Prospectus of the CANADIAN MONTHLY AND NATIONAL BEVIEW.

A feeling has long prevailed that the intellectual line of the Canadian nation ought to have some or-gan in the form of a good periodical. Attempts have been made to give it such an organ, but hith-erto they have not been successful.

In some measures they may have been prema-fure; but it is believed that their fathme has been named the to the want of a sufficiently strong and well-organized staff of writers, and of a fund suffi-cient to guarantee to contributes the fair remu-neration, without which, as multiplied experience proves, a periodical cannot be successfully carried on.

These requisites have now been effectually secured.

The literary aid and materials requisite for the support of a first-class magazine will be sought, without restriction, from all quarters—Canadian, British, and Foreign. But it is intended that the Magazine shall have a specially Canadian character, uch as it! heped, will end it Canadian particition in its support.

Palities will be treated with the circ of laterage.

Politics will be treated with the aim of infusing as much as possible of the historical and philosoph-ad spirit into the popular discussion of political que dions.

Religious questions, if they form the subject of any papers, will be treated with a similar sim.

Mr. Golawin Smith has concented both to contribute regularly, and to assist in conducting the magazine.

Notices of the Press.

There are few intelligent American familes in which Harrier's Magazins: would not be an appreciated and highly welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without. Many Magazines are accumulated, Hampin's is edited. There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.—Ner England Homested.

Magazine in the world.—New England Homestead.

A repository of biography and history, literature, science and art, unequaled by any other American publication. * The volumes are as valuable as a mere work of reference as any exclopedia we can place in our libraries. Harpen's Manazine is a record of travel every where since the hour of its establishment. Livingstone and Gordon Cunning in Africa; Strain among the Andes and Ross Brown in the East, Speke on the Nie and Magregor on the Jordon—indeed, all recent travellers of note have seen their most important discoveries reproduced in these pages. Most of our volumer and many of our older writers find here their literary biography.

THE 'NEW YORK TRIBUNE," FOR 1872.

The consolidation of Italy, so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful state, with Rome as its capital; the hunditation of France through a series of emishing defeats, ending with the sign and capitulation of her pound and gay metropolis; the spuished of the Bourbons from the Spunish throma and the substitution for them of a scinn of the most ilberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony Vurtersburg, Bavarfa, with Badon, Hesse, theony Vurtersburg, Bavarfa, with Badon, Hesse, theony Vurtersburg, Bavarfa, with Badon, Hesse, the hinse Towns, Ao., under the headship of Prussla, into the trit, phant and powerful empire of Germany. and the arming of itussia to reasert her preponderance in the coancils of Europe, or to presecute her often postponed clus of Europe, or to presecute her often postponed clus of Europe, or to presecute her often postponed clus of Europe, or to presecute her often postponed clusters with profound interest the over changing phases of the Old World. The Timurs, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Lurope where great movements are in progress or imminent, aims to present a complete and instructive punorame of events on that continuest, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle age Feadslism and Ecclesia-tiesm on the one involution and the content. Recognizing by by the Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the continues a destined the our own recenteconvulsion to envolve from strit, diese tr, and secularism of the other. Recognizing by the Providence in all that proceeds and is, it looks hopefully on the continues a destined the our own recenteconvulsion to envolve from strit, diese tr, and secularism of the other. Recognizing by the foremisting influence is destined to be felt in overy part of the Union, rebuking vonality, a war upon corruption and rescult; in office has been inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is desti of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

The virtual surrender by the Democratic party of it the stilly to Equal Rights regardless of Colour has divested our current politics of half their by gone intensity. However parties may henceforth rise or fall, is is clear that his fundamental principles which have hither to honorably distinguished the Republicans are henceforth to be regarded as practically accepted by the whole country. The right of every m. to his own limbs and sinews—the equality of all citizens before the law—the inability of a State to enclave any portion of its people—the duty of the Union to guarantee to every citizen the full enjoyment of his liberty unit he forfeits it by crime—such are the broad and first foundations of our national edifice, and passed be the hand which shall seek to displace them! Though not yet twenty years old, the Republican party has completed the noble fabric of Emalerjation, and may fairly invoke thereon the sternost judgment of Man and the beingnant smile of God Honceforth the mission of our Republic is one of Peacoful Propress.

party has completed the noble fabric of Emmicipation, and may fairly invoke thereon the sternest judgment of Man and the benignant smile of God Honceforth the mission of our Republic is one of Peaceful Progress. To protect the weak and the humble from violence and oppression—to extend the boundaries and diffuse the blessings of Civilization—to stimulate lugomity to the production of new inventions for economizing Labour, and thus enlarging Production—to draw nearer to each other the producers of Food and of Fabrics, of Grain and of Metals, and thus enhance the gains of Industry by reducing the cost of transportation and exchanges between farmers and artizans—such is the impiring task to which this Nation now addresses itself, and by which it would fain tribute to the progress, enlightenment, and happiness of our race. To this great and good work Thi-Triburn contributes its zoalous, persistent efforts.

Agriculture will continue to be more especially elucidated in its Weekly and Semi-Weekly Editions, to which some of the ablest and most successful fillors at the soil will steadily contribute. No farmer who sells 200 worth of produce per aunum can afford to do without our Market Reports, or others equally lucid and comprehensive. If he should read nothing else but what relates to his own calling and its rewards, we believe that no farmer who can rendat all can affect do without such a journal as The Transva. And we applie to make it equally to those engaged in other departments of Productive Labour. We spend more and core noneyon our columns such year, as our countrymen's generous patronage enables us to do; and we are resolved that our issues offormer years shall be exceeded in varied excellence and interest by those of 142.
