

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED.

1. Let nothing induce you to speak disparagingly of your parish. Stand up for your Church as you would for your mother.

2. Pray for your minister. He needs it. He is but a man, with responsibilities and many to please.

3. If an acquaintance of yours needs the aid and counsel of a clergyman, or if there is any opening to do one good, let your minister know about it.

4. Let your minister know if there is any one sick in your family, or in the family of any member of your church.

5. Speak to strangers about your church, and invite them to attend it. Be polite and attentive to those who do come. Give them a welcome, a seat and a book, and invite them to come again.

6. Make no engagements on week nights when there is service at your church; church engagements stand before all others.—Exchange.

If you are free from indigestion you need not fear cholera. If you are not free, you are in danger. K. D. C. will free you from both indigestion and cholera.

HOW TO HELP YOUR PASTOR.

1. Hear him. Never let him preach to your empty pew.

2. Recommend him. Don't dig his grave with your tongue.

3. Pray for him. The Master's blessing made the few loaves and fishes feed multitudes. Prayer will make what a pastor says and does, feel many.

4. Pay him. That is honest. A half-fed preacher needs food, and one that don't pay his grocery bills can do no good.

5. Give him sympathy, real sympathy; enter into actual fellowship with him in all his toils and cares. Jesus yearned for it in Gethsemane, and so does your pastor.

The reason some people do not go to church and Bible class more, is not because the services are tame and the people unsocial, but because the religious atmosphere of their soul in its temperature is away below zero.—Exchange.

AMMONIA.

In the mechanical world AMMONIA is of great use. Its alkaline effects make it very valuable for the coarser sort of scouring and cleansing. Some manufacturers of Baking Powder resort to it the most frequently and recklessly. They by its use make a great saving in Cream of Tartar, and the consumer suffers in its proving highly injurious to the coating of the stomach.
