LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

LIVERPOOL, Wednesday, Oct. 27.

ITHE weather has again been very variable, but on the whole in favour of ploughing and getting in seed. The country corn markets were in general about is per quarter higher for wheat, during the first portion of the past week, but owing to the decline ir our last Friday's maket, and at the London market on Monday, they are again back to the late decline and very dult, so much out of condition wheat offering now at low prices, say, from 43s and upwards.

At the I ondon corn market on Monday last there was a very moderate show of English wheat, but the arrivals of Foreign during the week being liberal, the trade was a for English were barely supported, while foreign in many cases was is lower. Flour held for fell prices, but little doing

At our corn market, on Friday, owing to large arrivals from sea, and telegraph reports from New York of continued large shipments being made to this country, all hope of an advance was put an end to, and millers taking fright, would not purchase, so the lew sales of wheat made were at the decline of 2d to 7d per cental. Flour—no selling, even at is per barrel of a reduction indian Corn 6d higher in better demand.

At our corn market yesterday, there was about the cases after demand. the whole in favour of ploughing and getting in 2d to 7d per cental. Flour—no selling, even at la per barrel ci à reduction Indian Corn 6d higher in better demand.

At our corn market yesterday, there was about the usus attendance of country millers and dealers, who, owing to bad accounts of the London market, only purchased in retail at about Friday's reduction, but in one or two instances ex quay lots were sold at la lower than on Friday, or equal to 3d or 4d decline on the week. Flour fully is lower. Indian corn dull at 3d to 6d per qr under late rates. No change in peas, oats or barley.

Deliveries of Brilish wheat for week ending 23rd quast -12 900 qrs, against 63,106 qrs in 1863, and 80,163 qrs in 1851.

Imports into this port for week ending 25th Oct.:—Wheat, 83,763 qrs; oats 3 863 qrs; loads; flour, 2,823 sacks, 18,89, bris.

Exports in the same time were:—Wheat, 3,434 qrs; cais 3; pease, none; Indian corn. 207 qrs; eatmeal, 229 loads; flour, 223 kss, 505 bris.

Provisions—Butter has been arriving protty freely, but the demand has been sufficient to further advance prices. Lard is in a little better request. Bacon and itams without change, except in a better demand The arrivals of Cheese have been fair, but there are more buyers than sellers.

Aches—Sales 160 barrels Pots at 39s 3d to 30s 6d; Pearls 3la 9d for new.

Copper Ore—Telegrams from Chill announce charters as only 300 tons, which has rather stiffened the market, yesterday, however, the Swansea sale only averaged 12s 11d average produce 15; per cont. Ore is ecarce and wanted.

J. BELL FORSTTH & CO.

The labour question in California is creating much excitement, and numerous meetings have been held. The planters favour the importation of Chinese, but the commercial and labouring classes urge the encouragement of European immigration. All agree that a fresh supply of labour is necessary for the agricultural interests of the country.
