Dianna Weary o' Auld Folks.
BY JOHN IMKIE, TORONTO, ONT.

O'H' dianna weary o' auld folks,
An' wish that they were deid,
There was guid stoff in the auld stocks
O' muscle, heart an' heid!
They car'd for us when we were young,
An' fed us wi' their best,
Fu' mony a cheerie sang they sang
When croonin' us to rest.

Dianna weary o' the auld folk,
They never tired o' you—
Saved us frae many a hard knock,
An' aye were kind an' true!
Ane guid turn deserves anither,
Oor turn to them is plain—
Be kind to faither an' mither,
An' ease their care an' pain.

Then dianna weary o' auld folks,
They'll no be wi' us lang,
Aye cheer them up wi' cracks an' jokes,
Lalt them an auld Scotch sang!
Pit up wi' their auld-fashion'd ways,
Be never dour or thrawn,
An' mak' the gloamin' o' their days
As happy as oor da'!

FREE A Deaf Man's Slate

25 years I was almost totally deaf: could not understand a word; had to carry a slate so that people could "talk" to me. In one week after commencing Aerial Medication I surprised my friends by discarding the slate, I steadily improved, and now can hear the slightest noise and can understand conversation perfectly.
