want, and it is a republic that the Anarchists in every country will have."

London, Aug. 2.—The Gazette orders the court in mourning for King Humbert, from Aug. 2 to Aug. 23, and for the Duke of Saxo-Coburg and Gotha from Aug. 2 to Sept. 13.

Ottawa, Aug. 1.—A cablegram from Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, addressed to Lord Minto, was received at the Governor General's office yesterday, and sent to the Militia Department. In it Mr. Chamberlain asks that the ensign shall be flown at half mast from the Parliament and other public buildings in Canada, in honor of the memory of the late King Humbert, and that it shall be so flown until after the funeral.

London, Aug. 1.—Moving an address to the Queen with reference to the assassination of King Humbert of Italy, the Premier, Lord Salisbury, in the House of Lords yesterday recalled that the last half of the century had seen the assassination of three Presidents of republics and two monarchs.

It was nothing but that morbid thirst for notoriety which is the plague and curse of modern civilization that had time and again led men to the commission of the foulest crimes. It threatened the very existence of society if it could not be arrested.

King Stars For Rome. Reggio Di Calabria, Aug. 1.—King Victor Emmanuel III. arrived here at noon yesterday aboard his yacht, preceded by a torpedo boat, which had been sent in search of him. The king started for Rome at 1 o'clock a.m.

Monza, Aug. 1.—Bressi maintains an air of the utmost civility to the course of his examination he declared himself to be a revolutionary anarchist, and said he was ready to resume operations if he were released.

London, Aug. 1.—A special despatch from Rome says that the King Victor Emmanuel III. arrived at Brindisa yesterday unexpectedly. The despatch adds that the young Queen fainted when she was informed of the assassination of King Humbert. The King and Queen started for Monza immediately after reaching Brindisa.

Monza, Aug. 1.—The body of the late King Humbert, dressed in black, lies on the bed that was ordinarily used by him. Around the massive candelabra, holding burning tapers at the foot and head of the bed, are flowers placed by Queen Margherita, who passed the long hours of the night in prayer by the body.

ITALIAN CABINET'S MANIFESTO. Calls on the Nation to Rally Around Humbert's Successor.

Rome, Aug. 1.—In the absence of the new king, the Ministry has issued in his name a manifesto to the nation as follows:

"King Victor Emmanuel III., in ascending the throne, has to perform the painful duty of mourning to the country the awful calamity which has vic-lently cut short the valuable life of King Humbert.

"The nation, wounded in its sincere affection for the august dead, and in a sincere feeling of devotion and adhesion to the dynasty while execrating the cruel crime will be plunged into profound grief for the venerated memory of a good, brave and magnanimous King, the pride of his people and the worthy perpetuator of the traditions of the House of Savoy. By culture with unshakable loyalty around his august successor Italy will prove by their deeds that their institutions do not die."

POLICE ARE AT WORK.

Papers Show Bressi Was in Correspondence With Anarchists.

Rome, Aug. 1.—The police are pushing inquiries in a direction, both the information with regard to the assassin, Bressi, is not yet definite. It appears that when he was searching for lodgings on Friday at Monza he was accompanied by a young man, whom the police are now seeking. The pistol the assassin used was a new and superior weapon, marked Massachusetts.

What a Search Revealed. The police of Milan searched the house of a man named Renella, and, it is reported, found important papers showing that Bressi had relations with persons in the United States, and that communications had passed between him and them in connection with the crime. Bressi and another Tuscan frequented the cafes at Milan, where they were overheard discussing a big scheme that would astonish the world.

Was Long Premeditated. Everything goes to show that the crime was long premeditated and the police are now being charged with want of foresight. It appears that the cordons formed upon the arrival of the King at the fete grounds were only to prevent the King from escaping, and that communications had passed between him and them in connection with the crime. Bressi and another Tuscan frequented the cafes at Milan, where they were overheard discussing a big scheme that would astonish the world.

Give Baby Free Air. In the summer and early autumn baby may be out of doors almost any time between 7 o'clock in the morning and sunset. In the winter, modified somewhat by climate, only between 10 or 11 o'clock in the morning and 3 o'clock in the afternoon. See that the wind does not blow directly in his face, that his feet are properly covered and warm, and discharge the nursery maid on the spot that lets the air shine down into your baby's eyes, whether he is asleep or awake.

What to Say About the Baby. The wise bachelor who is called upon to compliment the new heir of his wedded friend can make himself popular by declaring with emphasis, "Well, that is a baby." There is no gaudy saying that isn't a bit complimentary and sounds like strong praise.—Philadelphia Times.

Rare Devotion. "Do you think Dolly's fiance loves her?" "Indeed he does. Why, he went and made love to that pretty Allbright girl just to give Dolly a chance to cut her out."—Collier's Weekly.

CONSUMPTION never stops because the weather is warm. Then why stop taking SCOTT'S EMULSION simply because it's summer? Keep taking it. It will help your lungs, and make them strong for another winter.

PUSHING BOERS BACK. They Are Preparing to Retreat From Watervalboon—Frank Pettigrew on Botha's Staff.

London, Aug. 1.—The Lourenzo Marques correspondent of the Daily Express writes from Watervalboon: "The Boers are preparing to retreat from Watervalboon."

Hunter Told to Continue. London, Aug. 1.—A despatch received at the War Office yesterday from Lord Roberts materially modifies Monday's statement of the surrender of 5,000 Federals under Gen. Prinsloo. It now appears that Gens. Prinsloo, Villiers and Crowther surrendered with 982 men, 1,432 horses, 955 rifles and a Krupp nine-pounder. Some of the leaders in more distant parts of the hills hesitate to come in, on the plea that they are independent of Gen. Prinsloo. Lord Roberts adds that he has directed Gen. Hunter to resume hostilities forthwith and to listen to no excuses.

Mail Service to Blame. Ottawa, Aug. 1.—Relatives of members of the Canadian contingents in Africa having made anxious inquiries as to why letters have not been received, the officer commanding the unit, called Col. Otter, asking the reason of delay. Col. Otter replies that he can only attribute it to failure of the mail service.

Money From South Africa. Ottawa, Aug. 1.—Mayor Payment's mail contained the following South African letter, enclosing a draft on the Standard Bank of South Africa for the sum of £41 1s and 7d and speaks for itself:

To the Mayor of Ottawa: Dear Sir, I have much pleasure in forwarding you, in aid of your Fire Relief Fund, a small contribution, subscribed by the 2nd Battalion Northumberland Fusiliers in South Africa, as an expression of their sympathy with you in your recent great calamity. Believe me, yours truly,

Charles Lambton, Lieut.-Col. Commanding 2nd Batt., 5th Fusiliers.

HAINES DIED FROM ENTERIC. Was a Newmarket Private in "C" Company, First Contingent.

Newmarket, Aug. 1.—Word has just been received of the death of Pte. W. Haines, of "C" Company, first contingent, and formerly of Newmarket. His mother, who lives here, on Monday last received a letter from Lieut. Marshall, who is in command of "C" Company, in the absence of Captain Barker, notifying her of the death of her son from enteric fever at Johannesburg on June 6, which, it was inferred, was already known to her. This, however, is the first intimation of his demise and it seems strange that there has been no official news yet come to hand.

Trooper Hall is Dead. Ottawa, Aug. 1.—Sir Alfred Milner cables to Lord Minto yesterday as follows:

Cape Town, July 31.—Regret to report No. 25, Pte. J. E. Hall, 1st Battalion Canadian Mounted Rifles, died of enteric fever at Kroonstad, July 28. Pte. Hall came from Edmonton, and his father is John Hall, of Strathcona, Alberta.

No. 4008, Pte. R. Burnside, Canadian Regiment of Infantry, is a released prisoner. (Signed) Milner.

Color of the Bridal Gown.

Modern brides select one tiny little flower from the wreath or bouquet, incase it in a locket or talisman of some sort and wear it continually. Such a gift is quite a pretty bestowal from the husband, with her new monogram engraved on the outside.

A bride considers it a joyful omen to receive cards to some one else's wedding on her own wedding day and likewise a sinister foreshadowing to learn of the death of a friend or relative.

Of course no one would wish to be married on Friday, the 13th day of any month, and Black Friday throughout the whole civilized world records scarcely a single wedding.

It is good to give gifts just before the wedding day. In certain nations brides carry a few coins, or have their attendants do it for them, to church, that they may toss them to some needy person and thereby go penniless to the husband, but also to cast off all portents of evil in the righteousness of giving to the poor.

There is an ancient rhyme which gives good advice in regard to the color chosen for the bridal gown. It runs:

Married in white, You have chosen all right; Married in grey, You will go far away; Married in black, You will wish yourself back; Married in red, You'd better be dead; Married in green, Ashamed to be seen; Married in blue, You'll always be true; Married in pearl, You'll live in a whirl; Married in yellow, Ashamed of the fellow; Married in brown, You'll live out of town; Married in pink, Your spirits will sink.
