FRED. WHITLEY,
Box 1815, Post Office, Montreal.

We have lately been so pressed with work that our correspondence has fallen behind. Hope the friends we have neglected will pardon us; will pull up as rapidly as possible.

MATRIMONIAL.—Distance and pressure of work prevented our acceptance of the kind invitation to be present at the marriage of C. A. Keefer, Esq., (whose portrait we gave in September No.) to Laura, daughter of C. R. Manning, Esq., which took place at Sterling, Illinois, on the 2nd of October. The happy couple have our cordial congratulations.

It will not surprise the old friends of Mr. H. M. Thomas, to learn that he is to the front in Delaware as an exhibitor. At the late State Fair he was very successful, winning 1st prizes on poultry as follows:—Light Brahmas, old and young; Dark Brahmas, Buff, Partridge and White Cochins, Plymouth Rock, Black Spanish, White Leghorns, Black-red and Pile Games, Aylesbury Ducks, and Toulouse Geese. He was also very successful in other departments, winning two first prizes on horses, 4 on sheep, 2 on grain, including the best exhibit, and one on Roots. At the Dover Fair he carried off 23 prizes, and $5.00 for most prizes to one exhibitor. Friend Thomas is bound to give the fancy poultry business an impetus in Delaware, and he is just the man to do it.

The Midland Central Poultry Association purpose instituting an annual sale of thorough-bred poultry. The first of these sales will be held in November—of which notice will be given in the REVIEW—when the birds will be in good feather. Among the conditions of the sale will be the following: No birds will be offered except those bred from prize-winning pens; that all birds will be guaranteed free from any apparent disease; all birds offered will be sold. From the class of birds exhibited under the auspices of this society, some good stock may be looked for, and intending purchasers would consult their interests by attending the sale.

Sam says; "I don't mind getting the birds ready for the shows, and looking after them there, but sending home the borrowed ones is becoming a terrible job."

One more number will complete vol. 2.
