Canadian Press Despatch.
Montreal, Feb. 10.—Canadiens have climbed from the bottom position in the N. H. L. to second place, after a game remaining, are bunched on even terms with St. Pats and Hamilton for second place. The climb from the cellar was made here Saturday at the expense of St. Pats, who were beaten 1-0, while Hamilton was conceding defeat to Ottawa at the capital.

With the score 4 to 0 in their favor going into the final period, the locals eased up in their effort, but this their margin might have been greater, for St. Pats carried the play in the latter stages and broke through with three goals, although they never became a danger to the Canadiens, John Ross Roach added his quota towards keeping the goal averages of the Canadiens in check.

All the brilliant displays of the game were packed into the first two periods, though there were a few high points reached in the final session.
St. Pats started with a rush, and for the first period held their own with the local squad, battling in fact well into the second period before finally giving way under the speedy and consistent attacks of the Canadiens forwards.

The line-up:
Canadiens—Goal, Vezina; defence, S. Clegghorn and Mantha; center, W. Boucher; wings, Morenz and Joliat; subs, Bell, O. Clegghorn, Cameron and R. Boucher.
St. Pats—Goal, Roach; defence, Stuart and Corbeau; center, Adams; wings, Noble and Dye; subs, Jackson, Arthur and Loughlin.
Referee—Art Ross.

TIGERS LOSE CLOSE GAME.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, Feb. 10.—Ottawa sent the Hamilton Tigers down to defeat by a score of 1 to 0 in their last game here last night. The game was one of the nip and tuck variety, with little doubt separating the teams. The result was in doubt till the final goal was scored, and only a careful and stubborn defence kept the aggressive Tiger attack from taking the count in the final moments.

For the game was one of the tamer seen here this year in professional hockey. Lou Marsh had one of the easiest nights of his career as a referee, and was not called upon to inflict any serious penalty. While the result was close, and only a careful and stubborn defence kept the aggressive Tiger attack from taking the count in the final moments.

Hamilton—Goal, Forbes; defence, Randall and Procter; center, Burch; wings, R. Green and S. Green; subs, C. Denney, and H. Denney.
Ottawa—Goal, Bennett; defence, Hitchman and Chancy; center, Hinchman; wings, C. Denney and Broadbent; subs, Garragh, Helman, Campbell and Smylie.
Referee—Lou Marsh.

Floyd Johnson's comeback was like a crash of lightning at the Pioneer Sporting Club on Tuesday night. Johnson knocked out Jack Douglas in two minutes and 30 seconds, and did it with the despatch of a Dempsey. The fellow was like a big kid over his achievement at the bout.
"No more round-house swinging for me," said Johnson. "I've had my experience and I will hit shorter from now on. I've been trying everything except what I was told to do and I've come to grief in the ring. I have only been my own front. I can see my mistakes now. How I ever lost to Renault is beyond me. I can whip him and could the best day he ever saw. I'm not taking any credit away from Jack. He's a good fighter, but I'll only ask for a chance to prove that I am a better one. They can't match us too quickly. I'll beat him sure next time."

CHAPTER XXIII.
BY TEX RICKARD.
In one infantry regiment with which I was pretty well acquainted the commanding officer issued an order that every enlisted man in his outfit must box at least three rounds every day. His idea was that the more physical contact would rid the men of any timidity and make them willing to face anybody on an even footing.

All Eyes on Carpenter.
This commanding officer laid particular emphasis upon the weakest of his men, the one who had been in the army for the longest time, and who was the most experienced. He was also the one who was the most experienced.

Incidentally, since I have had the management of Madison Square Garden, and particularly the promotion of fights, we have given to charity more than $500,000. It might interest you to know that fighter's and the Garden management have furnished the most of the funds to operate all the milk stations in New York established for the poor babies.

This Irish fellow, who is not a political affair, it had nothing to do with England or Ireland. It was merely to care for the families made homeless and hungry by the conflict.

Charity Needs a Good Card.
"It's all right about the management," I was told. "We have got together a committee of Irish fight managers, boxers and so on. They have arranged the matches."

"Just the same," I told the committee, "I want to see what they have done. Don't forget one thing—patrimony is fine and dandy, but I have found that the best way to clinch a fight is to sign up the fighters first and then make the match afterwards."

Champion Guaranteed $100,000.
I located Jess Willard on the road and made an engagement to meet him in Chicago.

There was no particular match talked about at the moment. Several challenges had been thrown at Willard, but he had refused to accept any of them. He knew, of course, that I had Dempsey in mind.

"I said to him, 'are you willing to box any man in the world if the money is big enough?'"
"Sure," he said. "What's the idea?"
"Well, here it is: I'll guarantee you $100,000 if you'll sign an agreement to box anybody that I name on July 1st."

CHAPTER XXIII.

BY TEX RICKARD.

We often boast of our natural American love for sport and contest, but experience at Madison Square Garden has taught me that the main supporters of boxing, when it comes to numbers and to spirit, are the Jews and the Italians. This, of course, applies to New York.

I don't know if this is true of other sports, but I wouldn't be surprised. Baseball men tell me that the Jews are great baseball fans. Italians also become fans quickly.

This was a big surprise to me when I first came to New York, and an interesting thing to study. Mind you, in my early days I had never come in contact with many foreigners or with foreigners even of the second generation, now American citizens, and I was very much interested.

I wasn't long in getting at the facts, however, in Madison Square Garden. I took a chance on my judgment as to who would be the most numerous and about the sporting the Jews and the Italians. I was right.

Incidentally, since I have had the management of Madison Square Garden, and particularly the promotion of fights, we have given to charity more than $500,000. It might interest you to know that fighter's and the Garden management have furnished the most of the funds to operate all the milk stations in New York established for the poor babies.

"Well, here it is: I'll guarantee you $100,000 if you'll sign an agreement to box anybody that I name on July 1st."

We talked this over at length. At last he agreed to sign.

In the meantime there was much talk of other matches for Willard, all sorts of offers being made. As I was in touch with Jack Dempsey and Jack Kearns, his manager, I was sure, I had the champion signed up to fight for me. The fight and the place could be decided later.

I then went back to New York and got in touch with Jack Dempsey and Jack Kearns, his manager. I was sure, I had the champion signed up to fight for me. The fight and the place could be decided later.
