AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE Extract of a Letter from Mr.J. H. Alliday, 209, High Street, their show dated the 22nd of January, 1850.

To Professor Holloway.

IR, -My eldest son, when about three years of age, was afflicted with a Giandular opened on Monday, July 29th instant. welling in the neck, which after a short time broke out into an Useer. An eminent niedical man pronounced it as a very bad case of Seredula, and prescrided for a considerable time without effect. The disease then fir loar years went on gradually increasing in virulence, when bisides the ulcer in the nees, and ther formed below the left knee, and a third ther formed below the left knee, and a third under the eye, besides seven others on the left arm with a tamour between the eyes, left arm with a tamour between the eyes, which was expected to break. During the whole of the time my sudeing boychad received the constant source of the mist celebrated medical Gentlemen at Chertenham, besides being for several months at the General Hospital, where one of the surgeons said, that he would amputate the left arm, but that the would amputate the left arm, but that the bod was so impure, that dithat himb were taken off it would be then even impossible to subdue the disease. In this desperate state I determined to give your Pils and Ontiment a trial, and after two months perseviation in their use, the tumor gradually began to disappear, and the disease, and at the expiration of eight months they were perfectly healed and the boy thoroughly restored to the blessings of health, to the astonishment of a large circle of acquaintances, who could testify to rings of health, to the astonishment of a large currele of acquaintances, who could teasify to the truth of this miraculous case. Three years have now claused without any recurrence of the malady; and this boy is now! as healthy as hear to an wish. Under these circumstances I consider that I should be truly angrateful were I not to make you acquainted with this wonderful and effected by your THE FARMER'S GUIDE TO with this wonderful cure effected by (Signed)
