LIGHTNING RESTORED HER. Little Mary Fisher Can New Speak and

Hear-Deaf and Dumb for Eight Years, WINFIELD, L. I., Sept. 11 .- A house belonging to John Zelinka of this village was struck by lightning during a storm

Sunday night. A bolt went through a two-foot brick wall into the dining room, where Mr. Zelinka, a neighbor, and Mrs. Fisher, a visitor, were discussing the storm. It seemed to pass between Mrs. Fisher and her 13-year-old daughter Mary, who had been deaf and dumb for over eight years. Mrs. Fisher and her daughter sat motionless for several seconds, when the little girl got up, and pointing her finger to her ear, said:

"Mamma, I heard that. Let's go home." This is the first time, it is said, that she as spoken since an attack of scarlet fever left her deaf and speechless. Mrs. Fisher and her daughter went to New York, where they reside, late last night. Their friends declare that the girl has undoubtedly regained her hearing and voice.

ALL-POWERFUL CHINA.

And now they tell us China may,
Should poor Japan become her prey,
Rise in her might and kill and slay,
And all the world subdue;
The lowly washee-washee men
May conquer all of Europe, when
They'll sail across the sea and then
We shall be walloped, too.

Carpets Oh! who would dream these men so meek, With eyes so curiously oblique.
Would ever dare to have the cheek

A nation to assail!

But none can guess what dreams may come
Into a Mongoi's cranium,
We know, although it looks so dumb,
That "thereby hangs a tail."

Marriage of Two Deaf Mutes. A wedding of an unusual character was celebrated recently at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, 723 Queen's avenue. Mr. Archie Dark and Miss Minnie Fleming, both respected young residents of the city, were the contracting parties, and the peculiarity lay in the fact that both were deaf mutes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. L. Fowler, and had to be done in writing first for the couple, and then orally for the guests. There was no bridesmaid or groomsman, the certificate being signed by Miss Annie L. Smith, and Mr. J. B. Johnston. The guests—a number of whom were mutes—partook of a wedding feast and spent a pleasant evening.

Offer to Rev. T. L. Fowler. The Disciples Church of Ontario has decided to establish a divinity school in Toronto for the training of young men in church work. The general board of the church decided upon this course at a recent meeting, and the choice of a principal fell upon Rev. T. L. Fowler, pastor of the Christian Church in this city. Mr. Fowler has promised to accept on certain conditions, one of which is that the London church be supplied with a capable man. The church in Canada has some very able preachers, and the selection of Mr. Fowler as principal of the new school is a credit to himself and to the city in which he resides. It will be with the greatest reluctance that the local branch will part with Mr. Fowler. He has been a most earnest worker, and has built up a large congrega-

Long before the hour set the large residence was crowded with friends of the family. At the conclusion of the service the demand for admission to the house by these anxious to view the remains was so great that the casket had to be removed to the large lawn in front of the house. There it was viewed by upwards of 3,000 people from every section of the county. Mr. Bolton was a member of the Masonic order and the Independent Oddfellows. The local lodge of the former took charge of the services, and about 250 of the brethren from London, Strathroy, Komoka, Delaware and St. Thomas were in line. The Oddfellows were present to the number of 125. A choir sang the beautiful Masonic hymns from the ritual. Over 200 rigs were in the cortege, which was so lengthy that the first had reached the burial ground before the last had left the house, The service at the grave was of a very impressive character.

Welcoming the D. D. G. M. The regular communication of Union Lodge, No. 380, A., F. and A. M., G. R. C., was held in the Masonic Temple last night. It being the first official visit of Rt. Wor. Bro. A. R. Rowat, D. D. G. M. ment to the office, there was a goodly number of members and visitors present from the several city lodges to welcome him. The third degree was exemplified by Wor. Bro. Ed.
