STRATHROY MATTERS.

Strathroy, Oct. 29.—The Edward McGarvey false pretences case before the P. M. this morning came to an end. McGarvey has taken back the goods; or, rather, returned them by G. T. R. Mr. Pollinsbee, for complainant, appeared, and said he had no evidence to offer, and John Cameron, for defendant, asked that the charge be dismissed. Ordered.

James Ellison, hotel-keeper, was fined $20 and costs the other day for selling during prohibited hours.

Francis Marshall laid a complaint against Hugh Bolton, both of Carleton Place, threatening to kill him. P. M. Noble heard the case on Monday, and ordered Bolton to enter into his own recognizance to keep the peace for twelve months in the sum of $200, and reserved the matter of costs until Monday next.

A Model Farmer.

Ingessell Chronicle.

The Joseph Ham farm, 100 acres, lot 22, con. 1, Wallace, was sold by auction by Mr. P. E. Hay to Mr. Alexander Campbell, who owns the adjoining lot. It was knocked down to him at $3,100. Edmund Baigent, a present tenant of Mr. Campbell's Halpin farm, has bought the farm on the 4th of North Oxford lately owned by the Simpson family. Mr. Baigent is the third brother, when from being a tenant under Mr. Campbell, has purchased a farm for himself. Surely Mr. Campbell must be a model farmer when so many members of one family have prospered under him. Alexander Wilson has sold his farm, lot 26, con. 12, Elma; to Fred Schulz, for $3,500. Mr. Wilson intends to remove to Atwood.

The Toronto Mail-Enterprise says:—"His Grace Archbishop Walsh, of Toronto, will on Saturday celebrate the 42nd anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. He was ordained priest in 1854 by Archbishop Count Charbonnel, and since that time has worked industriously both as a priest and bishop in London and Toronto. His Grace's first appointment was to the parish of Brock, and many are the stories told of the hardships which he had to endure in his early life as a priest among the Catholic settlements. He was afterwards parish priest of St. Mary's Church, Toronto, and soon afterwards was appointed Vicar-General of the diocese. He was consecrated Bishop of London on November 12th, 1887, and on the death of Archbishop Lynch in 1889 was transferred to Toronto. Archbishop Walsh is a Catholic Bishop in every sense of the word. His great qualities of head and heart have endeared him to men of every race and creed. He is equally loved and respected by Protestants and Roman Catholics on account of his many views on questions affecting the duties of citizens to both Church and State, while by those of the Catholic household he is esteemed as a learned churchman, and loved as a kind and affectionate father. His people extend to him the sincere wish that he may live many more years in the Episcopate of which he is so conspicuous an ornament.

A "Texas steer" drew a large audience to the Music Hall last night. The name of the play is misleading, as there is no cattle ranch or cowboy business in the whole piece.

Also a society with frontier life thrown in. Miss Alice Newton portrayed the cattle king's Texas wife to perfection. Miss Wellesley showed her versatility as an actress in the role of Mrs. Major Campbell, of Texas, and Miss Doty, as Bossie, the cattle king's pet daughter, gave a very natural portrayal of an unsolicited Texan maiden, who had been transplanted from the ranch in Texas to fashionable society in Washington.

Harry Wesley, as Captain Bright, also gave a beautiful floral offering. Col. Bragg, a faro banker, and Chas. Burchas, Christopher Columbus Fishback, a colored statesman, were collected in support, and acquitted themselves admirably. Of course, the central figure in the piece is the cattle king, and Earl Doty fitted the part to perfection. The Vitascope view was even better than usual, and several new views were produced. They will give the "Noble Outcast" to-day for matinee, and Lights of London in the evening, these being the closing performances. Citizens should turn out en masse.

THE ELECTION PROTEST.

Examination of Discovery Held Before Col. Shanly.

A Round Half Dozen Present—Osler and Hellmuth the Counsel—Petitioner Peltz With His Grip—Press Representatives Debarred.

The examination of discovery in the protest against the election of Major Beattie as member for the city of London was held in the office of Col. Shanly, Master-in-Chancery, yesterday.

The examination was begun at 10 o'clock in the morning, with only six persons behind the tyed doors, and no possibility of any others gaining admittance. Mr. B. B. Osler, Q. C., of Toronto; Mr. L. F. Hellmuth, Mr. J. T. Maclellan, Mr. H. B. Beattie, Mr. George Feiwings, the petitioner, with his grip, and stenographer Coo, made up the half dozen. Mr. Osler representing the petitioner, and Mr. Hellmuth looking after the interests of the member.

Before the examination began the lawyers had a little discussion as to whether or not the proceedings should be taken in shorthand. The statute provides that they should be recorded in longhand, but in the large majority of cases the counsel agree to the stenographer being admitted, and each side furnished with a copy of the evidence. Mr. Osler, naturally, did not object in this case, but Mr. Hellmuth only agreed, after a consultation with Major Beattie, on condition that the proceedings should be taken in shorthand. Mr. Hellmuth did not feel very much like consenting to anything in this petition beside the dates for the hearing," said Mr. Hellmuth.

Press representatives were debarred.

The trial judges have not been announced, but it is understood that Mr. Robertson and Ferguson will preside.

SONS OF SCOTIA MEET.

Forty-Eighth Annual Gathering of St. Andrew's Society.

Reports Presented, Showing a Successful Year's Work—The New Staff of Officers—Celebration of St. Andrew's Day—Banquet to be Held.

The 48th annual meeting of the St. Andrew's Society was held in Somerset Hall last night, when reports of the year's work among the needy Scots, poor of the city were received, officers elected, and the celebration of St. Andrew's Day talked about. Col. John Macbeth, President, occupied the chair, and the following members were present:—Secretary Donaldson, R. K. Cowie, J. E. McKillop, Treasurer R. W. Jones, George Taylor, Robert Reid, T. H. Purdon, George Angus, James McSwen, Ald. Armstrong, Ald. Douglas, Donald Fraser, Malcolm Maitland, Arch. Sharp, Dr. MacLaren, Alex. Tytler, Wm. Tytler, John D. Clarke, James Shand, Walter Fairbairn, David Inglis, D. Anderson, J. Stevens, A. McIntosh, George Leing and J. McKay.

Secretary Donaldson's annual report was of a very gratifying nature. Through the mercies of God, the members of the Society had been permitted to enjoy health and happiness, and the Society in general vouchsafed a tide of prosperity unequalled in its history. Several gatherings were held during the year, and St. Andrew's Day was celebrated by a soiree. The second gathering was on Burns' night, when 150 celebrated the anniversary of Scotland's greatest bard by a quiet at the City Hotel. The annual picnic on the 10th anniversary of the death of Robert Burns was the enjoyable in the Society's history, and the most largely attended event on Port Stanley's heights. For the success of the affair, much credit was due to the members of Clan MacLaren, who, on the division of the profits of the picnic, kindly voted their share to the charitable fund of St. Andrew's Society. The relief committee had performed its labors with the utmost satisfaction, and the executive had ably seconded all efforts for the welfare of the organization.

The report of Treasurer John W. Jones showed a balance on hand of $251.28. The receipts for the year were $283.39, and the disbursements $27.11.

"I never saw anything like that before," remarked a member as the report was read.

Mr. George Taylor reported verbally that the relief committee had expended $112 during the year, making many homes happy.

The election of officers was conducted in the usual good spirit. Col. John Macbeth retired from the office of President, and a worthy successor was elected to the position. Mr. John W. Jones was anxious to retire from the office of Treasurer after twenty years of service, but the members would not listen to the idea.

"I would not do to break his heart by letting him drop out," said Mr. T. H. Purdon.

The officers chosen were:—President—Dr. MacLaren—Thomas H. Purdon. Vice-President—George Taylor. Secretary—Dan Donaldson (re-elected). Treasurer—J. W. Jones (re-elected). Auditors—R. A. Gray and Arch. Sharp.

Relief Committee—No. 1 Ward, Jas. Shand; No. 2 Ward, Alex. Tytler; No. 3 Ward, Donald Fraser; No. 4 Ward, A. Rowat; No. 5 Ward, Samuel Wright; No. 6 Ward, Col. Leys.

Chaplains—Rev. W. J. Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church; Rev. E. Sawers, of the First Presbyterian Church; and Rev. Thomas Wilson, of the King Street Church.

Physicians—Drs. Wishart, Arnott, McCullum, Waugh, Hugh Stevenson and Arch. Macbeth.

Pipers—George Angus and P. C. Thomas McDonald.

The best way to celebrate St. Andrew's Day was a matter that created a little discussion. Mr. George Angus moved that it be celebrated by a supper at the City Hotel.

Mr. J. W. Jones was on hand with his usual amendment that the day be celebrated by a soiree in the City Hall. "If you had turned in and worked for my soiree in the City Hall last year, as heartily as I have for dinners in the past, it would have been a success. I believe in the men taking one year, and letting the women take the next."

"But this is not a woman's society," said Mr. Reid.

"Yes," it is, replied Mr. Jones. "Some of the women take more interest in the St. Andrew's Society than the men." He moved that the day be celebrated by a tea fight and concert in the City Hall.

"I will take the vote," said Col. Macbeth.

"Jones knows the guzzlers have it," said Mr. Purdon, as the President declared the motion for a banquet carried.

The Executive Committee was empowered to make arrangements. The names of thanks were passed the retiring officers, and in replying Col. Macbeth assured the Society that, although he was not in an office, he would continue to work as earnestly as ever in its interests. He wished grand future for the St. Andrew's Society.

E. & J. THE WEATHER TO-DAY

Cloudy to partly fair and cool

—Some showers.

Points to Consider.

First consider the last purchase you made here. Was there any fault to find with the quality, the price, the style, or the service? If you have never bought here, to-day will be a good time to begin. You will have to go far to find bigger stores than ours, and you will travel further to find such choice selections, high quality and reasonable prices in dry goods. We choose the newest and best of every line. Everyone finds their choice here, if the newest and best is what they want, not at we-get-rich-quick prices, but at want-you-satisfied prices. There's a good deal of difference between these two ways of doing business. Customers should bear in mind, however, that high quality goods can never be sold at the same prices as shoddy. So if our prices should ever be placed in comparison with others, think of the quality and style.

Not expensive, but just what you want for Curtains and Drapery. We have a very nice line, new designs, in a variety of colorings, at 8c yard. A finer quality, wider widths, at 12c yard. A better quality than either at 20c. Make home look comfortable and cozy for winter.

American Goods, also for Curtains and Drapery. A very fine line now offering at a decided bargain. Patterns—Sweet pea, pansy and spig. Grounds—Tinted green, cream, blue, pink, buttercup and cardinal. Lovely goods. Will make home look lovely. Finer qualities at 15c, 18c and 20c yard.

New goods—new patterns—new colorings. Suitable for art cushion covers and home decorations. A home with cheerful surroundings is what every good housekeeper aims to have. We will help you to bear the expense by selling these at 18c yard.

Splendid for portiere curtains. Attractive, but not loud. All new colorings. All new designs. Worth more and usually sold for more than we are asking, 35c and 50c yard; wide width.

Also very much used for Portiere Curtains. Serviceable goods. Choice rich colorings and decidedly new patterns. Every lady requiring curtains should call and examine. 50c and 75c yard.

These lines are all specials. These lines are all worth examining if you don't buy. We promise not to coax you into purchasing if you don't want to. We treat others the way we like to be treated ourselves, and we invariably fight shy of those houses and dealers who endeavor to load us with goods that we know are not what we want and which our customers wouldn't buy.

A LENGTHY DOCKET

Disposed of by the P. M. in Quick Order—Drunks Remanded—A Well Known Trio—Statute Labor Delinquents Pay Up.

The Police Magistrate had a long list of cases on his blotter yesterday which he disposed of in quick order and without taking but very little notice of the apologies and excuses offered by the numerous transgressors.

Thomas Cake, Wm. Armstrong and Albert Bolton were in for being drunk. They were arrested near the Port Stanley bridge, where disorderly crowds of young men have made a practice of hanging out during the summer, and they went down on remand for a week. Bolton is also charged with stealing a coat from Joseph Fox's pawn shop on King street, and he will be given a chance to plead when he appears again on the last one standing.

ago for driving a team across a sidewalk, but asked for time to pay, and was given it. He never came back. Armstrong has just been released from Kingston Penitentiary after serving five years for figuring in the Deneen's Corners outrage. He gave the name of McLogue when arrested. Margaret Donnelly was fined $5 or 20 days for being drunk. She wanted another chance, but she has not behaved here since she was given the last one.

Henry Reid, an alleged breaker of a city by-law, was discharged. Seven young men paid their statute labor taxes to Collector Bell, and did not appear.

MRS. WINNER'S MURDER.

Richmond, Mo., Oct. 30.—The excitement over the murder of Mrs. Jesse Winner and her two children, finished speaking to-night he was in a state bordering on collapse. His voice failed near the end of his speech, but he managed to finish in comparatively good form. When he left the last hall in which he spoke he was supported by two officers and walked with considerable difficulty. His progress, however, barred at every step by the tremendous crowds. Once in the open air the candidate quickly recovered. He said the day had been particularly trying in him, but that after a night's rest he would be ready to go through the same thing again.

The deed, it is stated, was due to despondency, brought about by overwork. He was but 21 years old. He left letters to his mother and Mr. W. Roe, a fellow student.
