OUR NATURAL RESOURCES

Attention is now being directed towards the country's natural resources, as never before, since it is generally recognized that only by a more widespread utilization of Canada's undeveloped lands, mines, forests, water-powers and fisheries can present day economic problems be solved.

The Natural Resources Intelligence Branch of the Department of the Interior has published a map showing the leading natural resources of each province. In Nova Scotia mixed farming, mining and fishing predominate; in Prince Edward Island agriculture and agriculture, New Brunswick has large areas of timber, while mixed farming and fruit growing are outstanding interests. In Quebec, may be found a wealth of timber for pulp-wood, also minerals such as asbestos, graphite and molybdenum, while in Ontario somewhat similar opportunities exist.

In the Prairie Provinces the prospective settler or investor may obtain adequate returns on capital and labour in either grain growing, mixed farming or ranching, while in British Columbia lumbering, fishing, fruit growing and mining are among the leading industries.

In addition to information on natural resources, the map shows all railways and trade routes. An interesting and valuable feature is a series of comparative diagrams illustrating the production and exports of the various provinces. A copy of the map may be obtained free of charge upon application to the Natural Resources Intelligence Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa, and referring to this notice in the Bridgetown MONITOR.

BAPTIST NOTES

The Trail Rangers of the Bridgetown Baptist Church held a banquet last Saturday evening with the Junior C. G. I. T. as their guests. After supper the evening was spent in playing games, much to the enjoyment of all present.

The Church school is maintaining its increased interest. New members were added to the adult classes last Sunday. The Brotherhood and Philanthropic classes are carrying on a competition for new members which will run until Easter, the losing class to give a banquet to the winners. The Brotherhood is seeking to secure the attendance of one hundred next Easter Sunday, April 16th. It is hoped to have at least three hundred in the entire school that day.

Next Sunday afternoon, February 5th, thirty canvassers will cover the entire Baptist field in an Every Member canvass. The objective is $5,000 for the work of the year. The teams will report at the Sunday evening service, and the returns will be watched with keen interest.

FEBRUARY ROD AND GUN

Readers of outdoor fiction will examine with interest the February Rod and Gun in Canada. This issue of the popular sporting monthly contains stories by such well known authors as Harry M. Moore, Raymond Thompson, George L. Catten, George Gilbert and the regular contributors, Bonny-castle Dale, A. Bryan Williams, J. W. Winson and F. V. Williams. The various departments are up to their usual high standard and there is a special department for every sporting man whether his hobby runs to guns, fishing, trapping or any of the other fascinating attractions of the great outdoor life. The February issue is now on sale at the book stands. Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Publisher, Woodstock, Ont. A. J. Burns, local agent.

HONORED BY THE KING

Mrs. James Todd, Bridgetown, is the recipient of a bronze plaque and a letter from King George. The letter states that His Majesty joins the English people in sending the plaque in memory of a brave life given for others in the great war. The plaque is inscribed with the name of Guy M. Todd and bears the inscription: "He Died For Freedom and Honor."

BOYS' WORK

Two important events are near at hand. The Father and Son banquet will be held Thursday, February 9th, with Taylor Statten, Boys' Work Secretary of Canada, as the principal speaker. The Bridgetown debating team will meet the boys of Middleton, Thursday, February 16th.

To-morrow never comes unless you have a note to meet.

Local Happenings

The W.M.A.S. of the Baptist Church meets Tuesday, February 7th, at three o'clock, at the parsonage. The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held Thursday afternoon, February 2nd, at three o'clock, in the Board of Trade rooms.

The congregation of the Royal Bank Church, Belleisle, will hold their annual "At Home" family gathering tomorrow (Thursday) evening, in Belleisle Hall, from 6:30 to 10:00.

We understand considerably over $200 was collected by the ladies of the Women's Institute for the Russian Relief "Save the Children" fund, and solicitation is being continued in the work in outside districts. Mr. A. P. Little, manager of the Royal Bank, is kindly acting as local Treasurer, and donations may be paid in directly to him or they may be handed to either of the ministers. It is hoped that this will facilitate the giving by those whom it has not been possible to solicit.

ORIGIN OF "HALIFAX"

Halifax, the capital of Nova Scotia, founded by Lord Cornwallis in 1749, is named after the Earl of Halifax, the English statesman who served his country in the House of Commons and the House of Lords from 1688 until his death in 1716. In England the city of Halifax is of considerable importance as a market town. Two derivations are given for the name Halifax. According to Camden it means "holly hair," and he accounts for the origin of the name from the fact that the head of a virgin who had been murdered by a wicked clerk was suspended on a tree in the neighborhood of the English town, which place came to be much resorted to by pilgrims.

According to another account, the name means "holly face" and is derived from an image of St. John once preserved in a neighboring hermitage.

BEAR RIVER

Glad to report Mrs. Charles Dunn improving. Miss Josephine Saunders spent the week end in St. John.

Dr. and Mrs. Boylan and little son are visiting in Kings County. Mr. J. H. Cunningham went to Halifax Wednesday, returning Friday.

D. V. P. E. was held on Friday evening under the leadership of Mr. Steadman.

Mrs. Arthur Gregson entertained a number of friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mr. F. W. Fraser. The clam supper held by the ladies of the Methodist Church was a success, the sum of $35.00 being realized. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Rice returned from their wedding trip Monday and will occupy the house owned by Mrs. Percy Read.

PARADISE

Mrs. Hardy Layte left on Friday last to visit her son, Ralph, in Bridgeport, Conn.

A number of the young people went on a sleighing party to Middleton Friday evening, for the purpose of skating on the new rink. The sleighing was good, the skating excellent, and all reported a jolly evening.

An old fashioned concert was given by local talent in Longley's Hall, Thursday, 29th, under the auspices of the Women's Institute. A short drama of three acts entitled "Sykes' Predicament," a humorous sketch, "A Fall House," selections from the quartette, solo and a Duetto specialty were enjoyed by an appreciative audience. The sum of $46.50 forty-six dollars and fifty cents was realized.

LOCAL DEATH ROLL

MRS. J. M. CAMPBELL.

St. John, N.B., Jan. 29.-The death of Mrs. John Moore Campbell occurred at her residence, Summer street, on Saturday, in the ninety-sixth year of her age. Mrs. Campbell was a woman of strong intellect and her mind was perfectly clear to the last. She was the widow of Rev. John Moore Campbell, one time pastor of Bridgetown, N.S., and came of a distinguished family. She was the grand-daughter of Jacob Calnek, a nephew of the Duke of Saxe Coburg, who came to Canada in command of the Hessian troops.

She leaves to mourn, one son and one daughter, both of St. John. Interment was made at Bridgetown, N.S., yesterday.

HOW TO HANDLE BACK FIELDS WHICH NEVER RECEIVE MANURE

(Experimental Farms Note)

In Eastern Canada, including Ontario and the provinces eastward, there are approximately 20,761,000 acres under cultivation, of which 9,586,000 acres are in hay. The live stock in these provinces can produce during the winter months only about 50 million tons of manure, an amount insufficient to cover the entire area under cultivation when applied in any ordinary length of rotation. For this reason, extensive areas, estimated between one-quarter and one-half the entire area, never receive any application of manure whatever. Such land is usually far removed from the farm buildings; it is left in hay and pasture for several years, then ploughed, planted to oats and seeded down to hay again. Casual observation, as well as the foregoing statistics, confirm the widespread extent of this practice.

Now, what is the best method of handling such land? It is useless to say "apply manure" because the farmer has already applied elsewhere all the manure that has been produced. As the land is usually far from the buildings and often poorly drained, it would be unwise to plant corn or roots and to include it in the rotation used on the land near the buildings. The present practice is more preferable than that, but is the present practice the best possible one? There is much reason to think, from the results of definite experiments, that an improvement can be made in the present practice which will result in increased profits. One improvement which is widely known but poorly followed, is surface drainage, by care in plowing and attention to outlets, materially improves the tilth of the soil and, in some years, greatly increases the crop yield. Another improvement which may be adopted in many districts is the growing of alfalfa. If a few pounds of alfalfa are included in the ordinary hay mixture, one can learn at small expense whether alfalfa will grow profitably. If it will grow, it will be found to materially increase the yield of hay. Finally, as there is not enough farm manure, commercial fertilizers may be used.

At the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, commercial fertilizers have been used in comparison with farm manure and unmanured land for over ten years. The results have shown a large profit accompanying the use of the commercial fertilizers. In a four year rotation of mangels, oats, clover, hay and timothy hay, application of fertilizers were as follows: on the mangels, 300 pounds superphosphate, 75 pounds muriate of potash and 100 pounds nitrate of soda; on each of the oats, clover, and timothy crops 100 pounds of nitrate of soda per acre were applied. For the five year period, from 1916 to 1920, the total cost of these fertilizers on four acres of land, was $142.22; the value of the increased crop over unmanured land was $318.03; the net profit was $175.71. Figured on the basis of one acre, the net profit was $87.78 per year.

When one considers the extensive areas of land which never receive manure, it might be well worth while to plan to use some commercial fertilizers. If a small area were tried first, it would enable a farmer to decide whether such applications were profitable. The most profitable use of commercial fertilizers requires prudent buying and intelligent practice in making applications to the land. Persons desiring information on this subject are invited to correspond with the Field Husbandry Division, of the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.
