

CRACKS OF AMERICA'S TURF

LONGSTREET DEFEATS TENNY AT MORRIS PARK

Three Lengths Between Them at the Great Meeting at Saratoga—Hats Spoils Local Outdoor Sports—Yacht Racing and Trap Shooting.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The great fight for $12,000 between David T. Postle's five-year-old bay colt Tenny by Raven D'Or, out of Belle of Maywood, and Michael P. Dewey's five-year-old brown colt Longstreet, by Longfellow, out of Semper Ideam, was yesterday fought for and won in the presence of more than 20,000 persons at all times, ages and descriptions. Ever since the two well-known sportsmen who own the pair of giants resorted to try conclusions with each other in the tropical country of Cuba had been the leading topic of conversation among every class of sportsmen. The interest taken in the contest fully equalled that bestowed upon the battle over the Chesapeake Bay track between Salvador and Tenny in June of last summer.

The race was originally fixed for Wednesday at the great track, but because, however, called for a good track. When Mr. Dewey and Mr. Postle and their army of followers were up on Wednesday morning and saw the well beating Tenny in a steady form that seemed likely to last all day, they knew that the match was off for that afternoon, and with their consent the Morris postponed the race until yesterday.

Opinions regarding the result of the fight were pretty evenly divided among the general public. Of course Tenny was the favorite of the masses. The professional sportsmen in the paddock, many of whom had seen Longstreet's great trial, would express a view. Tenny will have to stretch his neck and run true as steel if he is going to win, said a veteran, and his opinion voiced the view taken by all others who make their living on the turf.

When the numbers of the two champions were posted they were not so far apart as was expected. Tenny's number was 7 to 10, and Longstreet's number was 7 to 5, but the latter's number was so far as to call up to 5, but he was answered with such a spontaneous, bewildering roar that he quickly altered his note and again put up even. At the close of the quotations Tenny was 7 to 10, Longstreet 6 to 5.

Longstreet and Hamilton were the first to appear in the arena and the second were followed by a round of applause. Tenny was saddled over at the stables on the other side of the course. The result was that nine-tenths of the spectators did not see him as he passed the stand to the mile and a quarter start's post.

When the flag fell with the two horses neck and neck, Hamilton on Longstreet went out in front and set such a heart-breaking pace that at the end of the first quarter he led by a length and a half. The second quarter was won by Longstreet, sitting perfectly on Longstreet's seat, and he led by a length and a half at the end of the second quarter. The third quarter was won by Longstreet, sitting perfectly on Longstreet's seat, and he led by a length and a half at the end of the third quarter. The fourth quarter was won by Longstreet, sitting perfectly on Longstreet's seat, and he led by a length and a half at the end of the fourth quarter.
