BRITISH CABINET MEETING. London, March 10.—An extra meet-ing of the Cabinet to consider the new Cretan situation arising from Greece's practical refusal to accede the demands of the powers was eld last evening. After the meeting, Prime Minister Salisbury went to the Foreign Office, where he was visited by Count Deym, the Austrian ambassador. Later Lord Salisbury sent tel-egraphic messages to foreign capitals, and to Admiral Sir Michael Culme-Seymour, commander-in-chief of the British Mediterranean squadron: IN THE BRITISH HOUSE. the House of Commons Sir William Vernon Harcourt arose, and while sured. disavowing any desire to embarrass the Government in the negotiations neessarny arising from Greece's reply, said he desired an assurance that the British forces should not be employed against Greece before Parliament was given a chance to express its judg-ment on the matter. Sir William said he believed that a situation had arisen in which an amicable settlement of the question was possible. He was conident that the Government would do its best to insure such a settlement. He did not base his question on constitutional right, but on a policy of the highest description, really involving the sues of peace or war.

Right Hon. Arthur Balfour, the Government leader, said that the course demanded by the Opposition was exemely inexpedient and absolutely contrary to precedent. The Govern-ment could not be guided by the prac-tice of France, to which Sir William had referred. The Government was most anxiously desirous of an amicable settlement. It was in every way conscious of its responsibility, and was acting in the firm belief that it was pursuing a policy that would bring lib-> implied warranty of authority in law Montreal, March 10 .- It is evident that the Papal delegate's first duty will be to investigate Bishop Blais conduct in the Bonaventure election The Liberals are confident of carrying the county by a large majority, in spite of the opposition of Bishop Blais and his clergy. Mr. Guite, the Liberal candidate, has forwarded a letter to the Rev. Mr. Landry, director of the seminary at Rimouski, who came down as delegate of the bishor to induce him to sign a condemnation of the Laurier-Greenway school settlement, informing him that he was unable to comply with the wishes of Mgr. Blais. This means that Mr. Guite and those who vote for him will be refused the sacraments of the church, because it was so stated by the bishop's agent. "The most recumstances connected with the affair cent act which we will lay before the that leave room for much speculation envoy of the Holy See the very day after his arrival on our soil," declares Mr. Tarte's paper, La Patrie, in ringing tones, "is the declaration which the was perpetrated. Valuable Booty Secured by the Robbers -Stealthy Work.

A robbery was committed early this morning in South London, at the residence of Mr. John Snaw, No. 62 Craig street. There are some mysterious ciras to the manner in which the theft

Mr. Shaw was one of the players in the whist match at the Oddfellows' Hall last night, and did not start for home until after the St. Thomas playnothing unusual, but his wife expressed the belief that someone was in the house. This Mr. Snaw thought was morning it was discovered that his quantity of highly-prized jewelry and wife's fears were fully realized. the pair of trousers Mr. Shaw had worn the night previous, with $10 in cash, were missing. The stolen jewelry included a fine gold watch with the monogram, "M. J. S." engraved upon it. and stars all over the outside case; a gold necklace and locket attached which was set with pearls; a brooch of a solid square of gold, with a diamond solitaire, and earrings of the same pattern. The articles were in blue plush cases. For reasons other than the intrinsic value of the articles, the loss is keenly felt by the owners. The door by which Mr. Shaw entered was fitted with both a spring and key lock, both of which, he says, he fastened. It was quite impossible that an entrance could have been effected by means of the windows or othe ors, as they were securely bolted. Whether or not the thief entered after Mr. Shaw by means of duplicate keys, or concealed himself in the house early in the evening is not known. The latter is more probable, however. The outside door was found wide open in the morning, and the bunch of keys sers' pocket was lying on the floor near by, apparently having been thrown there when required no further. Although the jewels were taken from the room in which Mrs. Shaw was sleeping, she was not alarmed after her husband's arrival, nor was he. The only other occupant was the servant girl, and she was not aroused either. Mrs. Shaw has been an invalid for some time, and the shock is a severe
