FATAL MISHAP TO A WOODSTOCK GIRL.
Woodstock, Aug. 9.—A little child of Mr. Frank Faulstich, formerly of this town, but lately of Chicago, was playing around the house, and at the call of its father ran to the bathtub to turn off the water. In doing so she accidentally fell into the bath, and the shock sustained through contact with the cold water produced convulsions. The little girl lived 36 hours after the accident.

—Pares comedies are anti-tragedies. To be successful, farces must be composed entirely of the very best quality of that material that goes to make even the darkest of clouds palatable to the mind of philosophers. Farce comedies are the silver linings of the theatrical horizon. When the patron is surfeited with rheumatic tragedy, loose-jointed melodramas and creaky operas, the silver linings of the comic come change to the tuneful, witty and bright breezy and well-constructed farce, in which the follies and foibles of life are held up, at it were, before a concave mirror. "A Run on the Bank," underlined for next Thursday at the Grand, teems with specialities of a superior nature. There is a dash, and humor, and color in the action that causes the most blasé to respond vigorously. A most commendable fact is that there is absolutely not a jot or tittle of suggestiveness in the entire piece. The singing department of the Ward & Vokes Company is far above the average of most comedies, while that most essential feature, the beauty part, is made up of shapely ladies, who can do something to entertain as well as look handsome. The company is the largest and highest salaried one presenting farce comedy.

TWO BAD BOYS.
Charles and Alvin Prosser, two Adelaide street youths of about 15 years, are in trouble again for their same old tricks—stealing. They were arrested yesterday afternoon by G. T. R. Constable Logan for breaking into a Grand Trunk freight car on the east end siding and taking somebody else's vest, umbrella, two brushes, box of blacking and a quantity of lamp wick. When arrested the youths had a vest and lamp wick in their possession. They acknowledged their offense. Both youngsters have been arrested by the city police before, and have very bad reputations. They come before Squire J. B. Smyth on the 16th.

HOSPITAL MATTERS.

The Trust wish to present their thanks for the following donations: Thomas McCormick, 52 hymn books, M. and S. Mrs. John Marshall, Dun-don Mission Circle, the Mission Circle, and Miss Moffatt, flowers.

The superintendent was instructed to advertise for tenders for next year's supplies. The tenders will be opened at the next meeting of the board. Electric lights will be placed in the operating room, and a couple of fire-places in the long ward for ventilating purposes.

BEWARE THE HAT.

If You See It on the Floor Leave It There—A Deep Dyed Fraud.

The latest novelty in the line of foolishness has made its appearance in a Dundas street barber shop. It is an iron hat made in the shape of a bran new tile, with the usual polish. The band is painted on the inside, and even a small sticker with the size and price is painted on to add to the deception. Even the careful observer the resemblance to a "plug" is startling. The deception is generally only found out after a more than usually careful man attempts to lift it. It weighs 20 pounds and the foolish look upon the face of the man who tried the lift would melt the grumpiest pessimist to laughter.

The iron hat stands on end on the floor in front of the hat rack and looks for all the world as if it had just fallen from its place on the rack. Some men come in, hang their hats up, and nearly fall over the hat on the floor. Then they generally bend down new floor, try to pick it up. After that it is in order to make a few remarks. Sometimes these remarks will be sultry, but generally good natured. Altogether the hat is a deep dyed fraud.

BISHOP, RECTOR AND CURATE.

These Three Ecclesiastics Have Each Spoken Cordial Words in Favor of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder.

One of the most cordial endorsements of the curative powers of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder has come from the Bishop of Toronto. But he has not stood alone in his praise of this medicine. He was followed by men like the Rev. John Langtry and the Rev.
W. H. Wade, rector of the Church of the Ascension, Hamilton, Ont., and falling into line with the Rev. W. R.
Williams, Mr. Langtry's popular curate. The Rev. J. B. Wynne, assistant pastor of St. Peter's Church, Hamilton, has been one of the latest to endorse this wonderful remedy. It never fails, and is so quick, in case of cold in the head and catarrh, and is the current panacea for Hay Fever. Sample Bottle and Blower sent on receipt of two 3-cent stamps. S. G. Detchon, 44 Church street, Toronto.

In a ballet called "Venus," performed at La Scala, in Milan, the principal scene brings in a corps of woman bicyclists arrayed in costumes which are less than "rational."

THERE IS NOT a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—a pulmonary of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and, as an internal specific, possesses most substantial claims to public confidence.

A Connecticut church thus advertises:
"A cool church physically, a warm church spiritually. Good seats for timely arrivals and glorious times to all."
