No Better Medicine, and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."-H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

GOD IS LOVE.

God is love and love is God! And noother love elsewise, Whilst we plod this joyless sod, Will avail us in the skies.

God is God! and, oh! to ove Him With the deep love of the soul; None is worther above Him. Let Him be our anxious goal.

Could we know His love for us, All the heart with love aflame, Love would sing a grander chorus, Sweet and endless, to His name.

Love God, then, oh! Christian dear, Love Him truly, love Him wnole; He will shower, when He is near, Benedictions on thy soal—

Benedictions that will ever Shield thee from temptation's strife, That will leave thee never, never, Till you enter into Life. Love, friend, is the master key, Take it, keep it, to iteling; 'Twill unlock the treasury Of the heart of God—thy King.

THE THOUGHT OF CHRIST IN HISTORY.

Rev. Father Drummond, S.J., Delivers an Able Sermon in St. Mary's.

Standing room was found last night in St. Mary's church with difficulty by many, and not at all by many more. The great attraction in addition to the usual chanting of vespers was a sermon by the Rev. Father Drummond, S. J., on the subject of "Jesus Christ in History,' the text chosen being "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, to-day, and forever." The eloquent orator held the close attention of his crowded rudience while he spoke for about an hour and a half, clearly and forcibly presenting his arguments, showing the power of Christianity in the world from the earliest anity in the world from the earliest of the force of the spoke for about an hour and a half, the premiership, and he took a trip to Europe with the hope of gaining some of his old-time vigor. He was absent for over three months, but the trip did not do him any material benefit, and he returned home and he returned home and he returned home. It is a factor of the force of this Grace Archbishop Tache and Father Drummond, S. WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

The Editors of The Brandon Sun and Merchants' Advocate up in Arms.

We are in receipt of volume 1, No. 2, of the Merchants' Advocate, a semimonthly magazine devoted to the interests of the merchants and citizens of Brandon, printed and published by A. H. Liversidge & Co. From The Advocate's general appearance and make-up, like numerous other young enterprises of this character, there still remains ample room for improvement. The fol-lowing extract taken is from the Brandon Sun regarding the new venture:

"The Merchants' Advocate is the latest acquisition to Brandon's papers. But The Advocate is not a paper, it is a semi-monthly magazine. From its appearance it might be supposed that the lic some idea how badly it was possible to print a paper. The advertisements, what few there are, have the appearance of having been "set up" by an amateur, while the letterpress is scarcely as well executed as was the work done on the old wooden presses. The English of the reading matter is as bad or worse than the mechanical execution."

The Advocate replies thusly: "No doubt our esteemed friend Mr.

White, or his collaborators are a pantology and paregoric to the Merchants' Advocate at present. We did not know that Mr. White and his collaborators were subject to belch and equivocation or else we might have had our first issue more complete by calling on our esteemed propagandists, encyclopedias or egotists for collocation of issue. We wonder if cur sycophants really understand what they are ranting at? I think not; when they say, "the advertisements, what few there are, have the appearance of having been "set up" by an amateur." lower right side of the abdomen, making the first place we are in the field to suit our customers, and in the second term, not to oblige an illiterate pantology of modality. No doubt our esteemed friends are adynamic in their literature, when they say, "the English of the read-ing matter is as bad or worse than the mechanical execution," for I think if The Advocate was composed any worse than the article of "The Sun" above, with, "that, is and its," I would lay dawn my pen and withdraw may name from the editor's roll."

Judging from the foregoing extract, a representative of Webster's dictionary would reap a golden harvest among those citizens of Brandon who, like us, wish to know " what it's all about."

For the cure of headache, constipation, stomach and liver troubles, and all derangements of the digestive and assimilative organs, Ayer's Pilis are invaluable. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take, always reliable, and retain their virtues in any climate.
