CYDESDALE BREEDERS.

Annual Meeting and Election of Officers Yesterday. The Wilson Bull.
There was an air of good, solid fellowship about the members of the Cyclopedia Horse Association of Canada, who gathered in the Albion Hotel yesterday afternoon.

Meeting of the Executive.
The meeting was a thoroughly representative one, nearly every branch of the heavy weights in Canada being present, including Messrs. George Gray, Charles J. Cherry, Toronto; A. E. Major, Whitworth; J. M. Cowie, Clarendon; A. Doherty, Elmhurst; George Kerr, Yverton; R. W. Wilson, Varney; J. W. Clements, St. Mary's; Hearn, Ashbourne; A. Kennedy, Ayr; R. Keith, M.P., Bowmanville; William Smith, M.P., Columbus; Alexander Cameron, Ashbourne; George Cockburn, Baltimore.

Visiting the Exhibition.
The United States horses, he said, were bred on show lines and not for usefulness. He strongly denounced the contention of the American Association in regard to the action they have taken in compelling the Canadian breeders of Cyclopedia to register in the United States stud book.

"BROTHERLY LOVE"

As Exemplified by Wah Lung and his Chinese Friends.

Until a few weeks ago Wah Lung and his brother were partners in the laundry and shoe store at 37 1/2 Queen-street west, when they separated, not the best of friends, the younger going further west in Queen-street, but Monday being the Chinaman's New Year's, Wah Lung could not allow the festive season to pass without entertaining his friends, and his brother also was invited. The fun was kept up until yesterday forenoon, when a general row took place. Evidently the Celestial gentlemen had read the account of the recent Corbett-Mitchell match, as the scrap was conducted in the most approved style, Wah Lung's brother being knocked out. The police were called in, but no arrests were made. The place bears ample evidence of the serious manner in which the row was conducted, the windows being all smashed.

Timely gifts.
The annual meeting of the Toronto Savings Bank "Charitable Trust" was held at St. John's Grove, His Grace the Archbishop presiding. It was resolved that the sum of $300 be set aside from the funds of the trust for distribution among the charities, and that the treasurer, Mr. M. O'Connor, be requested to apportion the same as follows: House of Providence $200, St. Michael's Hospital $200, St. Nicholas Institute $100, Orphanage at Sunnyside $100, House of Our Lady $100, House of Industry $100, total $800.

Keatinge Giving the Knifer.
City Engineer Keatinge has given notice of dismissal to four of the employees of his department. They are H. Paxon, storekeeper, $780; E. W. Barton, storekeeper, $780; George Gray, Clerk; J. Cherry, Toronto; A. E. Major, Whitworth; J. M. Cowie, Clarendon; A. Doherty, Elmhurst; George Kerr, Yverton; R. W. Wilson, Varney; J. W. Clements, St. Mary's; Hearn, Ashbourne; A. Kennedy, Ayr; R. Keith, M.P., Bowmanville; William Smith, M.P., Columbus; Alexander Cameron, Ashbourne; George Cockburn, Baltimore.
