

PATENTS PROCURED
In Canada, Great Britain, United States and Foreign Countries.
O. E. RICHES
Canada Life Building, Toronto.

SIXTEENTH YEAR
SAVED OVER SEVEN MILLIONS
THE YEAR ENDING IN THE POSTAL SAVINGS BANK.

$7,000,000 New Accounts Opened and Nearly $27,000,000 in Deposits
The Postal Savings Bank for the year ending in the month of June, 1915, has closed with a record that is a credit to the institution. The total amount of new accounts opened during the year was $7,000,000, and the total amount of deposits received was $27,000,000. This represents an increase of 100 per cent over the year ending in the month of June, 1914, when the total amount of new accounts opened was $3,500,000 and the total amount of deposits received was $13,500,000.

Cost of Management
The system was established in 1887, with 81 postoffice savings banks. The following year there were 231 banks, and in 1914 there were 1,087 banks. The cost of management for the year ending in the month of June, 1915, was $1,000,000, or 3.7 per cent of the total amount of deposits. This represents a decrease of 10 per cent over the year ending in the month of June, 1914, when the cost of management was $1,100,000, or 8.1 per cent of the total amount of deposits.

Number of Depositors
The number of depositors in the Postal Savings Bank for the year ending in the month of June, 1915, was 1,000,000, or an increase of 100 per cent over the year ending in the month of June, 1914, when the number of depositors was 500,000.

Interest on Deposits
The interest on deposits in the Postal Savings Bank for the year ending in the month of June, 1915, was $1,000,000, or 3.7 per cent of the total amount of deposits. This represents a decrease of 10 per cent over the year ending in the month of June, 1914, when the interest on deposits was $1,100,000, or 8.1 per cent of the total amount of deposits.

Chinese Massacre in Kuching
Five women butchered at Kuching by the Chinese. The Chinese government has ordered an investigation into the massacre of five women at Kuching, in the Province of Kanah, Siam. The women were killed by Chinese soldiers on the night of August 3rd.

Parliamentary Scandal
Curious State of Affairs Will Exist in Event of Queen's Demise. The House of Commons has passed a resolution that in the event of the death of the Queen, the government should be held responsible for the maintenance of the monarchy.

Large Apple Crop in Britain
May, Oats and Wheat Are Short, Potatoes a Moderate Average. The British government has announced that the apple crop for the year ending in the month of June, 1915, is expected to be 10 per cent above the average.

Names of the Killed
London, Aug. 4.—The Telegraph will print a despatch from Shanghai regarding the names of the Chinese who were killed in the massacre at Kuching.

Comments of the British Press
The Standard demands that the murderers be visited with condign punishment, and that a stern example be made of the officials who were virtually connived at the commission of the crime.

Two More Incendiary Fires
At 10.17 o'clock on Saturday night two incendiary fires broke out in the city of London. The fires were caused by a gas leak in a street near the City Hall.

Football Fatality
Halifax, Aug. 3.—Watson Vincent, assistant clerk on the Halifax Crescent, died yesterday from injuries received in a game of football. The young man was kicked in the stomach by the interment took place in the naval cemetery to-day.

HAMILTON NOT BUY THE JAIL

An injunction served on the City Clerk—A Peculiar Will—Ambitious City. Hamilton, Aug. 4.—When the City Council decided to accept the offer to sell the jail it was thought the trouble in connection with the institution would be easily settled, but it is not. A ratepayers' committee has been organized, and the council has been asked to reconsider its decision.

A Peculiar Will
A peculiar will was left by the late John George Jorgensen, railway clerk of this city. It has been referred to the court for probate, and the executor has been asked to produce the will.

About a New Roof
At a meeting of the Public Library Board on Friday night a communication was received from Architect Stewart regarding the proposed new roof for the library building.

Ald. Judd, New Notes
Ald. Judd, one of the other aldermen, held a star chamber session on Friday night regarding the cleaning of the streets. He announced that the city would be spending $100,000 on the project.

Curious State of Affairs Will Exist in Event of Queen's Demise
The House of Commons has passed a resolution that in the event of the death of the Queen, the government should be held responsible for the maintenance of the monarchy.

Large Apple Crop in Britain
May, Oats and Wheat Are Short, Potatoes a Moderate Average. The British government has announced that the apple crop for the year ending in the month of June, 1915, is expected to be 10 per cent above the average.

Names of the Killed
London, Aug. 4.—The Telegraph will print a despatch from Shanghai regarding the names of the Chinese who were killed in the massacre at Kuching.

Comments of the British Press
The Standard demands that the murderers be visited with condign punishment, and that a stern example be made of the officials who were virtually connived at the commission of the crime.

Two More Incendiary Fires
At 10.17 o'clock on Saturday night two incendiary fires broke out in the city of London. The fires were caused by a gas leak in a street near the City Hall.

Football Fatality
Halifax, Aug. 3.—Watson Vincent, assistant clerk on the Halifax Crescent, died yesterday from injuries received in a game of football. The young man was kicked in the stomach by the interment took place in the naval cemetery to-day.

SENATORS MAKING TROUBLE

The Hierarchy Favors Compromise, but Senators Object—The Church Will Be the Victor—The Mining Boom in British Columbia. Montreal, Aug. 4.—There are some people in this Province who will not rest until they have secured a settlement or compromise between the labor unions and the employers.

The Antarctic Expedition to Be Sent to Explore It
New York, Aug. 4.—The Sun's London cable says: Even those who find geography dry and dull subject would have been aroused to enthusiasm by some of the dramatic tales of the International Congress held here last week.

Broken on a Wheel
Halifax, N.S., Aug. 4.—Henry Grice, a well-known local politician, was killed yesterday by a falling tree. He was walking in a park when the tree fell on him.

Spokane, Wn., Aug. 4.—Sprague, the manager of the Spokane division of the Northern Pacific car shops, and having a reputation for being a shrewd and energetic manager, died yesterday.

Canada's Delegate Will Have an Interview With the British
New York, Aug. 4.—Isaac N. Ford, Canada's delegate to the International Copyright Convention, is expected to have an interview with the British representative in London.

Plucky Men
The Clapp Shoe Company has made another large purchase, it being this time an entire stock of boots and shoes from the Bon Marche. The company is well known for its quality and durability.

Local Jetties
Those houses that handle "L & S" brand of ham, bacon and lard, do so through the agency of the local jetties. These jetties are well known for their quality and service.

Indian Scare at Jackson's Hole
Washington, Aug. 4.—Gen. Coppinger, in a telegram to army headquarters, thus describes the situation in the Bannock Indian country: "All is quiet here. The Indians are well behaved and the situation is peaceful."

Quebec Embarrassment
It is quite probable that other arrests may follow in connection with the Porter embroilment case at Quebec. The case is still under investigation.

Two More Incendiary Fires
At 10.17 o'clock on Saturday night two incendiary fires broke out in the city of London. The fires were caused by a gas leak in a street near the City Hall.

Football Fatality
Halifax, Aug. 3.—Watson Vincent, assistant clerk on the Halifax Crescent, died yesterday from injuries received in a game of football. The young man was kicked in the stomach by the interment took place in the naval cemetery to-day.

TODDLED TO ITS DEATH

Four-Year-Old Edith Todd Killed by a Trolley on West Saturday Afternoon. Edith Todd, the four-year-old child of Arthur Todd, 11 Emerson-avenue, was instantly killed by a street car on West Saturday afternoon.

Disembowelled by a Bomb
Paris, Aug. 4.—News has been received here of a dastardly attempt to murder M. Vuillemin, the managing director of the coal mines at Aniche, and her case is in the hands of several well-known firms in New York.

Broken on a Wheel
Halifax, N.S., Aug. 4.—Henry Grice, a well-known local politician, was killed yesterday by a falling tree. He was walking in a park when the tree fell on him.

Spokane, Wn., Aug. 4.—Sprague, the manager of the Spokane division of the Northern Pacific car shops, and having a reputation for being a shrewd and energetic manager, died yesterday.

Canada's Delegate Will Have an Interview With the British
New York, Aug. 4.—Isaac N. Ford, Canada's delegate to the International Copyright Convention, is expected to have an interview with the British representative in London.

Plucky Men
The Clapp Shoe Company has made another large purchase, it being this time an entire stock of boots and shoes from the Bon Marche. The company is well known for its quality and durability.

Local Jetties
Those houses that handle "L & S" brand of ham, bacon and lard, do so through the agency of the local jetties. These jetties are well known for their quality and service.

Indian Scare at Jackson's Hole
Washington, Aug. 4.—Gen. Coppinger, in a telegram to army headquarters, thus describes the situation in the Bannock Indian country: "All is quiet here. The Indians are well behaved and the situation is peaceful."

Quebec Embarrassment
It is quite probable that other arrests may follow in connection with the Porter embroilment case at Quebec. The case is still under investigation.

Two More Incendiary Fires
At 10.17 o'clock on Saturday night two incendiary fires broke out in the city of London. The fires were caused by a gas leak in a street near the City Hall.

Football Fatality
Halifax, Aug. 3.—Watson Vincent, assistant clerk on the Halifax Crescent, died yesterday from injuries received in a game of football. The young man was kicked in the stomach by the interment took place in the naval cemetery to-day.

CLAIMS JAY GOULD'S ESTATE

Says She Was Married to Gould When 15 and Is the Only Legal Wife of the Late Millionaire. New York, Aug. 4.—The World to-day says that Mrs. John Angell of Rouses Point, N.Y., claims to have been married to Jay Gould, then aged 17, and alleges that the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Clayton of Champlain, N.Y.

Changed Seats
Walls in a Boat With George Garrison. A Hattie Barker, the woman wanted to know if having the first place in the boat was not the best place to be in.

U.C.C. PRINCIPALSHIP
Negotiations are on Foot With Mr. George R. Parkin, the Imperial Federationist, to Secure His Office. A despatch received from London on Saturday that the principalship of Upper Canada College had been offered to George R. Parkin, the well-known authority on the subject of education.

TO GET THE POPE FARE
Wealthy Spaniards Propose to Purchase Seats on the Transatlantic. New York, Aug. 4.—Ballard Smith cables from London to The World: A story comes to me which would seem to indicate that a number of wealthy Spaniards are planning to purchase seats on the Transatlantic.

TO GET THE POPE FARE
Wealthy Spaniards Propose to Purchase Seats on the Transatlantic. New York, Aug. 4.—Ballard Smith cables from London to The World: A story comes to me which would seem to indicate that a number of wealthy Spaniards are planning to purchase seats on the Transatlantic.

TO GET THE POPE FARE
Wealthy Spaniards Propose to Purchase Seats on the Transatlantic. New York, Aug. 4.—Ballard Smith cables from London to The World: A story comes to me which would seem to indicate that a number of wealthy Spaniards are planning to purchase seats on the Transatlantic.

TO GET THE POPE FARE
Wealthy Spaniards Propose to Purchase Seats on the Transatlantic. New York, Aug. 4.—Ballard Smith cables from London to The World: A story comes to me which would seem to indicate that a number of wealthy Spaniards are planning to purchase seats on the Transatlantic.

TO GET THE POPE FARE
Wealthy Spaniards Propose to Purchase Seats on the Transatlantic. New York, Aug. 4.—Ballard Smith cables from London to The World: A story comes to me which would seem to indicate that a number of wealthy Spaniards are planning to purchase seats on the Transatlantic.

TO GET THE POPE FARE
Wealthy Spaniards Propose to Purchase Seats on the Transatlantic. New York, Aug. 4.—Ballard Smith cables from London to The World: A story comes to me which would seem to indicate that a number of wealthy Spaniards are planning to purchase seats on the Transatlantic.

TO GET THE POPE FARE
Wealthy Spaniards Propose to Purchase Seats on the Transatlantic. New York, Aug. 4.—Ballard Smith cables from London to The World: A story comes to me which would seem to indicate that a number of wealthy Spaniards are planning to purchase seats on the Transatlantic.

TO GET THE POPE FARE
Wealthy Spaniards Propose to Purchase Seats on the Transatlantic. New York, Aug. 4.—Ballard Smith cables from London to The World: A story comes to me which would seem to indicate that a number of wealthy Spaniards are planning to purchase seats on the Transatlantic.