47th YEAR, NO. 20314

KILLED BYTRAIN

PRICE TWO CENTS.

FOWLER REPEATED STORY OF ATTACK WITH KNIFE! The Big Plant of the Hurndall

Bloody Battle in a West TEN-YEAR-OLD BOY London Butcher Shop Recounted in the County Court.

'S FASHION

e Showing

Styles in sses

ists

ELIVERED.

n trimming.

Waists, with al, king's blue. Price..$5.00

RQUISETTE

an exceptionally nbroidered mar

s from to $6.50

k of Lingerie

an at the present

Dutch necks and

AL FOR

and $5.00

NDON.

DAS STREET.

always reach

ey that is on ith the Home

you are out of d back your

and a check

Home Bank.

y will be re-

you by next

h your pass-

HMOND ST.

and Connections

London-Ilderton, c, St. Thomas, Lawrence Station. nd them, they were tily surprised at the en the races. I have ke more violently, but I have heard anyone orse in regard to the of the statements, members of one race, gard to members of Booker T. Washing in the Outlook.

OIL'S WEALTH. il Company has a capi-

000,000, of which $100,- and $10,000,000 is pre-posed to have a surplus

ntly advanced from 671

It closed on the curb was known at 650 bid s of the company, ac-ast annual report, were e. These assets do not so of the company's oil sich is figured at $400,-$300 a share so that in the value of the Stand-uld be about $688 a.

as 8,000 miles of trunk niles of feeders and con-of the refining business aving 2 refineries, each acity of from 15,000 to and maintains oil sup-0000 stations throughout ss, holds 80,000,000 bar-lally in reserve and re-cars and 5,000 tank initial domestic dis-half of the company's so consumed abroad. 200 so coan tank steamed in transporting its foreign business has country more than region of the country more than region and in the country more than the n Office

K-END

IE WAISTS.

AISTS.

GIVEN A RAKING

Mr. J. M. McEvoy Spent Much Time in the Cross-Examination Today.

When the county court oppened this orning William Heslop, of West London, was arraigned on a charge of having on the night of Saturday, Dec. 24, 1910, done grievous bodily harm o James B. Fowler, a West London utcher. Heslop was represented by butcher. Heslop was represented by Mr. J. M. McEvoy, and pleaded not guilty. He said he was ready for trial. case is expected to occupy som The jury was chosen as follows:

ohn O'Neil, Metcalfe; R. Squires Lobo: R. T. Rose, Westminster; Jonathan Ardiel, London Township; Wal-ter Vail, Lobo; John T. Lethbridge, Ekfrid: Hiram Lumley, Mosa; E. B Vickerson, Westminster; D. J. McFie, West Williams; Jas. Baskerville, West Nissouri; Geo. Ryland, London Town-ship; Addison Uptegrove, Delaware. Three of the men called, Jas. Self, London; G. Fulton, Ailsa Craig, and L. H. Martyn, London, were chalnged by Crown Attorney McKillop.

The Witneses.
Up to 3 o'clock this afternon the

Dr. John Wishart; James Fowler, the plaintiff; John Morden, an entirely new witness, whom the plaintiff produced, at the very last minute, and Harry Clare, Fowler's shop clerk.

Mrs. Heslop was an interested spectator throughout the proceedings. She sat on the bench immediately behind and to the left of her husband, and Mr. McEvoy drew conspicuous attention to her once when the new witness, Morden, stated that he did not know her and had never seen her.

"She is right here in the courtroom," said Mr. McEvoy, "stiting right over there," an dhe indicated her position.

Heslop never for a moment paid the after nearly six months, recovered

t, after nearly six months, recovered a use of his arm."

The Assault.

Mr. McKillop then went thoroughly to the story of the assault.

It will no doubt be urged upon you," said, in concluding, "that the acsed had good reason for doing what did. I contend that no reason did justify him in doing what he reflendly with him. On the afternon of Dec. 24 witness delivered some goods there, and then in the evening went tere, and then in the evening went there, and then in the evening went there, witness was not invited, but a sparty three. Witness was not invited, but a witness went ower to pay Clare his wares. Witness went to the rear door of Heslop's house, and when he went in Heslop asked him to have a drink of beer from a keg that was there. Witness did so, and Mrs. Heslop, John Heslop asked him to thave a drink of beer from a keg that was there. Witness did so, and Mrs. Heslop, John Heslop asked him to have a drink of beer from a keg that was there. Witness did so, and Mrs. Heslop, John Heslop and Clare came into the room. William Heslop said: "Jim, I have run you dry whiskey." and witness said, "I have a bottle at the shop that you may have."

Started for Shop.

Started for Shop.

Started for Shop.

Heslop did not say anything, and witness, after having another drink of beer, started for his shop to get the whiskey. He left by the rear door, and after leaving he noticed Mrs. Heslop following be(Continued on Page Eight.)

HAREM SKIRT "O. K." SAYS EX-LONDONER

LOSING HIS EYESIGHT

Sad Case of Little Geo. Hobbs, lowing witnesses had bene heard: furnished the material for a warm and Dr. John Wishart; James Fowler, the lengthy session of the county council position.

Hestop never for a moment paid the slightest attention to his wife. It is stated that never since the night of the assault has he had anything to do with her.

Case for the Crown.

Case for the Crown. the assault has he had anything the with her.

Case for the Crown.

"The case before you," said Crown Attorney McKillop, in addressing the jury, "is a most serious one. It might easily have been one of murder. The easily have been one of murder. The was nothing in the county bylaws, he building by 9 o'clock at night. There was nothing in the county bylaws, he a butcher knife that he has not said, providing for this, and the help thought it a great hardship.

A Hardship.

"I would consider it a hardship myself," he said, "particularly when flowers.

A huge throng of sightseers assembled outside the church in the hope of seeing the King and Queen, but their Majesties were unable to attend.

FOUR LIVES LOST ATTEMPTING RESCUE

DISASTROUS FIRE AT ORANGEVILLE

Company Destroyed.

MANY ARE OUT OF WORK The Proprietor Managed To Save His Books and Documents.

The Proprietor Managed To Save His Books and Documents.

Sad Case of Little Geo. Hobbs, a Lad From the County.

A RAKING IN THE BOX McEvoy Spent Much in the Cross-Examination Today.

McEvoy Spent Much in the Cross-Examination Today.

McEvoy Spent Much in the Cross-Examination Today.

Solid Register of the Solid R

HAVE TURNED UP

LONG LOST HEIRS

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, June 9.—A romance was shattered when Col. Logie, of Hamilat Osgoode Hall this morning that W been missing since 1873, and who were supposed to have been massacred by Indians when children, had been lo-

Mr. McKillop then went thoroughly into the story of the assault.

"It will no doubt be urged upon you," he said, in concluding, "that the accused had good reason for doing what he did. I contend that no reason would justify him in doing what he did."

Dr. John Wishart, the first witness called to attend Fowler in St. Joseph's Hospital. Dr. Tilmann, he said, who attended Fowler in St. Joseph's Hospital. Dr. Tilmann, he said, who attended Fowler first, was ill and unable to attend.

Morfolk's COUSIN

Witness said he found three cuts on Fowler's arm, a cut above his eye and one on his nose, which required stitches, A knife like the butcher-knife produced would cause the cuts. The wound on the upper part of the light arm severed the nerve and paralyzed the muscles. It would be one year, at least, before Fowler would get the proper use of his arm, but it might between yet well.

Work of them do not get through with their work until 8 5'clock. They are deprived of practically any recreation. They cannot go into town to the town to attend any amusements, as it is nearly a mile to go, and by the time Continued on Page Ten.

NORFOLK'S COUSIN

WEDS MISS JAMES

Brilliant Society Affair at St. George's, Hanover Square, Yesterday.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 9.—There was a brilliant step to have now been massacred by Indians when children, had been located in Texas. Mr. Baker lives in cared in Texas, and his sister is living at Houston, Texas, and his sister is living at Houst stitches. A knife like the butcher-knife produced would cause the cuts. The wound on the upper part of the right arm severed the nerve and paralyzed the muscles. It would be one year, at least, before Fowler would get the proper use of his arm, but it might never get well.

Fowler in the Box.

Fowler was called into court, and showed his arm, with great scars of hit.

He was put in the box and gave detailed as to the location of his shop, tails a

FORECASTS.

Western Ontario—Southeast and south winds; mostly fair and warmer tonight and Saturday; a few local thunderstorms. Ottaws and Upper St. Lawrence—Fair and warm. Saturday—Warm and mostly fair, with a few local thunderstorms. Lower St. Lawrence and Gulf—Moderate winds; fair and moderately warm today and Saturday.

Maritime Provinces—Moderate variable winds; fine and warm today and Saturday.

[Canadian Press.]

St. Catharines, June 8.—The first harem skirt appeared in St. Catharines show loss their lives in a futile effort to save the life of Pearl Coursey, at a local theatre, She created a lot of attention. Asked about it, Chief or Richard St. Catharines of age, daughter of a merchant, who had ventured out too far while wad-ling in Bowie River. The dead are Mrs. Police Green said, "No, why should the loss ing indecess about it." There is nothing indecess about it."

[Canadian Press.]

Hattiesburg, Mich., June 9.—Four per winds. Minds in the subject of the s

AT THE CANADIAN PREMIER ALD. SAUNDERS UNIONIST PRESS FURIOUS

Enraged at Sir Wilfrid's Defence of the Dominion's Autonomy -British Opposition Organs Call Him "Wet Blanket" On the Conference.

[Canadian Press.]

London, June 9.—Sir Wilfrid Laurthing but the sentimental link of the London, June 9.—Sir Wilfrid Laur-ler's defence of Canada's autonomy and his opposition to any measure proposed in the Imperial Conference which might affect the Dominion's archy, and calls him a "wet blanket" on the conference. Other Unionist or right of self-government, is stirring gans, in effect, say the same thing. Sir the Unionist press to wrath. The Standard says that it seems to be on these attacks.

THE SEPARATION OF QUEEN'S BEFORE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Seventy Per Cent of Graduates in Favor of Separation, Declares Principal Gordon — Quebec Protestant Schools Lack Teachers.

the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa to

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, June 9.—In his report on this respect."

1. **Castern Ontario is also very bad this respect.**

the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa to the Presbyterian General Assembly, Rev. J. H. MacFarlane, home missionary secretary, said that there is great need of remedy in the Protestant schools of Quebec. There are 1,200 elementary Protestant teachers in Quebec, of whom over 400 have never qualified, and many are ill-fitted for the work. In many cases there are no English schools at all.
"About 1,500 Presbyterian English Protestant children in Quebec are in Roman Catholic schools," he said.

"Continued on Page Eleven. YOUNG MAN GIVEN

COUNTY JUDGE TO INVESTIGATE

Board of Works Ask That the Mulhall Charges Be Probed.

AFFIDAVITS WERE PUT IN Ald. Cooper Resents Statement of Tancock That Part of Board Is Prejudiced in Mulhall's Favor.

Resolved, that His Honor the Senior Judge of the county of Middlesex be requested to investigate pursuant to Section 324 of the Municipal Act, 1903, the alleged malfeasance or misconduct of the city's employee, Mr. Patrick Mulhall, as set out in statutory declarations filed by Ald. J. A. Tancock, and

The above resolution was unarmously passed at the meeting of the board of works last night, and it expected that Judge Macbeth will is an be investigated.

The affidavits secured by Ald. Tanwere presented to the committee cock were presented to the committee last night. Accompanying them was a letter stating that they were handed over on the understanding that the county judge would investigate the alleged wrongdoing.

There were six of the documents, One of them, that of Alex. Henderson's, was sworn to before Mr. U. A. Buchner, while the others were sworn to by Ald. Tancock.

Sent to the ludge.

Sent to the Judge.

When they were presented. Mayor Beattle at once noved that the whole matter be sent to the county judge. "It was necessary that the original documents should be in the possession of this committee," explained his worship. "Without them we would have nothing to investigate. I spoke to Ald. Tanegek about the matter, and he was loath to give up the documents, but he at last decided to do so. He wanted an investigation before the matter of the matter were decidedly in favor of an inwe were decidedly in favor of an Investigation by the county judge."

"We asked him to make a charge before the judge, and he would not do so," declared Ald. Saunders.
"I do not think these charges should have come to this committee at all," continued Ald. Cooper. "If there was any wrongdoing it was committed uring his year as chairman of the committee, and he should have stepped it. Ware not to blame in any way for it."

The chairman then paid his respects to the newspapers, who deliberately mission to the committee of the comm

The chairman then paid his respects to the newspapers, who deliberately mispersent him, he declares.

No Untainness.

Ald. Eckert has completed the list of band concerts for the season, and the official schedule has been announced. The first concert will be on Untainness, and we cannot be charged with untainn

Judge MacBeth Told Joseph R. Levitt What He Thought

A SCATHING ROAST

CHARGE AGAINST ALD. TANGOCK Former Is Incensed At WALKING ON TRACK Statements Made by

James Clark, of Branchton, Run Down South of Galt.

[Canadina Press.]

Galt, Ont., June 9. — As he was walking along the tracks of the G. T. R., four miles south of Galt, this morning, James Clark, of Branchton, was run down by a train and instantly killed. He was walking between the rails ahead of the train, and although the engineer whistled three times, he failled to regard the warning signal and before the train could be brought to a standstill he was run over. His body was terribly mangled and his head almost severed. He was about 59 years old.

BARBERS SAY THEY WILL RUSH WORK

Monday Next.

MAY BE TROUBLE AHEAD In addition, Ald, Saunders will move

Not Known as Yet What the City Will Do Regarding the London Street Railway. Superintendent Driscolf, of the Bar

er Asphalt Company, arrived in the ity this morning, and informed City Engineer Wright that he would have his men at work on Monday morning re-surfacing.
All the material necessary is on hand try we find men like you. We have had to organize societies all over to try and protect girls from such men as I strongly suspect you are. It is a cruel and heartless thing for any man to do, and as I told you, I cannot express —v contempt for you."

USES LISLE STOCKING TO COMMIT SUICIDE

TO COMMIT SUICIDE

This met with the approval of the council, but some of them declare now that at the next meeting they will be that position to decide definitely what is in the best interests of the city. "Of course, if the council issue orders to put the pavement down, we will have it put down," said City Engineer Wright. "It will not make as good a job as it would be if we waited until the company had their tracks down. It is quite a difficult task to lay steel to asphalt, much more so than the way we are doing on the other streets, I would like to have it done, as it is being done, but I realize that it is an would like to have it done, as it is being done, but I realize that it is an injustice to the merchants who have had a lot to put up with, for the past year. If we get orders to do the job we will do it, make no mistake, and we will make as good a job as we possibly can."

Merchants Compplain.

Latter. MULHALL CASE

OPENS NEW VEIN Looks as Though Judge Macbeth Will Have a Busy Time Shortly.

"Any man who will lie like that, will

In this rather short sentence. Ald. unders expresses his opinion of Ald. ancock who declared vesterday that Ald, Saunders and Ald, Cooper were prejudiced and would not give the arges against Ward Foreman Patick Mulhall a proper hearing.

Aid. Saunders is after the scalp of Big Gang of Men To Be Put Ald. Tancock, and it is just possible a writ for slander will be issued against the latter for statements he made regarding Ald. Saunders. The latter is now consulting his lawyer on the subject.

at the next meeting of the council that the charges circulated last year against Ald, Tancock be investigated by the county judge at the same time that the Mulhall charges are being Must Prove Statement "I never heard of such a man as Ald. Tancock in my life," said Ald. Saunders. "He deliberately states what is Joseph R. Levitt, the young Grand In Irunk brakeman, charged with criminally assaulting Myrtle Orum, an idiot, residing on Ingleside street, afternoon by Judge Macbeth. The Judge gave the matter a great deal of arguments, and decided that as Mrs. Orum, the girl's mother, did not take the necessary steps to secure evidence until too long a time had elapsed, that he could not find Levitt guilty.

"I' want you to understand though, he said, "that I cannot find words strong enough to express my contempt for a man who will act as you have done. I am satisfied that you went to the girl's home with the intention of a time had elapsed that the vidence of a man who will act as you have done. I am satisfied that you went to the girl's home with the intention of any one with the intention of any of the council of two true regarding me, and he will and he expected that they would be up to true regarding me, and he will and he expected that they would be up to the street railway inside of two weeks.

"We are going to put on every available man we can get," the foreman and formed The Advertiser. "We will not one get at it."

They will be able to complete Richmond street south of Dundas, and Dundas, and Dundas, cast of Richmond, as the rail-those sections by the end of the week. The Harber Company will be through with those sections by the end of the week. The Harber Company will be definitely known whether or not the Barber Asphalic Company, will be instructed to go a formed and protect girls from such men as the following to say about me:

"I want you to understand though, he said, "that I cannot find words the necessary steps to secure evidence to the best man the council it will be definitely known whether or not the Barber Asphalic Company will be instructed to go and want right he had to do the best man the provided of the council of the council of the council will be definitely known will be through with the work of re-surfacing of the city of the council of t newspapers I see that Ald. Saunders declares that he believes Mulhall guiltless. This, I claim, is a direct indication that the committee is preju-

"It is all false," added Ald. Saunders, "and he knows it. I will give him a chance to prove these things in court, not protected by the privileges of the going to get after him."

An Explanation.

"As a matter of fact, I, not Ald. Cooper, voted to send this matter to No. committee. I knew by the way he he was loath to give up the documents, but he at last decided to do so. He wanted an investigation before the judge. An investigation before the judge. An investigation before the judge. An investigation conducted by this committee would be of no value, where you have the county into the charges, we would be accused of whitewashing Muhall. I would, therefore move a resolution to the effect that the senior judge be requested to investigate the whole question. He was led to examine under oath, and get at the facts of the case."

Ald Tancock Criticised.

BATTLE IN MCROCCO.

London, June 9.—Special dispatches from Tanger report that the French from plants the ending the endeavor to the county independent of the case.

BATTLE IN MCROCCO.

London, June 9.—Special dispatches from Tanger report that the French from plants the adject and the engineering amanth the ending the engangement of the engangement of the engangement of the engangement of the case of the case.

BATTLE IN MCROCCO.

London, June 9.—Special dispatches from Tanger report that the French from plants the engineering of the engangement of the county judge.

BATTLE IN MCROCCO.

London, June 9.—Special dispatches from Tan had chased up the affidavits after night

Hunting for Witnesses. In the meantime, there has been a considerable amount of hustling for witnesses and affidavits.

Both sides are out to protect themelves, and every person who knows the least thing about the matter will be ummoned to court to give evidence.

According to information given The Advertiser today, Mr. Mulhall has affi-

Woman, Her Two Sons, and Victim's [Canadian Press.]

THE WEATHER. Tomorrow-Mostly Fair.

Toronto, June 9.—The barrometer in highest in Ontario and the Middle States and lowest in the Northwest States Thunderstorms are prevalent this morning in Northwestern Ontario and Manitoba, while elsewhere in the Dominior the weather is fair and are defended by warm day, Lake Superior—Fresh southeast winds; showery. Saturday—Moderate southwest

LIST IS NOW ARRANGED

First Civic Event Will Take Place in Victoria Park on Tuesday

Evening Next—Seventh Regiment Band Will Play.