BLACK V. HOHLSTENS—DENISON V. HOHLSTENS—MASTER IN CHAMBERS—AUGUST 12.

Attachment of Debts—Claim Arising after Service of Attaching Order—Practice.]—Motion by a claimant to set aside an order of the Master making an attaching order absolute. The Master said that from the time the order was served on the garnishee all moneys due by him to the judgment debtor were attached: Parker v. McIlwain (1896), 17 P.R. 84. The claim of the Bank of British North America had priority over the plaintiffs' (judgment creditors') attaching order; but the present applicant was not entitled to have the order set aside, as all the transactions between the defendant (judgment debtor) and the applicant occurred two days after the service of the attaching order on the garnishee. All moneys due by the garnishee over and above the amount required to pay the claim of the bank should be paid to the judgment creditors as they became due. There was no need to direct the trial of an issue. No costs. B. N. Davis, for the applicant. L. F. Heyd, K.C., for the plaintiff Black. Alexander MacGregor, for the plaintiff Denison.
