A WRANGLE ABOUT COAL.

An Inquiry Will Be Made as to Deviations The Executive Committee yesterday

The Executive Committee yesterday passed the report of the Committee of Works respecting a big batch of side-walks and pavements, excepting the asphalt recommended for Brunswick-avenue, which was referred back as the Executive considered it too expensive for such a thoroughters.

The project for water supply to Toronto Ferry Company's Hotel and grounds at the Island unanimously pass-

There was a long and acrimonious discussion on the Property Committee's recommendation of the acceptance of Messrs. Rogers & Co.'s tender of $3.36 per ton for anthracite coal. McGill's tender at $3.27 per ton had been ruled out as informal through non-compliance with the specifications. Ald. R. H. Graham and others challenged the fairness of this procedure, and insinuations and personalities prevailed for an hour. The report passed. An inquiry will be made into the allegation that inferior coal was allowed in Rogers' contract last year.

In reference to the Esplanade site for the Cobban Company Ald. Lamb moved that the report of the Property Committee recommending $4.50 per foot for 21 years be struck out. Ald. Jolliffe defended the reduced terms. Only Ald. Lamb and Hallam voted for striking out the report. The altered terms will go on to council, where the battle of the price will be longht over again.
