London, Tuesday, May 8.

Sir John Thompson promises that the Gerrymander Bill will be brought down for a second reading on Thursday next.

In Woodstock the hour for closing bars in taverns has been fixed at 10 p.m. instead of 11 as formerly. There seems to be a pretty general movement in favor of curtailing the opportunities for drinking intoxicating liquors.

The Mowat Government seems to be invincible in Ontario. [Montreal Star.]

Yes, as compared with his strength at the opening of the Legislature three months ago, Mr. Meredith is now six weeks on a division.

A bill has been introduced into the Quebec Legislature providing for obligatory voting. No reasonable man can object to an enactment providing that the franchise has duties as well as privileges. Should it not be the duty of every elector to poll his own vote, under pain of being deprived of it?

A prominent business firm in Edinburgh, Scotland, sends a postcard to us addressed "London Advertiser, Ontario, U.S.A." There is a common belief, it seems, among the old country people that there is but one "America" and that Ontario is a State of the Republic. We know a great deal more about the old world people than they know about us.

Mr. Ingram, M.P. for West Elgin, warmly protested in the House that it is eminently in the public interest that his brother, W.H., the writer of "The Influence" letter in the South Perth column, has been appointed to the collectorship of customs at St. Thomas. It was to be expected that a defense would be put in for the Elgin family compact, but Mr. Ingram might have allowed someone else to formulate it.

The Montreal Herald becomes rejuvenated with the spring. Its new management is hustling it to the front rank of morning papers. In addition to a fine new dress of clear type, it is printed from a fast web perfecting press, especially built for it. There is room and there should be generous public patronage for a good independent Liberal newspaper in Montreal, and that the Herald has been in the past, and will continue to be in the future, but with increased capacity to serve the advertising as well as the reading public.

The only excuse given for compelling one-third of the citizens to vote in the county, while the village of London West, a portion of London township, is gerrymandered into the city, is the funny assumption that should the London West people vote in Dominion elections they may, some way, be influenced to join us municipally. In other words, the apologist for the deal would have us believe that a vote in the city will influence the property-owners over the river to become a part of the city. This is a most veridical assumption. The London West electors are shrewd enough to look after their own municipal interests, and we may rest assured that when they resolve to cast their lot with the city it will be after consideration of a basis of agreement on its merits, and entirely apart from the sharp tricks of self-seeking politicians.

Citizens of London, reflect on this "measure of justice" which is attempted under the Gerrymander Act of Sir John Thompson:

London, 32,000 population, one member.

Frontenac, 13,445 population, one member.

South Grenville, 12,931 population, one member.

Brookville, 15,855 population, one member.

Leeds and Grenville, 13,523 population, one member.

West Northumberland, 14,947 population, one member.

Surely if these eastern constituencies, the majority of them lying close together, are entitled to one member, any two of them having from 5,000 to 6,000 less population than London, the metropolis of the West should have been given two members. The prestige of the city demands it. Instead of that, we have the East Middlesex village of London West placed in the city for electoral purposes, without so much as saying by your leave to the electorate. And the city is informed that the man who stole Mr. Hyman's seat, with the connivance of his homely cronies, can do nothing towards obtaining the two seats for London which the size and importance of the city warrants.

CONCEIVED IN INIQUITY AND NURTURED IN SHAME.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Telegram (Independent Conservative) telegraphs:

"Old Parliamentary hands, who are competent to look upon matters with unprejudiced eyes, claim that this is the worst gerrymander ever known in the history of Canada. This is an unprejudiced opinion."

Of course, newspaper writers who palliate the sins of partisan judges and see nothing wrong in depriving the people of their rights by the agency of a seat steal, recognize only that which is "fair and equitable" in this atrocious attempt to defeat the popular will by establishing constituencies on a chain lightning basis without regard to county boundaries.

The color blindness of these men is truly lamentable. But, as Principal Grant says, they might just as well defend Sodom. The independent elector will be forced to the conclusion that there is something radically wrong with the party that has to resort to expedients so unwarrantable.

Of the new measure, Hon. David Mills says: "It is the most dishonest measure that has ever been submitted to Parliament. It violates every principle of popular representation. A proper equalization of the inequalities in the present system would give a majority of the electors a majority of the representatives. This the Redistributive Bill does not do. At this moment the Conservatives have about two-thirds of the members from Ontario, and yet they have received a minority of the whole vote. The population of Ontario west of the meridian of Toronto was not given due representation by the Redistribution Bill of 1882. The present bill makes that wrong greater. The rearrangement of the constituencies is based upon the relative strength and weakness of the Government throughout all parts of the Dominion. The Province of Prince Edward Island is divided in such a way that according to the vote of last session the minority will receive three out of the five members. This is not legislation. It is revolution. Ministers are putting in jeopardy representative institutions and our entire system of constitutional government. It remains to be seen whether the Governor-General, as the representative of the Crown and trustee for the nation, will not interpose his authority to save the Dominion from the grave perils which are showing themselves in the present action of the Government."

Can anyone, for example, defend the tactics which decree that North Brant shall be a constituency beginning at the borders of Hamilton and continued, about a township in breadth, through several counties up to the middle of Oxford? While the Niagara constituencies are juggled so as to "have" Liberal majorities of between 2,000 and 3,000 in the two constituencies of Lincoln and North Brant, and county lines are ruthlessly disregarded, under an excuse that it is all done to equalize the constituencies, what do we find? Much smaller constituencies in Eastern Ontario entirely left alone. Two members are taken from Western Ontario, though it is already under-represented, and Eastern Ontario, with a surplus of representatives, is left untouched. Why? Because the Niagara Peninsula has been declared for trade freedom, whereas the small constituencies in Eastern Ontario are represented by Conservatives. Because two of the constituencies in the Niagara Peninsula have a population of under 10,000, it is thought necessary to wipe out two seats, and "have the Grits," so as to make a substantial gain for their opponents. In over-represented Eastern Ontario, we find pocket constituencies like Leeds and Grenville, with a population given in the last blue book as 13,523, Frontenac with 13,445, Grenville with 12,931, Brockville with 15,855, and several other contiguous seats left untouched. They could have been re-arranged much more easily and with far greater fairness than has been the Niagara Peninsula, but it is not equalization of constituencies that Sir John Thompson and his associates desire. They want to "load the dice," and wherever possible, compel hitherto Liberal constituencies to endorse the acts of those to whom the majority is conscientiously opposed. Hence the Niagara Peninsula is carved up and pitched around till the constituencies do not know themselves, while a group of over-represented constituencies like Brockville, Dundas, Frontenac, Kingston, North and South Lanark, Leeds and Grenville, and Leeds are left untouched. The Niagara Peninsula has revolted from trade restriction rule; the eastern counties have remained tied up to the combines. Hence the reduction in the representation of the West.

The same course has been adopted in Quebec Province. An Ottawa correspondent informs us that there is no pretense at equalization of the Quebec constituencies on the basis of representation by population. Sir John Thompson has not altered the state of Vaudreuil, Soulanges or the dozen other Conservative constituencies whose population is below the average, but he has deliberately entered the region of counties south of the St. Lawrence largely represented by Liberals and gerrymandered right and left. Two constituencies, Vercheres and Napierville, have been wiped out of existence, and a dozen other counties have been so cut up and mutilated as to be unrecognizable.

Surely the time has come to take the rearranging of the constituencies out of the hands of unscrupulous politicians like Sir John Thompson, and place it under the control of an independent judicial commission. That is the British system. It has worked well in the old world, and there is no reason why it should not be adopted here. Mr. Gladstone had the rearranging of the constituencies in 1885, but with the consent and co-operation of his opponents he handed over the redistribution to the commissioners, and the constituencies were made up solely with regard to the public interest and without interfering with county boundaries. What has proved an equitable method in Britain might well be imitated by our Canadian politicians. The Thompson system is wholly inequitable; it is dishonest from beginning to end.

The gerrymander of the Niagara Peninsula by Sir John Thompson is so scandalous and unjust that even the strong Conservative journal, the St. Catharines Standard, protests against it.

LONDON AND PORT STANLEY.

It is satisfactory to learn, by special telegram, that the bill respecting the London and Port Stanley Railway was endorsed by the committee of the House of Commons this forenoon. This indication will go a long way to secure the passage of the bill through the House.

BETRAYED THEIR TRUST.

When before the electors of West Middlesex, immediately prior to last Dominion general election, Dr. Roope solemnly pledged himself to support the movement to have the tax taken of binder twine. We are informed that Mr. Hutchins, who managed to squeeze in for North Middlesex by a fluke, and Mr. Marshall, the member for East Middlesex, also promised to support the movement to obtain free binder twine. There is much indignation in the county, because all three voted in favor of the continuance of the twine tax in the House the other day. Men who are so tied up by the influence of the combines that they are ready to betray their constituents can honestly be held to have forfeited the confidence of the electorate.

CANADA AT WASHINGTON.

Mr. Laurier warmly supported Mr. McCarthy's motion to send a Canadian to Washington to look after Canadian business there in conjunction with the British Minister. It is an ascertained fact that in the past Canadian interests have been misunderstood, neglected, sacrificed through rapacity at Washington. Mr. McCarthy's motion would do much to prevent such troubles in the future. It is a reasonable reform, and should be carried, in spite of the opposition of Mr. Foster, Minister of Finance. The Government, it seems, admits the advantage of having a representative, but asserts that the scheme is impracticable. We can see nothing impracticable in it. It is much more necessary to have a man of standing at Washington than to have an agent in Paris, France, an arrangement which existed for years. The debate was adjourned on the motion of Sir John Thompson.

TOPICS OF TO-DAY.

Baron Hirsch has decided to devote the whole of his turf earnings last season to the London hospitals.

It pays best to be a boy in the Astor family. About $69,000,000 of the estate of the late William Astor goes to his son John Jacob, while the three daughters are out off with paltry legacies of $2,000,000 each. Poor girls!

They are going to put a bronze statue of William Penn on top of the City Hall tower in Philadelphia. It will be 37 feet high and weigh 25 tons. The hat alone will weigh 800 pounds and have a brim 8 feet in depth. In size it is a 62.

An electrical "transformer" has been exhibited in the Crystal Palace by which fifty horse power can be transmitted for a reasonable distance through a wire no thicker than a hair, and across the Atlantic, with a loss of two horse power, through a wire a tenth of an inch thick.

The new Roman Catholic Convent Bishop of Vermont, Rt. Rev. Dr. Michaud, is an American by birth and French Canadian by descent. Le Canadian says that when he went to Montreal, in 1865, to study for the priesthood he did not know a word of French. Now there are many French schools for Canadians who have settled in Vermont.

It is only recently that people have been permitted to ascend the rock and signal station at Gibraltar. Since last November the British military, with their families, and persons connected with the British navy, have been permitted to visit this fine lookout. The privilege, however, has not been extended to the citizens of Gibraltar, nor to strangers visiting the fortress, a circumstance which is generally resented, particularly by the subjects of the Queen.

Travelers in Japan tell of the unconcern with which a Japanese will take a bath in full publicity, and the custom has impressed foreigners as unbecomingly. An Englishman who has long been in the country says there is really nothing immodest in the promiscuous bathing of men, women and children from a Japanese point of view. With them cleanliness is the object sought for, and the etiquette of the bathhouse differs from the etiquette of the parlor. With Europeans, he says, the attitude of waiters is only permitted when the music is played. It is something like this with the Japanese bathers. When the necessary operation of washing or doing other work requires it to strip become a duty. On the other hand, a Japanese woman would seem to appear in decollete. To her eye our ball rooms are an astonishment, and the exposure of the person for display is incomprehensible. This writer thinks that the Japanese are not excelled by their Western brethren in modesty.

The reports as to the progress of the surveys for the proposed Pan-American railroad through Ecuador are of unusual interest. The engineers say the difficulties they have found are not nearly so great as was anticipated. From an engineering point of view the problems of railroad building there are not so serious as those that were met in running railroads across North America, and the engineers regard the possibility of making the longitudinal railroad to have been demonstrated. If this news is correct, it is the most cheering information with regard to the project that has been received since it was first considered. When the two survey parties left New York in April, last year, one of them went north to Puerto Quintero toward Colombia and the other to travel south, it would have surprised no one to hear that after plunging into great forests that had never yet been traversed by white men, they had failed to achieve their purpose and had returned defeated. Their report is, therefore, exceedingly encouraging, for every one had predicted that among the Cordilleras of Ecuador the difficulties to be overcome were enormous. In fact, it was believed that if the scheme was not carried out it would be on account of the enormous cost of building the road along this part of the route. There is good reason to believe that before a great many years the dream of railroad connection between North and South America will be realized.

ASHAMED OF IT.

The Gerrymander of the Niagara Peninsula Condemned by a Strong Conservative Journal.

The announcement made by the Minister of Justice that in the redistribution of seats in the House of Commons consequent upon the result of the census the Government had determined to alter the territorial boundaries of this electoral district, has not taken the electors by surprise, but has caused the most indignant indignation. No substantial reason was given by the Minister for interfering with a constituency like Lincoln and Niagara. It was argued that population was the basis, and that as Lincoln and Niagara had 21,800 and other counties only 14,000 or 15,000 it was necessary to equal them up. The argument which is made up of several of the older counties, are to have an average of 21,000, while Lincoln and Niagara, which had 21,800, is increased to 22,250. Why this was done it is impossible to conceive. It is quite evident from the remarks of the Minister in introducing the bill, if he is correctly reported, that he knew very little about the geographical position of the counties in the Niagara Peninsula. In setting Lincoln and Niagara he entirely omits the Niagara township and the village of Merriton. Rumor has it that Merriton is to go to Welland. We cannot conceive that such a flagrant outrage will be perpetrated. The electoral district of Lincoln and Niagara as now prepared will be of the shape of a leg of mutton. From Louth eastward it will be only about five miles wide, while west of Louth it will be up to ten miles wide. We hope that the Government will reconsider the matter and leave Lincoln and Niagara as it has always been and not leave itself open to the charge of gerrymandering for political purposes. There can be no justification whatever for taking Pelham from Monck, or Welland to which it belongs as a county, and adding it to Lincoln.

Do you know what is the best burglar trap or rather burglar warning? It is a newspaper. Spread a good sized one across a hall floor. The burglar cannot leap over it without making a noise. The same result will attend an effort to fold it up, and to walk on it is to cause the paper to squeak. We hope that the Government will reconsider the matter and leave Lincoln and Niagara as it has always been and not leave itself open to the charge of gerrymandering for political purposes. There can be no justification whatever for taking Pelham from Monck, or Welland to which it belongs as a county, and adding it to Lincoln.

Is a Cold Bath Dangerous for Ladies? At a recent meeting of physicians in London, the question of cold baths for ladies was brought up for discussion. It was unanimously decided that a woman received great benefit from a moderately cold bath, provided that she was free from chill afterwards. This may best be avoided by wearing a "Health Brand" pure wool underwear next the skin. Invaluable for spring and summer in the light weights, as ladies and children will find after bathing; perfect fitting and beautiful new styles.
