CENTER OF A BIG SENSATION Wife, Who Was Conspicuous in

World's Fair Affairs, at His Side to the End. St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 18 .- James L. Blair, former counsel for the world's fair and the central figure in a big embezzlement scandal here, died at Eustis, Fla., Saturday. He had been taken with a congestive chill on Jan. 11, and never recovered. Mrs. Blair and their son, Perry, were with him at the time of his death. Mr. Blair, who had been one of the foremost lawyers and reformers here. was charged a short time ago by a former employe with the embezzlement of large sums of money that had been intrusted to him. Mr. Blair undertook to fight the charges, and then broke down. It is alleged that he twice attempted suicide, but the fact has not been fully verified. His country house in the suburbs was dismantled and everything of value, including his horses and carriages, sold. Mrs. Blair, who was president of the board of lady managers of the world's fair, resigned and devoted herself to nursing her hussuccessful search for treasure in Terra band. del Fuego. As soon as bond had been arranged on the indictments Mr. and Mrs. Blair left the hospital in December and went to Eustis, Fla., in the hope that his health might be benefited by the change of climate and environment. James Lawrence Blair was born in St. Louis on April 2, 1854. He was the third son of the late Gen. Francis Preston Blair of distinguished memory, and the grandson of Francis Preston Blair, of Washington, D. C., a friend day night, Oct. 27. Mabel's body was of Lincoln and Jackson.
