Mentrealers, big four champions, had about six of last year's team in line against Ottawa Saturday, and the once-famous Rough Riders scored a win. And again we feel called upon to notice that the west is furnishing the most desirable sites for championships. With the Minto Cup in Westminster, the N. L. U. championship in Toronto, and the football rag billed for Hamilton, all that is left for the effete east is the Stanley Cup. now that it has become a hard cash proposition, who knows but that the coming winter will see some westtrn outfit put in the highest bid for it?-Toronto Telegram.

Up in Hamilton the critics are far from being satisfied with the Tiger outfit, even after its most thorough defeat of the Argonauts. Defects in the play are pointed out that must be remedied before the team rounds into championship one.

But if the Tigers are weak, what must the Argos be like? The Tigers set upon them at Hamilton and actually devoured them. The T. A. A. C. bunch did bad enough, but the Argo outfit was positively distressing .- News.

The strength of the O. R. F. U. was shown on Saturday, when one junior game was rlayed, a beautiful record, indeed, after all the claims of the once great union .- Spectator.

The departure of Argonauts from Hamilton, Ont., Saturday night was, to say the least, decidedly reminiscent, and you kept thinking how broken in spirit Napoleon must have been as he beat it over the snows of Russia for some haven of rest. And after the awful slaughter on the football field, Argos were quite willing to beat a hasty retreat to Toronto and strengthen up, before returning to the
