RIOTOUS MONTREALERS.

THE PEOPLE OBJECT TO RID THEMSELVES OF THE SMALLPOX.

Attack on a Health Office—The City Council Reduces its Vaccination Grant by More than a Half.

MONTREAL, Sept. 28.—This evening a most disgraceful anti-vaccination riot broke out among the French Canadian population. For some time past there have been mutterings against the stringent measures enforced by the board of health, and this afternoon at the meeting of the city council the grant for vaccination was cut down from $5000 to $2000. Three French Canadian aldermen announced that the city was on the eve of a riot. This proved only too true, for about 7 o'clock a howling mob surrounded the east end branch health office and completely wrecked the building. The police on duty were powerless, and the mob gathering strength from this marched upon the central office in the city hall. By this time, however, the riot alarm had been sounded and a strong force of constables were gathered inside the building, but for some time the constables were like dumb driven sheep, as there was not one to command them. After the mob smashed the central health office, they turned their attention to the central police station and soon had all the windows there reduced to atoms. Revolver shots were freely fired at the police, and to scare the people the officers fired over their heads, only to be received with jeers and laughter. Things now looked so bad that the men were armed with rifles and fixed bayonets, but happily it was not deemed necessary to use them. The constables charged the mob, clubbing them right and left and succeeded in dispersing them, but not before they had managed to wreck the greater portion of the court house windows, which are opposite the city hall. The mob broke up into different bodies and proceeded to wreck the windows of the Herald office, the windows of the medical health offices, the chairman of the finance committee and the public vaccinators. A number of arrests were made and the city is in a state of great excitement. It is thought that the riots will be continued to-morrow night. The police will patrol around the public buildings all night, while the military to-morrow will be held in readiness to put a stop to a repetition of such scenes.

After the rioters left the Herald office to-night they proceeded against the east end of the city. The rioters set fire to the residence of Dr. Laporte, one of the public vaccinators, on Plessis street, but the fire was extinguished before any material damage was done. The house, however, was badly wrecked by the stones fired by the mob. Dr. Laberge, medical officer, and Ald. Grenier, chairman of the finance committee, also had their houses damaged.

Another attack was made on the east end health office, the policemen on guard being overpowered and the chief, who went in to protect the building, was clubbed and kicked about the face. They cleared out all the placards and disinfectants in the office and did other damage. They also tore down the placards marking the vaccination stations in several places. While the chief of police was at the health office he noticed a man trying to knock down a stove to set fire to the place, when he gave the fire alarm and when the firemen came to put out the fire some men came up with axes and threatened to cut the hose as soon as water was turned on. The chief of police was rescued and taken home. Batons were used with vigor, and many of the rioters were badly cut about the head and face. Several arrests have been made, including the ringleader of the rioters.

The health office returns to-day show that there were 48 deaths in the city yesterday, 3 in St. Henri, 2 in St. Cunegonde, and 3 in Cote St. Louis. This makes 253 for the week ending last night, beside about 70 in outside municipalities.

Guarding Against Smallpox.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 28.—The secretary of the treasury has issued the following circular to customs officers in regard to the prevention of smallpox:

Inspectors and other officers of customs on the Canadian frontier will aid the sanitary inspectors of the Marine hospital service and similar inspectors acting under state authority, as far as practicable, without interference with their respective duties, and will furnish them such facilities for examination of baggage as may be practicable.

Victims at New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Two children died at the hospital to-day from smallpox.

ABYSSINIANS AND ARABS.

A Battle Imminent—Progress of the Relief Expedition Barred.

CAIRO, Sept. 28.—The Abyssinian expedition under Ras Aloula which is advancing to the relief of the garrison at Kassala is meeting with serious opposition from the Arabs, who have massed in sufficient numbers to bar its further progress. The latest report from the expedition is that 3000 Arabs occupy a fortified position from which they will have to be driven before a further advance is made. A battle is imminent, as the Abyssinian general is determined to accomplish the relief of the beleagured garrison, for which he is to be paid a round sum of money.

BY THE LIGHT OF THE MOON.

Raid Upon Farms in Kerry and Killarney—30 Per Cent. Reduction Demanded.

DUBLIN, Sept. 28.—Thirty moonlighters made a raid last night upon the farms belonging to the estates of Sir Henry Donovan in Kerry, and made the tenants swear that they would withhold their rents unless they were granted a reduction of 30 per cent. The tenants of Herbert Kenmare's estates in Killarney, headed by priests, to-day visited the proprietor and demanded a reduction of 30 per cent. in rents. The demand was refused, and the tenants withdrew, declining to pay their rents.

An Italian Attack on Tripoli.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 28.—The porte has become alarmed at the persistent reports to the effect that an Italian expedition is being fitted out for the purpose of seizing Tripoli, and has ordered reinforcements to be sent there at once. The strength of the Turkish troops in Tripoli is to be raised to 15,000 men, and great energy is being displayed in putting the forts there in better condition for defence.

Signs of War in Servia.

BELGRADE, Sept. 28.—The military authorities have taken possession of the railways throughout Servia and ordinary travel has been stopped. In addition to the reserves 60,000 of the landwehr have been called out for active service.

Socialistic Uproar at Amsterdam.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 28.—The confirming of the sentence recently passed on the socialist Van Ommeren created a riot here to-day. A large number of persons were injured.

THE CAPE MAY CUP.

A Third Victory for the English Yacht Genesta.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Cape May challenge cup goes to England also as one of the Genesta's prizes, she having won her last and perhaps easiest victory by beating her former competitor, the schooner Dauntless, in the race from Sandy Hook around the Cape May lightship and return. The Genesta had the lead at the start and kept it throughout the race. The starting signal was given a few minutes before 4 o'clock Saturday. There was a brisk breeze blowing from the southwest. At 5.50 p.m. Saturday the Dauntless was a mile behind the English craft, and at 6 o'clock was estimated to be three miles behind. At 3 h. 25 m. 23 sec. Sunday afternoon the light-ship off Cape May was rounded by the Genesta, she having completed half the distance in 23 hours, 38 minutes, 8 seconds. About 5 p.m. the northeast end lightship was passed and a few minutes later the schooner Dauntless was descried about 5 miles northeast of the lightship bearing down under full canvas, save that in place of her fore topsail she had the main top staysail set and her foretop mast had gone by the board. She was then 28 or 30 miles behind the Genesta. To-day at 10h. 11m. 55s. the Genesta rounded Sandy Hook lightship. Her official time of the race was 42h. 14m. 55s., and her actual time 42 hrs. 14 mins. 40 secs. J. Beavor Webb was in charge of the Genesta, Sir Richard Sutton having gone to England.

She Would Ask Charlie.

"O, Lucy, what do you think of the yacht race?"

"Indeed I don't know much about it; how was it?"

"O, don't you! Charlie was up as usual last night, you know, and he told me all about it—you know Charlie takes a great interest in these things."

"Yes, tell me about it."

"Well, when the Oriole started she stood on her starboard tack and broke it."

"No! what's a starboard tack?"

"I don't know, but pretty soon the Aileen luffed her spinnaker boom, and passed a red buoy on the port side."

"A red boy? An Indian, was it?" interrupted Lucy.

"I don't know. I'll ask Charlie. And then they both stood on the starboard tack awhile, till the Oriole's mainsail got mixed with the stern sheets——"

"What are the stern sheets?"

"I don't know, I'll ask Charlie—and the Aileen stood on some more tacks, and the Oriole held her own ——"

"Held her own what?"

"I don't know, I'll ask Charlie—and then the Oriole held her own until the Aileen was a mile to leeward——"

"The leeward—what's that?"

"I don't know; I'll ask Charlie—and by that time they both broke tacks with each other, and——"

"Broke tacks; that was bad."

"Yes, very bad; and then they rounded some more boys, and the Oriole went in corsets, and——"

"What! went in corsets!" repeated Lucy, shocked.

"No, not corsets, went in stays is what Charlie said, but it's the same thing; and then the Oriole came out ahead, and the yachts——"

"The yachts—what are yachts, my dear?"

"O, I don't know; I'll ask Charlie, and ——"

And we had to get off the car.

WHITE VERSUS WARD.

A Shooting Scene in a Virginia Town—Ward Gets the Worst of it.

ABINGDON, Va., Sept. 28.—Judge George W. Ward, editor of the Examiner and Commonwealth, and attorney for Washington county, while about to enter the Colonnade hotel yesterday evening was fired upon by Dr. Wm. White, independent candidate for state senator. White discharged one barrel of a shot gun loaded with buckshot at Ward, who fell face fore most, but recovering on his knees drew his pistol and fired three shots at a young relative of White's who was on the opposite side of the street behind a tree. White in the meantime had stepped inside a store, and hearing the firing came out again and fired a second barrel at Ward, who fell. While he was lying on the ground two of White's relatives, one of whom Ward had shot at and whom he thought had shot at him, walked up and fired seven shots at him (Ward), all of which took effect. Ward cannot live. White and his two relatives have been arrested, and bailed in $7000 each.

A CHINESE CAMP ATTACKED.

Violent Demonstrations Against the Mongolians in Washington Territory.

SEATTLE, W. T., Sept. 28.—The Chinese camp at Newcastle mines was visited Saturday night by a mob of masked white men, who compelled the guard to surrender. After some talk the mob agreed to give the Chinamen 24 hours to leave. They said they would riddle with bullets all Chinamen found there at the expiration of that time.

CHEYENNE, W. T., Sept. 28.—Workingmen representing all classes of labor held a secret meeting Saturday night and Sunday morning. A number of dodgers were distributed and posted on the doors of all houses occupied by Chinese, reading as follows:

A fair warning!!! All Chinamen found in this city after October 1 will be subjected to a coat of tar and feathers and ridden from the city on a rail.

Everything Goes.

TRAVERSE, D.T., Sept. 28.—The most destructive prairie fire ever witnessed in this community occurred yesterday. A man living in Lake township set fire to some straw; a south wind was blowing at the rate of sixty miles an hour, and in an instant the flames were beyond control and traveling northward with a frightful stride. The fire consumed everything within its reach, including houses, barns, hay, grain and farm machinery.

Death Due to a Fog.

Barnum, Jumbo and a Libel.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 28.—The Sun-Globe of this city yesterday printed a story charging that Jumbo was purposely put in the way of the train by which he was killed by Barnum's direction. Barnum to-day instituted a suit for libel against the Globe. Damages are set at $50,000.

Cholera on the Decline in Sicily.

ROME, Sept. 28.—To-day's despatches show that cholera is decreasing in Sicily.

BUFFALOS AND BOSTONS.

THE CLIPPER BASEBALLISTS BEAT THE FORMER BY 7 TO 2.

And the Torontos Play a Magnificent Game With the Latter—Annual Meeting of the A. A. A. of Canada.

It was a rattling game of ball, was the unanimous verdict of the twelve hundred and odd people who attended the baseball match on the Jarvis street grounds yesterday between the Boston league club and the Torontos. The latter club never played better. At the bat neither nine had much to boast of, the visitors only getting a total of three bases off Stemmyer, while the home team made two base hits off Whitney. It is possible the latter did not feel like breaking his heart in order to defeat the Torontos, but then self-pride will always induce a batter to hit as hard and as often as he can. It is, therefore, safe to say that Stemmyer pitched the best game. As a matter of fact, he pitched in admirable form all through, and the cultured nine could not hit him to any effect, no matter how hard they tried. Sutton, the great batsman of the team, the man who was second in last year's league record as a slugger, it is true, got in one two-bagger, but the only other man who succeeded in getting in a hit was Morrill. Stemmyer, however, made a wild pitch at an unlucky moment, when there was a man on third, and the Bostons accordingly made the one run by which they won. Conceding even that the visitors had the best of it in point of pitchers, and they certainly had not, in the matter of catchers they fail to come within view, for while Tate, their catcher, had two errors, Smith, the Toronto man, caught positively a faultless game. Not only did he hold fast to Stem's winders, but he took a foul fly on the run that would have puzzled the best of 'em to capture. But the game was a grand one all round. Not alone were the respective batteries surrounded with halo, but the fielding on each side was next door to errorless. The Bostons got through with a clean slate, Poorman at right field in particular distinguishing himself by taking a foul fly on the clean run, but the Torontos had one bad dot recorded against them. Macklin at second made a brilliant stop of a hot grounder. In doing so he fell on his knees, and in that position threw low to first. That was the only fielding error scored against the team. On the other hand no opportunity to secure flies was missed, Sheffler at left holding three, two of which were taken on the full run. Altogether it was a great game of ball, and the spectators were enthusiastically delighted. It can only be hoped that the home nine will acquit themselves equally as well against the Clippers to-morrow, and then the Hamilton men will recognize that they have ball players to contend with.

The Clippers Beat the Buffalos.

HAMILTON, Sept. 28.—The Clippers beat the Buffalos here to-day by 7 to 2. The battery for the Clippers was Chamberlin and Moore, and for Buffalo Peter Wood and Fred Wood. Chamberlin pitched a good game, only one safe hit being made off him up till the ninth innings, when the Bisons scored two runs—all they made. The Clippers went first to bat and virtually won the game in their first inning. By heavy batting and costly errors on the part of their opponents they made five runs. Stapleton added two more, one in the third and one in the sixth; he made a three-base hit in each inning. The Clippers made nothing in the remainder of the game and the Buffalos made two runs in the ninth. Jerry Flynn of Hamilton umpired, not entirely to the satisfaction of everybody. One thousand people witnessed the game. Time 1 hour 57 minutes.

The C. A. A. A. Annual Meeting.

After the games on Saturday and the presentation of prizes in the Rossin house, the Amateur athletic association of Canada held its annual meeting. The delegates present were: Montreal S. S. club, G. R. Starke, H. W. Beckett, T. L. Paton; Montreal A. A. association, A. Grant, J. N. Taylor, H. S. Tibbs; Queen's Own Rifles A. A. A., Capt. McGee, Capt. Brown, Lieut. Lee; Toronto Lacrosse club, Ross Mackenzie, W. J. Suckling, R. B. Hamilton; St. George S. S. club, Montreal, C. P. Sclater, W. L. Matthews, R. J. Ross; Argyle S. S. club, Montreal, C. McWood; St. Charles S. S. club, Montreal, E. Law; Toronto S. S. club, J. George, S. H. Henderson; Toronto Police A. A. association, Sergeant Stark; Le Trappeur S. S. club, Montreal, J. Gaudry; president, James Pearson, president T. S. S.; 1st vice-president, F. C. Henshaw, St. George S. S., Montreal; treasurer, J. McLaren, vice-president T. S. S.; secretary, H. Brock, Q. O. R., A. A. A.

Mr. Harry Brock, the retiring secretary, presented the annual report, by which it was learned that the association was in a most satisfactory condition. The following clubs had applied to be admitted to membership since the last meeting: St. Charles Snowshoe club and Athletic Snowshoe club of Montreal, the Toronto Police Amateur Athletic association and the Iroquois Snowshoe club. All had been allowed to affiliate except the Iroquois club, the bylaws of which had not been submitted and therefore could not be passed upon. The following clubs had asked for particulars of the association and the secretary trusted would ultimately become members: Peterboro, Guelph, St. Thomas, Brantford, Halifax, and Woodstock amateur athletic associations. Roger Lambe, of the Toronto fencing club, having resigned from the executive committee during the year, Lyman Dwight, of the Toronto snowshoe club, had been elected in his stead. The treasurer, Mr. John McLaren, reported that the finances were in a very encouraging condition. Owing to the severe weather experienced at Montreal last year the first games of the association had not been financially successful. This year's meeting, however, would meet every deficit, and would place to the credit of the association a clear balance of two or three hundred dollars.

A motion was passed to request the Montreal amateur athletic association to allow its annual cross country steeplechase to be run under the auspices of the Canadian association.

A committee consisting of the incoming president, first vice-president and secretary was appointed to consult with the American amateur athletic association regarding certain amateur laws.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Major F. C. Henshaw, president of the St. George's snowshoe club, Montreal; first vice-president, Major R. B. Hamilton, Toronto lacrosse club; second vice-president, Geo. R. Starke, vice-president of the St. George's snowshoe club, Montreal; secretary, H. W. Becket, Montreal snowshoe club; treasurer, W. L. Phallas and Harry Wilkes trot at Cleveland next Friday.

The hounds will meet to-day at 3.30 p.m. at Victoria Park.

There will be a great free-for-all race at the St. Louis fair in which Phallas, Maxey Cobb, Joe Davis and others will trot.

The Atlantics B. B. C. defeated the Adelaide B. B. C. in a game on Saturday on the exhibition grounds, by a score of 21 to 39.

At an inquest yesterday afternoon on the remains of Cola E. Stone, the champion bicyclist who died at St. Louis Saturday night, it was developed that he committed suicide by taking arsenic. The cause was disappointment in love.

A game of baseball between Caswell's Invincibles of Spadina avenue, and Hunter's Dreadnaughts, of Queen street, on Saturday afternoon, resulted in favor of the former by a score of 33 to 22, with an innings to spare.

On Saturday last a baseball match took place between the employes of Gage & Co. and Copp, Clark & Co., which resulted in a draw, owing to serious injuries received by Copp, Clark & Co.'s catcher at the end of seven innings.

Barney McCann, the sporting lawyer of London, is in the city, combining business with pleasure. It is a questionable case with the genial Barney whether he forsakes the forensic for the diamond field. He would shine as a star in either capacity.

The Irish athletes left Toronto yesterday at 12.30 for New York. They were given an enthusiastic send-off by Messrs. Brock, Lyman Dwight, J. C. McGee, McLaren and other members of the Athletic association and by John Cosgrave and numerous friends.

Gabe Case, the celebrated road horseman of New York, says: "I wish to match a team that I name against the $50,000 team of pacers, any day within the next fifteen, over the New York driving club's park, mile heats, best two in three, for from $1000 to $5000, money all up, half forfeit."

The American baseball association will next season offer cash prizes as follows: The winning club to get $3000, second $1500 and third $1000, to be divided among the players. It is believed this will have the effect of making the men work harder and play with greater zeal and vim, which would make the games still more exciting and interesting.

Three of the get of imported Glenelg won at Sheepshead Bay on the 17th. One of them, Little Minch, was entered to be sold for $1700, and was bid up to $2200, at which price he was bought in for his owners. Little Minch was purchased for less than $500 as a yearling, and his present owners did not pay that much for him, and yet he has this year won nearly $6000.

A PURSE FOR PARNELL.

BIRTH OF THE IRISH NATIONAL LEAGUE IN TORONTO.

Meeting at Albert Hall—J. P. Sutton's Speech—A Declaration for Home Rule—Three Resolutions Passed.

Albert hall was last night filled with a gathering intensely Irish, and sympathetic with the oppressed sons of Erin. They were gathered for the purpose of forming a branch of the Irish national league of America, and raising a fund to assist Parnell and his colleagues in their fight for home rule. Irish-Canadian Boyle presided. On the platform with him sat John P. Sutton, Quebec, organizer of branch leagues in Canada; Phillips Thompson, Chas. Burns, Chas. McManus, Jos. Mulligan, M. J. Tracy, Barney Lynch and other sympathizers with the cause.

Mr. Boyle explained the nature of the meeting and introduced Mr. Sutton. Mr. Sutton is a young Irishman from Quebec, with the country of his race deeply at heart. A slender man, he wore a deaconal coat and a pair of black kids, which gave great effect to his gesture. He said Ireland got her right of nationhood from God. That power saved her from annihilation, and that power would place her among the queen of nations. She was now in the rising dawn of a grander future. No nation ever trod so sublime a path. Yet she was told she had not the genius to govern herself. She was the only nation to break the barbarism of the north and save Europe from Scandinavianism. She was a victim of internecine wars, and during those clannish struggles England mustered forces for her obliteration. The poets declared her to be a place of destiny, and she was destined to be the free home of her own noble sons. The famines of 1847 and 1851 had done much to subdue her. The English took everything from her except the potato, and that failed. Attempts were made to cow them with coercion. Pure Irish women had been imprisoned on a law made for the annihilation of English prostitutes. Some of her truest patriots had been convicted on the evidence of perjured villains and Sodomites. Queen Elizabeth, whose career was like unto a harlot, did much to persecute and oppress Ireland's people. After 700 years of persecution the green isle stood erect for her rights, and with some assurance. The Gladstone government had been driven from power by Irishmen. The time had come when Irishmen must show their colors. He respected a Briton, but hated a British Irishman. He then read the platform of the league, and said its object was to hurt the enemy where he would feel it most; destroy sectionalism, and give the governed right to say who shall govern them and where they would be governed. The league recognized no distinction of creed and embraced anybody anxious to restore Ireland to a nation. He appealed to her expatriated sons to assist her, and to return Mr. Parnell and his colleagues to parliament. They would make a government of either whig or tory an impossibility. Mr. Sutton resumed his seat amid cheers.

Chas. Burns hoped to see the time when the members elected for Ireland would sit in parliament at Dublin, and moved the following resolution:

That we, the Irishmen of Toronto, in mass meeting assembled, do hereby extend to our fellow-subjects in Ireland our heartfelt sympathy and material support in every legitimate effort to obtain for Ireland such a government as we have in this dominion of Canada—a government of the people, for the people, by the people.

J. E. Duggan said if Irishmen were united their voice would rule their country, and seconded the resolution, which carried without dissent.

Phillips Thompson sympathized with the Irish in their fight for a government of their own against the forces of landlordism, and moved the following:

Be it resolved that we, the Irishmen of Toronto, do now form a branch of the Irish National league of America in this city, and that all Irishmen, regardless of creed, be invited to enroll themselves therein.

Barney Lynch, the notorious young liberal, in a speech exuberant with eloquence but broken by applause, seconded the resolution, which carried unanimously.

Chas. McManus longed to see the day when Ireland would be given the rights for which she had fought so long, and moved this resolution:

Be it resolved that we, the Irishmen of Toronto, do pledge ourselves to contribute, according to our means, for the support of the parliamentary fund inaugurated by the Irish national league of America.

Michael Tracy, jr., supported the resolution in a speech in which he hoped the friends of the oppressed country in Ontario would do all in their power to assist her. The resolution was unanimously approved.

Subscriptions amounting to $80 were taken for the Parnell parliamentary relief fund.

Victoria Kept the Will.

Labouchere in London Truth.

In the "Four Georges" great amazement is expressed by Thackeray because George II. seized his father's will and never would permit it to be proved, nor was anything ever heard of it afterwards, and it's suppression produced a violent quarrel with the royal family of Prussia. There is a long narrative in Horace Walpole's "Memoirs" about this will, but it is rather odd that after the lapse of 134 years precisely the same thing happened again, for the queen quietly took possession of Prince Albert's will and nothing has ever been known of its contents to this hour, nor does any one know the amount of property which he left. The prince had nothing when he came to England, except £100 a year or some such paltry sum; but he was very parsimonious—like his uncle, King Leopold—and I have been told that he must have left nearly a million, as he received £655,000 from the country, of which he did not spend as many shillings, and certain speculations in which he engaged turned out very profitable. I have only calculated the prince consort's allowance; but he also received large sums as military pay, and a trifle of £22,000 as Governor of Windsor castle, in which sinecure office he succeeded the Duke of Sussex, although the Duke of Wellington was anxious to appoint a deserving nobleman who had worked long and hard for the country.

The Prince of Wales in Distress.

From the London World.

The prince is, I hear, much grieved at the loss of his black sporting dog Bang in Stockholm, on the day of his arrival, the animal being lost in the crowd when his royal highness was about leaving the railway station. Every effort is of course being made for its recovery.

A BUDGET FROM HAMILTON.

Police Court Cases—A Torontonian's Experience—New School Building.

HAMILTON, Sept. 28.—John Butler was charged at the police court this morning with stealing $20 from Mrs. Kramer, 53 Merrick street. Prisoner called at her saloon yesterday to get something to eat, and during her absence climbed through a window into the barroom and secured the money. Committed for trial at the quarter sessions.

Henry W. Culverhouse of Toronto charged Lawrence Gleason with stealing $75 from him. The pair, in company with a Mexican named Marie, were drinking together, and on the invitation of the latter visited the place where he worked. In descending a narrow staircase he fell and became senseless, and when he recovered his money and Gleason were gone. Gleason sharply cross-examined the witnesses against him, and stated that he ran away because he thought the Mexican would stab him. Committed for trial at quarter sessions.

The fine new public school on West avenue is nearing completion and will be a credit to the city. The Victoria school also will soon be finished.

George Smith threatened to kill Mrs. McCreath, 14 Colborne street, yesterday. She saw him steal a pair of stockings out of her yard and when she followed him he drew a knife. At the police court this morning he got six months in the Central.

Thomas Murphy got two months at the police court this morning for insulting Rosa Ringer. Rosa works in Symons' cigar factory, and when she and her sister were at a dance in Dundurn park Murphy called her a scab because they had taken situations at that factory. He intends to appeal from the decision.

A horse and wagon belonging to John Ronan ran away this afternoon.

W. H. Holmes, formerly of Hamilton, has sued his father-in-law, C. J. Whitney, of Detroit, at that city for $50,000. He claims that Whitney promised Mrs. Holmes a dower of $30,000 but has not paid it, hence the suit. Mr. Whitney denies the story and says he has supported him ever since his marriage with his daughter.

Patrick Feeley was arrested this morning on a charge of aggravated assault on Daniel Doherty.

THE VOTE TO BE CONTESTED.

Charges of Fraud Against the Scott Act Association in Peterboro'.

PETERBORO', Sept. 28.—The excitement over the Scott act election continues. Much indignation is expressed at the manner in which the voice of the county against the act has been stifled. Many of the anti-Scott act scrutineers were unable to act through the neglect of the returning officer—a warm advocate of the Scott act—to provide the blanks necessary, and by the non-arrival of agents' certificates from him until the night before the poll. In some instances when the agents applied on the morning of the poll to the deputy-returning officer they were refused appointment. The result was a good deal of dishonest work at the polling places, rabid partizans of the act in some instances tampering with the ballots. In one case the deputy returning officer tore off the cross marked against the act. An extraordinary feature of the polling was the use of a partial list of voters, said to have been prepared by the Scott act association, but leaving off in this town alone the names of about 150 voters whose names appear on the genuine voters' list for 1884, from which the deputies' list was to have been prepared. The result was the refusal of the deputies to receive the votes of many opponents of the act. The French Canadian vote, which is a large one, lost heavily by these omissions. An indignant crowd of Frenchmen gathered on the main street on the evening of the poll, protesting against their being deprived of the franchise. Polling places were changed, contrary to law, and in one place the poll was moved on election day, with a result of sending voters home, unable to find the poll. The vote is to be contested in the courts.

The Fate of an Unknown.

BURFORD, Sept. 28.—As No. 5 train of the Grand Trunk railway, Brantford and Tilsonburg division, was running between Norwich and Springford about 9.15 to-night, the engine struck and instantly killed an unknown man who was walking on the track.

Indicted for Manslaughter.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 28.—At the assizes to-day the grand jury returned a true bill of manslaughter against E. Murphy the engineer of the train which killed Mrs. Fred. Saunders and Mr. Dempsey on the G. T. R., in this city a short time ago.

Is Munro Wanted?

Editor World: A number of people in the city interested in the Munro forgeries are inquiring among themselves whether or not the banks really want Munro back again. Some of them are unkind enough to say that were he to come back he could make it exceedingly warm for one of the bank officials who allowed him to go after he had secured his institution against loss by drawing $1500 in cash from the Merchants and securing a five day note from his friend, Mr. Walsh, for $3000. It is now generally understood that Mr. Walsh will contest the payment of this note on the ground that it was gotten possession of by the bank for an unlawful purpose, namely, that of lifting forged paper. There can be little doubt at all events that the banks did their best to save themselves from loss, and had the money in both cases been forthcoming to cover the forged paper deposited, it is likely there would never have been a word said about the matter, and this, to say the least of it, is not very creditable to our banking concerns. C.

He Should Not Have Looked.

Editor World: I was a visitor at a fashionable Methodist church on last Sunday morning. The choir (as is usual nowadays), is situate immediately above and behind the minister. The choir of this church is a large one. About the middle of the principal prayer in the service I raised my head and looked toward the minister—when, behold! I noticed the whole of that large choir, without a single exception, sitting bolt upright and staring at the congregation. What the congregation was doing I don't know. Probably a portion was returning the stare. The prayer was simple, earnest and eloquent. Now, here is what followed the prayer: The minister announced the anthem by the choir to be, "O come let us worship and bow down before the Lord our maker." It was well sung, but the bowing down was not a part of their program. X.

An Odd Address.

THE MAYOR'S MESSAGE.

HIS WORSHIP ON THE NEW ESPLANADE STREET.

The Cases of Assistant Jopling and Secretary Morriss Discussed—Other Business at the City Council.

Mayor Manning, Ald. Adamson, Allen, Baxter, Barton, Crocker, Carlyle, Defoe, Elliott, Frankland, Galley, Gormley, Hall, Hastings, Hunter, Irwin, Johnston, Lamb, Mackenzie, McMillan, Mitchell, Pepler, Piper, Saunders, Shaw, Sheppard, Smith, Steiner, Walker and the "Woodses" two, gathered last night to continue the business of the meeting which Ald. Baxter's eloquence brought to a hasty period last Wednesday evening. In a long spun message his worship reviewed the advantages that the construction of an eighty foot street along the Esplanade would give the city. Increased shipping facilities, increase in the value of water front lots, the removal of danger from fire sweeping across from the Esplanade to the business centres were enumerated. Besides this his worship held that the new street would do away with the present need for a new trunk sewer. As the city owns seven-eights of the frontage land, he thought it clear the corporation must most largely share in the benefits of the new thoroughfare in the shape of raised rentals. From this his worship melts into a lamentation over the increase in the city debt. With seventeen and a half mills this year, the city debt of $7,200,000 is heaped up with debentures for new court house, $300,000; waterworks, $160,000; public schools, $42,000; separate schools, $32,000.

When the council took up the executive report where they left off at last meeting, the waterworks committee's grant of city water to Mrs. Lefroy was referred back to the water committee.

There was no serious opposition to Ald. Shaw's argument against the injustice of terminating the street-lighting contract with the electric light company. He proposed a motion striking out that clause in the fire and gas committee's report, but yielded so as to give unanimous consent to a resolution shelving the clause with the committee again.

After the report had passed the mayor referred to the cases of Assistant Engineer Jopling (suspended) and Mr. Morriss (resigned). The aldermen gave half an hour to homilies on Mr. Jopling's weak and strong parts. Ald. Piper's argument that Jopling as an old and tried servant should be allowed one more chance had the sympathy of twenty members, who voted that the board of works should consider his case against ten who wanted to make his suspension permanent.

The water works committee was ordered to give their opinion on Mr. Morriss' resignation at the next meeting of the council.

The Mayor announced that he would suspend all officers who did not live up to the line of their duty.

The aldermen rushed through a stock of local improvement by-laws to an adjournment at 10.30.

What A Young Couple Did.

From Boston Letter to Providence Journal.

A charming family hotel was built in a suburb of Boston two years since. It was finished with all modern conveniences and inconveniences. There were electric bells in a row at the door, so that the afternoon caller could ring up nine different and peaceful maid servants before getting into communication with the family she came to see; there were fire escapes and telephones, and elevators and speaking tubes, and, for aught I know, safety valves and submarine cables. But the crowning joy of all was the fact that no children were allowed within its walls. It was built for the accommodation of childless couples, and to ten childless couples were the suites let. How great was the quiet and calm of that sheltered retreat, until one ill-starred morning, when the cry of an infant shrilly and piteously broke the stillness! Horror and indignation on the part of nine guiltless couples; and yet, so weak is humanity, that before the end of the second year there were children in seven of the ten families. The childless young couples were childless no more, and when the owner of the building complained to his friends of the unfair treatment he had received at the hands of his tenants they all laughed in his face and advised him to let apartments to bachelors.

He proposes to make the candidacy of Sir Henry James, Gladstone's attorney-general, for the parliamentary seat belonging to Bury, a suburb of Manchester, the occasion for undertaking a stumping tour.

Daniel Freeman, of Los Angelos, Cal., is at the Rossin. Mr. Freeman is a native of Norfolk county, Ont., and is a brother of J. B. Freeman, M. P. P. He is a successful ranch farmer there, probably the largest in the world, having cultivated 25,000 acres of grain last year, and in threshing it used thirty steam threshers. The product was over 1,000,000 bushels. Mr. Freeman intends to make Toronto his home, in order to educate his children.

These Autumnal Days.

Oh, the splendid—splendid mornings,
Resting on a hoop of gold;
Oh, the grand majestic sunsets,
All in purpled crimson rolled;
And the noontides—full of splendor,
And the air so soft and sweet,
Make the grasses rich and tender,
Laugh with gladness at my feet.

And the hillsides—hazy hillsides,
At their feet a dreamy pool;
And the meadows—oh, the meadows,
And the forests deep and cool.
Hear the gun shots in the clearing,
Hear the quick impatient cry,
While the game goes swift careering
Joyous through the liquid sky.
