IN A WILD FINISH

Tie Score in Eighth Round Through Morgan's Wildness and Win in the Ninth.

DEL'S SMASH WINS OUT

Puts Mullin Across the Plate With Deciding Tally-Only One Earned. Run.

Detroit, Aug. 11 .- One of those old finishes of the Tigers which the fans had almost forgotten about, tieing the score in the eighth and winning out in the ninth, enabled the Tigers to stop the Athletics for a while at least in their mad rush for the pennant and to take the third game of the series from the Athwas a smash from Jim Delehanty's in the ninth inning that brought Mullin across the plate with the run that won his own game, after George had reached first through a clean single, with two men out, but it was only after the Tigers had come from behind in a gan in which things broke just right for them at the right time, after they seemed to have tossed the contest away in its early

Morgan, however, can assign the cause of his defeat to no one other than him-self, for his own wildness allowed the Tigers to score in the eighth inning after a great many fans had given the game up for lost and started for home. In this inning he hit Delehanty and walked Cobb, and afterwards let both of them score on a wild pitch, Cobb, by some great sprint-ing, coming all the way from second on the pitch. The score:

Montreal Presented With Game by Newark Band of Indians.

Newark, Aug. 11 .- Errors by Schlafly, Louden and Zimmerman were responsible for the defeat of the Indians today by the Royals. Schlafly fumbled Demmitt's grounder in the second, and Louden pegged Nattress' grounder wild to head off Demmitt at second, both being safe. After Cockill had popped to Lee, Schlafly knocked down Holly's grounder, but the bounded from him and Demmitt With two out in the third, Zimmerman let Jones' grounder get away and Demmitt's single advanced him to second. On an attempted double steal, Demmitt was forced to return to first, but Schlafly, who had him by a mile, threw over Ag-ler's head and Jones crossed before the ball was recovered.

ball was recovered.

A pass to Zimmerman, Ganley's out, Holly's boot of Louden's grounder, and Krichell's wild peg to first to catch the latter napping, furnished Newark's only run. George Brown, former Giant, joined Newark today. The score:

LANGFORD REFUSES TO FIGHT KAUFMAN

Claimed Postponement Hurt His Condition, Then Asked for $7.500.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The following re-leases and contracts in the American A CASE OF "COLD FEET"

Promoter Edwards Refused to be Held Up and White Mans Manager

Calls it "Backdown," [By Associated Press.]

Philadelphia, Aug. 11.—The contest betwee. Al Kaufman and Sam Langford, scheduled to take place at the Philadelphia Ball Park tonight, was called off today because Langford refused to fight.

Promoter Harry D. Edwards announced Promoter Harry D. Edwards announced that Langford had left the city, and he stands prepared to return the money paid in advance for the fight, which imounts to $20,000.

When the men signed articles there was a clause to the effect that in the event of rain on the evening of Aug. 10, the bout should be held the first following clear night. When the post-ponement was made last night on account of rain, the natural inference was hat it would be held this evening.

The Backdown.
Shortly after the announcement was made that Joe Woodman, manager for Sam Langford, informed Promoter Ed was too valuable to be risked that way. Finally Edwards said that he would not consent to a postponement until next Wednesday, and demanded a definite reply. To this Langford said he would box tonight provided he received a guarantee of $7,500, otherwise he was going back to Postan. back to Boston Tried a Hold-Up.

Edwards declined to be held up for that amount, and declared the fight off.
Trainer Delaney was angry clear through when seen today. He said: "Langford's excuses are the lamest I even heard, and it looks like a case of cold feet. It is a backdown, and since it is the second time that Langford has quit in matches with Kaufman, he will never get another chance at him. Now our objective point is a match with Johnson, Lang or Burns."
